LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dunton were over from their home above Drewsey the other day.

The old cows are now able to get some grass since the recent rains and the warm weather of this week have started it growing.

J. J. Brosman a representative of the U. S. land department, has been in this vicinity during the present week looking after official matters.

Manager Graves of the Central Oregon Telephone Co. and his son Herbert, spent a portion of this week improving the line between here and Canyon City. They returned here Tuesday evening.

Married—Thursday, April 9, at the Nazarene parsonage, Carl F. Bado and Miss Lola May Dunton, both of Drewsey. Rev. J. W. Stuart performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dunton, pioneer resident of the Drewsey country. The Times-Herald extends best wishes to the young couple.

Harry Riggs and his son Everett were visiting with relatives and friends in this city this week. They left this morning for Lake county where they reside. Harry was a resident of this place during his boyhood and is favorably remembered by many of our people. He is a brother to Charley and Matt Riggs and Mr. Frank Baker. His son Everett has taken part in the Round-up here the last two years and is a well known rider. The young man spent several months last fall in New York riding for exhibition purposes.

Mrs. Lee Caldwell has returned home from Portland where she was for a short visit and to attend to some business matters.

The city marshal has announced that cleanup week has been designated this month beginning April 29. Get busy and clean up your premises.

C. E. Silbaugh, the contractor, arrived home Tuesday night from Portland. He made the entire distance in his car in 14 hours, over 400 miles. He left yesterday morning for Boise where he has some business.

John DuBuis, an irrigation engineer with headquarters at Bend, has been looking around Burns this week, having accompanied H. H. DeArmond, the attorney over. Mr. DuBuis has been connected with the Oswald West project over in the Deschutes country. He sees a great future for this territory and would like to get connected up with some project here.

Frank Johnson of the Oregon & Western Colonization Co. arrived from Prineville on Thursday afternoon. He is here to meet some prospective real estate buyers and also some stock men in the way of leasing grazing lands for the season. Mr. Johnson was accompanied over from Prineville by Mrs. V. V. Harpam and her two children. Mr. Harpam, who is Forest Supervisor of the Gohese, is expected here tonight.

We really ought to fix up our walks a little, clean up the yards, shut up the chickens as it is gardening time, but so long as we have to pasture the range horses it's not much use. However, Marshal Drake care of, either corralled or driven out says the horses are going to be taken on the range, so we may take heart and get the house wife to take a more optimistic view of life.

William Hanley returned last Saturday from a trip to outside points.

Judge Grant Thompson was up from his ranch home during this week.

Water Master A. H. Page was in this vicinity during the week looking after official matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Otus Sizemore are in town this week from their home near Narrows, being here on court matters.

E. N. Nelson was up from the ranch Thursday. He has recently completed seeding 60 acres of rye and is now sowing some wheat.

Manager A. H. Graves of the Central Oregon Telephone Co. was a passenger out on yesterday morning's train for Harper where he goes to do some repair work on the line.

The river is running bank full these days and some of the water is spilling over and being more or less wasted, but this is going to continue until we are ready to become modernized in the use of water and store it. In most places water is considered too precious to waste but we've gotten used to it in Harney valley.

W. B. Skogerson, engineer in charge of supplies for the Union Pacific improvements here, has been to Salt Lake, returning home Tuesday evening. While absent Mr. Skogerson had an operation performed on his throat. When asked as to when we could expect daily train service Mr. Skogerson said he could give us no information whatever on the matter.

M. H. Brenton is again at his old post of duty in the Star soft drink emporium. Mart has been connected with that corner for so many years that he has become a part of it. Byron Terrill recently took the lease over from Frank Hossman, but he found the indoor work was detrimental to his health and decided to retire. Mart is again on the other side of the counter ready to serve his friends and customers.

R. H. Brown was here from his ranch home at Nyssa during the week, having come over to attend the funeral of his old friend Henry Hamilton. Mr. Brown has engaged in raising a small flock of sheep on his ranch and says he finds it more successful than trying to make his ranch pay from a crop standpoint. Mr. Brown has large land and stock interests in the Stein's Mountain section but at present this property is under lease.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Doan are up from their ranch home at Fields. They came up for circuit court.

Henry Long, one of the old pioneers of this section, has been greeting friends in Burns during the week.

Court Stenographer W. M. Walker arrived here Saturday night and is attending this regular term of circuit court.

The excellent weather during this week has made a vast improvement in the growth of the grass and crops that have been seeded.

Mrs. L. N. Stallard is over from her farm home near Drewsey on business connected with the settlement of the estate of her late husband.

H. H. DeArmond, one of the leading attorneys of Bend, was here for a few days this week attending circuit court, where he represented some client.

H. M. Horton came over from Bend last Saturday and immediately took to his bed with a severe attack of cold. He said he got stuck in a mud hole on the way over and worked rather hurriedly for an hour getting up a good sweat and evidently cooled off too suddenly after getting back in the car.

The big storage tanks at the Standard Oil Co. station have been put to use and Manager Aspinwall announces that he expects a consignment of canned goods during the next week when he will be in a position to serve his patrons with all the usual goods carried by his concern. The buildings will soon be painted and the station will present a very attractive appearance.

W. A. Gowan, clerk in the local land office, has received information that he is transferred to Vale and in all likelihood will take up his active duties there upon the transfer of the records of the office here to that point. Wm has been connected with the civil service for many years and has been stationed at Lakeview and also in Montana before being transferred to the office here where he has remained for a long time.

Died—Mrs. Rackett, the grandmother of Mrs. David Craddock, died at the Craddock home in this city Wednesday night. She was 50 years old and had been in feeble health for some time. She had been making her home with the Craddocks in recent years, but formerly resided in Shilvie valley for a long time. The funeral service was held here early yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. Howd of the Baptist church and the remains were taken to Drewsey for interment, her husband having been buried there.

Her Hope Chest

The real Hope Chest of today is a savings bank account, and the girl's parents start it for her when she is a baby or a small child.

Even $5 a month placed in a savings account, where the interest will be compounded and added to the principal, will give her more than $700 in ten years. $10 a month will amount to nearly $1,500.

Have you a little girl in your home? She will be grateful always if you start her Hope Chest now and keep it growing for her.

W. C. McKinney left yesterday morning for his home at Milton after spending a couple of weeks here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKinney. He went out as far as Ontario in company with C. E. Silbaugh from where he will take the train. Bill would have preferred remaining longer because of the physical condition of his father, but his duties were most urgent in the bank where he is an officer at this particular time and he felt he should go.

Paul Bloom was down from his mountain home the other day.
