

George Washington

Was not only a statesman and a soldier, but he was also a business man. He handled his property and managed his farms with careful foresight, economy and thrift. He kept close account of all expenditures and was saving.

February 22nd is Washington's birthday anniversary. No finer tribute could we pay him than to determine to be as wise, as patriotic and as thrifty as he.

A letter to City Marshal Drake from James Crawford announces the arrival of the remains of his father, E. W. Crawford, at Napa, California and that he had been interred in a beautiful spot in the cemetery there where his burial place would receive constant attention as one of the requirements of the conditions of the will, therefore his resting place will be kept green. Jim sends his thanks to the many friends who gave their assistance and sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fiser were up from Crane during the week.

B. B. Clark was a business visitor to Burns early this week.

W. L. Lowe was over from his Silver creek ranch home during this week.
