

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1887.

—Grand masquerade ball, Dec 26. —Christmas goods coming in by the wagon load.

—John Sayer and wife started on Saturday last for Portland. —Miss Elma Perkins will make her home in town this winter.

—Next Saturday Dec. 3d, school meeting at Burns schoolhouse. —Fifteen freight teams to come in before the 20th prox., with merchandise.

—W. C. Byrd has his livery stable completed by a well-finished square front. —A. R. Chase of Silver Lake, is a town, and added his name to our subscription list.

—Mrs. Lon. Varian, seven miles west of Harney City, is still an almost helpless invalid. —The gentlemanly clerk in Stenger's store, Ed. McKinnon, has added a handsome new buggy to his worldly possessions.

—Wm. Lessing is going to remove his dry-goods store from Drowsy to Harney City, where he will continue selling goods. —J. H. Bellenbeck and family, late of the City Hotel, with their household goods, were moved to Happy valley last Friday.

—Thos. G. Dodson, one of Burns young Benedicts, is about completing his dwelling house, and will soon enjoy the comforts of home. —Such nice skating on the ice in Burns, Sunday. With no church service, no lecture, and public opinion against work, what entertainment more innocent?

—We learn that Lessing & Coateworth will go into the saloon business in Harney City in the near future. Settlers should look around that town before seeking elsewhere. —Dr. Embree intends to remain at his home this winter, subject to calls from his patients, and citizens in need of professional services. See his neat card in the paper.

—A. A. Cowing, we learn, has been prostrated from effects of a chronic affection of the bone in the left lower limb, since his return to his ranch from Burns about a month ago. —Lessing vs. Howard on an action for debt; decision against the latter, on Monday last, before Judge Parker, to amount of $41.61 and cost. J. Nat. Hudson for plaintiff; Capt. Waters for defendant.

—The carpenter and plumber card of W. A. Rodifer informs the reader that he also does a neat piece of house painting. While he is in town, it would be well to have all necessary painting done. —Dr. McPheters, a graduate of the Iowa State University, has located in Burns permanently, we are glad to learn. His office is in the drug store, his card in THE HERALD, and has purchased the residence of Mr. Jamison.

—While hunting in Stein mountains, Stonewall Mothershead, of Burns, killed sixteen deer. To Mrs. Parker we are indebted for three very fine venison steaks, and can safely say the young hunter did not get the better game in the mountains. —Our good friend, Isaac Foster, was in town last week on business, and made THE HERALD a friendly call, and added several names of friends to our subscription list. Everybody in Burns knows "Uncle Ike" and is always glad to see his smiling phiz.

—No one knows better the needs of his section of country than N. Brown, one of the enterprising merchants of our town, nor how to select goods to meet the demand; a visit to his counter will convince any purchaser of the correctness of above statement. —A. L. Connor is the well-known practical surveyor of Burns, who will show parties looking for locations, all the plats, give all the necessary information, free of charge, and render service as surveyor at reasonable figures. At this time he is out — but will be in by the end of the week.

—A surprise party at the house of Mrs. Schluppe, on Monday evening, and is reported a most enjoyable affair. Capt. Isaac Foster was floor manager, and every eye was delighted with the graceful evolutions of the tall forms of Ed. H. and "Uncle Ike" in the waltz. A supper was set and partaken of with zest. —T. G. Maupin, who bought the Byrd ranch of J. E. Bowen, of Burns for $1,400, moved from Beaver creek, Crook co., Or., with his family (wife, mother-in-law, Mrs. Childers, and six children), and took possession last Sunday; his brother and partner, for they are stockmen, G. W. Maupin, will soon be on with their cattle.

—The card of Mrs. M. A. Fry in THE HERALD in order to inform its readers that a lady of long years of experience in the art of nursing and attending the sick is within reach, as she will respond at once to any calls made upon her services. Ladies knowing they will require special attendance within a definite period of time, should read Mrs. Fry's card at once, and enter their names on her book in time to secure her services in the event of an emergency.

PATTERN FREE. By Special Arrangement with BURN'S MONTHLY, the director of all Family Magazines, we are enabled to make all of our lady readers a present of a Pattern of our new and beautiful Dress. This Pattern will be worth five, as it will be accompanied with a large illustration and full description, the same as those sold at our store. We will send a Pattern free to any lady who sends us a card, which, if sent to W. J. Young, Director, the publisher of the well-known magazine, BURN'S MONTHLY, will enable the holder to see of these handsome patterns free, and of the size she may select. This is a great offer, and we hope our lady readers will appreciate the chance we have undertaken. Watch for the Pattern Order. It will be printed in our issue of DECEMBER 21, 1887.

—T. D. Harris who has town property in Burns, will move his family in and occupy it during the coming winter months. Mr. H. is just returned from Canyon City, 29th inst.

—Thos. Whiting got in with a load of supplies from Prairie City on 28th inst., for Messrs. Fogtly, Gierme, Lee Caldwell, and for himself.

—A ball at Harney City will be given at the hotel, by Mrs. Carry, next Friday evening, Dec. 2d, and all the society people of Burns will be present.

—Chas. Sampson has just completed a neat jewelry store on Main street, and painted the front a peagreen; the fitting up on the inside shows good taste in the builder.

—Chas. E. Boswell, proprietor of the Vale and Burns stage line, gave the new paper a short call and deposited $2.50 for one year's subscription to the great millionaire weekly, Schah!

—On 3d inst. at Harper ranch Mrs. John Johnson, daughter of Cal. Johnson, of Prairie City, died; this is the first death in Mr. Cal Johnson's family of twelve children, all of whom except three are grown.

—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that B. F. Lloyd has taken possession of the City Hotel and will shortly refit and thoroughly furnish the house for the accommodation of the public.

—L. D. Montgomery, a clerk in the Stenger store, returned from Portland on 25th inst., where he had gone to lay in the fall supplies for the store. Mr. M. was detained several days by sickness while in Portland.

—A man named Star, from Oakland, Or. passed through Burns last week, on look out for a location in Harney valley. Leaving his wife at her sister's on Malheur river, he has returned to his late home to move his property, so we presume he has selected a place for his home.

—THE HERALD'S Thanksgiving feast was presided over by a smaller fowl than the customary turkey, but none the less tender, and true to its mission of reminding the thanksgiving palate that fowl usurps flesh on that day. Mrs. Haskell has the nicest chickens in Harney valley, if the one presented us is a fair specimen, and may be persuaded to sell a few during the holidays.

—T. D. Harris, whose business card in our paper informs the public where he can be found when skillful service in his line of work, is required, has finished and delivered a skiff for Messrs. Summerville & Powell, to be used on Malheur and Harney lakes in this county. Mr. Harris, being a cabinet maker, also, can put up most anything, even a hornet's nest—but he can't put the hornets therein.

—Our lady readers' attention is called to the handsome jacket pattern THE HERALD has the pleasure of presenting each lady subscriber as a Christmas Gift. The order for it will be published in our issue of December 21. Any gentleman seeing this notice ought to subscribe at once for THE HERALD (only $2.50) so as to secure a copy with the order in it for his wife, sister, mother, or sweetheart.

—Elsewhere in this number will be found the professional card of Dr. S. B. McPheters; the doctor is well and favorably known throughout southwest Missouri as a good physician, and above all, an honest man and citizen.

—When W. C. Byrd says his business motto is "A cash business at bed-rock prices," the reader knows he means it and governs himself accordingly; Mr. Byrd does a livery and feed stable business commensurate with the demands of the town and vicinity, and at reasonable prices, thereby leaving no room for the establishment of another one in the same line of business, which is the only honorable way for a man to discourage, or keep out competitors.

—Mrs. Fitzjohn many of the citizens of Burns, will remember as the poor lady, who supported her family of seven children by walking over three miles to town to do a day's work, and returning home afterward to care for her infant. Sometime in September the hack in which she was riding with Miss Taylor and father, upset off the bridge and the unfortunate woman's arm was badly dislocated. She has been disabled from work ever since, and was discovered to be in extremely sad and destitute circumstances, by her neighbors; and last week Mrs. Haskell and her daughter, Mrs. Ione Whiting, took a hack and drove to J. S. Devine's stock ranch to solicit help, intending to call at the other ranches in that section, but Messrs. Devine & Jones with great generosity filled the hack, giving: 100 lbs flour, 100 lbs dried fruit, 50 lbs fresh pork, a keg of syrup, 10 lbs beans, 10 lbs each of sugar and coffee, 2 lbs tea, and clothing; Mr. McMenny donated clothes, and Mrs. Bailey and Mr. ...

THE TABLE SUPPLIED WITH THE BEST THE MARKET AFFORDS. (This Space to Let.) THE HERALD'S POSITION. In reply to the repeated attempts of the Neutral Paper printed at this place, to excite prejudice, during the past two months, against our newspaper enterprise, in the minds of its subscribers in Harney Valley by publications (evidently based upon the result of our preliminary canvass for subscriber among settlers, stockmen, business men, and citizens generally), of malicious misrepresentations—by plausible innuendo, doubtful insinuation, direct lying, and threats to injure our business prospects—we will state a few facts regarding our own affairs to our readers.

1st. THE HERALD is our own individual enterprise, owned, published and edited by us, D. L. Grace, and by no other man, and we alone are responsible for any position it assumes, its sentiments, and make-up. The money paid for the material was advanced us, as a loan, by our son, the druggist here, W. E. Grace, whom we shall repay as the office earns the means—not one dollar was paid for on type, or other implement of our trade by any other man.

2d. THE HERALD is Neutral in Nothing—Independent in all things—Straight-out Democratic when Party Lines are drawn.

3d. THE HERALD belongs to no man, nor set of men, but will be found advocating the Right side on every question, as we are able to view it.

4th. The Price of Subscription to THE HERALD is only $2.50 a Year to the Governor, Settler, or a man, or any one else, no discrimination, and length of time, or number of names limited only by amount of cash paid.
