DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

A democratic state convention of the state of Oregon is hereby called to meet at Pendleton, Wasilla county, on Tuesday, April 2, 1888, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of congress, a candidate for judge of the supreme court, six delegates to the national democratic convention, and six alternates; to ratify the various district nominations, and such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Said convention will be composed of 15 delegates, apportioned to the various counties on the basis of population, being one delegate for each county and one for every 100 and fraction over 100 votes a cast.

In accordance with said apportionment, the respective counties will be entitled to the following representation:

Baker	5	Lincoln	9
Benton	5	Malheur	9
Clackamas	5	Marion	9
Clatsop	5	Morrow	9
Columbia	5	Multnomah	17
Cook	5	Polk	9
Coos	5	Wasco	9
Curry	5	Washburn	9
DeWitt	5	Wheeler	9
Douglas	5	Yamhill	9
Grant	5	Yamhill	9
Harney	5	Yamhill	9
Jefferson	5	Yamhill	9
Josephine	5	Yamhill	9
Klamath	5	Yamhill	9
Lake	5	Yamhill	9
Lane	5	Yamhill	9

The committee respectfully recommends that the county conventions for the election of delegates to the state convention, unless otherwise ordered by the local county committee, be held on Saturday, March 24, 1888. G. GOLDSMITH, Chairman Democratic State Central Committee.

THE HERALD is not owned, nor controlled by any stockholder, editor, politician, or any other man, except the one whose name appears at the head of the paper as its editor, publisher, and proprietor.

THE HERALD belongs to no man, nor set of men, nor party, nor works for no monopoly, corporation, clique, or ring.

THE HERALD is neutral in nothing--independent in all things, and straight-out democratic when party lines are drawn. And on all the questions of the day will be found advocating the right side as its editor is able to view it.

THE HERALD is an advocate of law and order; of the greatest good to the greatest number; is not sectional in matters pertaining to East Oregon, Grant county, Harney Valley, Harney, or elsewhere.

It publishes the latest news for its readers as soon as obtained; offers its columns to the oppressed, the poor, and every other citizen within its territory, willing to take the responsibility of the utterance.

On the 23d ult., in the U. S. senate, W. P. Frye, the successor to Jim Blaine's cast-off political clothes, rose in his place to criticize President Cleveland's annual message. Ostensibly, it was a set tariff speech, defending "Protection of American Industries,"--or at least under that clap-trap heading it is lauded by republican papers. Really, the whole speech was devoted to a falsification of the plain, honest utterances of the great message.

In the exordium, he directly accuses Cleveland of duplicity and double dealing. To quote the senator's words:

"The President has clearly thrown down the gauntlet of free trade. There is an attempt at disguise, but so feeble that it ought not to deceive any one."

Towards the close of the speech, he compliments the same President and the same message for "boldness and honesty of purpose."

Instead of being a defense of the policy of protection fastened upon the people of this country by the republican party, the whole speech is but a grouping of a series of unsupported assertions, and of the partisan sophistries by which the great protection swindle was accomplished. Take for example the following:

"The republicans take up the President's gauntlet of free trade with great pleasure.
They win issue with the democrats, and declare that, instead of the tariff being vicious and inequitable, it increases marvelously the prosperity of this country; and that, instead of a duty being a tax paid by the consumer, no duty can be found in which the duty has not decreased to the consumer the cost of the article consumed."

If Senator Frye, or his great predecessor and anxious-to-be-President Blaine, can logically establish the above as a theorem of political economy, they need not fear to advance any other theory because of its apparent absurdity.

One other evidence of meretrici-ous partisanship, and we have done with Senator Frye and his speech, for the present. There are a number of broad-minded, deep-thinking students of political economy in England, whose ideas are not circumscribed by the boundaries of their own little island. A few of these were outspoken in commendation of Cleveland's message.

This Mr. Frye seized upon as a cry of rejoicing from the whole English people that the markets of the United States were to be opened free to the surplus productions of pauper labor; and on this gross perversion of facts made a lame attempt to blarney the Irish for Blaine. Further comment is unnecessary.

SAYS THE LONDON (Eng.) Times:
So far as this country is concerned, it is questionable whether the impulse that would be given to the production and exportation of the United States by the removal of the barriers now weighing on American industry would not confront us with a formidable rivalry, both in home and foreign markets.

THE Tariff Reform League of Massachusetts gave a banquet lately, and unanimously endorsed the position of "the people's President" on the tariff issue. Many prominent men were present, among whom was Jas. Russell Lowell, the great author and U. S. Minister to England under Hayes, Garfield and Arthur, who made a speech in which he intimated that Cleveland was the greatest President since Lincoln--which was received with storms of applause.

The public debt, during January last, was decreased by $15,487,320.

SPEAKER Carlisle has been confirmed in his seat by a vote of 164 to 7.

THE "Baker City Democratic Club" starts with 90 members; the club at The Dalles begins with 35.

THAT excellent paper, the Lake County Examiner, has entered upon its ninth volume. Long may it wave.

DEMOCRATS, remember that in early and complete organization lies the strength that is the assurance of victory.

We can not teach the great truths contained in the democratic creed and advocate monopolists' greed with consistency.

For a man to want to hear but one side of a dispute, is for him to declare himself in favor of ignorance, when he must know that ignorance is the worst of masters to take service under.

THE President's message has been fully indorsed by the state granges of Illinois, Delaware, Indiana, and Pennsylvania; by the farmer's alliance, of Nebraska, and the national farmer's alliance.

Hon. J. C. Leasure, of Pendleton, Binger Herman, of Roseburg, C. W.
Fulton, of Astoria, G. O. Holman and M. L. Olmstead, of Baker City, are spoken of as republican candidates for
