returns, who can picture the gladness,

the woe, upon these century-old wharves and slips? They say that down at brave old Marblehead every third woman is a widow. Here among fisher folk the same is true. And so the going and coming, and going and never coming, have woven a warp and woof of smiles and tears here, which have mellowed and softened thousands of human hearts in a way you can quickly see and feel. Your fisherman who comes, and the wife, sweetheart or child that is here to greet him are o'er tender for it all. The old city is used to it, and does not mind it. It is the way its toilers of the sea have. And so if you ever walk her streets and see a hulk of a fellow holding a woman as he would clutch a fife rail or a capstan-head in a heavy storm, you will know he is sim-"making fast" with the strong hawser of an honest love to the very anchorage of his life, utterly unconand fatherless, and these men give generously to them. On every week-day night the whole year through, when the seaport is stirred by the arrivals of fleets with their "fares" or cargoes of fish, there is a "fisherman's ball," and often many. These are never for individual profit, but invariably for the benefit of women whose hearts are breaking. - Pittsburgh Dispatch.

-Self-trust is the first secret of success, the belief that, if you are here, the authorities of the universe put you here, and for cause, or with some task strictly appointed you in your constitution, and so long as you work at that you are well and successful. - Emerson.

I car-fully noted each motion of the dentist, and judge of my surprise when I saw him apparently take a living worm about as large as a grain of rice out of the tooth. A visit to my first informant, an old man, elicited the following: You are getting bad devils, just as I said you would if you knew too much, but a little more wickedness can not tunate enough to be present when a but a little more wickedness can not hurt you, as you are bad devils, any way.
