

THE HERALD.
Entered as second class mail matter at Burns, Oregon, Sept. 15, 1883.
LOCAL NEWS—HARNEY VALLEY.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1888.

To School Directors and Teachers.
County School Superintendent H. F. Bodden has appointed David L. Grace deputy for the part of Grant county. Parties having business to transact with the superintendent will find Mr. Grace at THE HERALD OFFICE, Burns, Or.

—Burns' Dance Friday night.
—See new advertisements.
—See final proof of Norton Gaylord in this issue.
—See professional card of C. A. Sweek, of Canyon City.
—Mrs. Clemens is in town Saturday, and gave the HERALD a very pleasant call.
—Mrs. McGee moved last Thursday from the Rock house, near R. J. McKinnon's, to the Island.
—Born on Friday, March 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Baird, a son, Dr. T. V. B. Engrave in attendance.
—Don't forget that Gilbert will sell you a high-arm Singer sewing machine, on easy monthly payments.
—The ladies of Burns and vicinity can buy all the flower-plants they want, ready set in cans, at Mrs. Haskell's.
—J. Nat Hudson, Mr. Locher and D. L. Grace are busy this week setting posts, preparatory to fencing in their respective lots.
—The "Burns Beer" manufactured out of the best material by Locher, the Burns' brewer, is a superior article; 25c per bottle.
—So many pleasant acquaintances were made at Canyon City last week that we regret not having had time to visit there early last winter.
—Jno. Cornutt, G. M. Stancifit and H. B. Jervis left for Diamond on the 28th, where they have engaged work as vaqueros on the "P" Ranch.
—Ben Brown, we learn, filed on a timber culture claim near Crane creek gap, and last week received his certificate of entry, in which his claim is subject to the right of way by the Oregon Pacific Railway.
—The saloon next to the post-office is always open for the reception of customers, and never fails to keep on hand the best brands of liquors: wines, brandies, and whiskeys, as well as cigars, and tobacco.
—A Chinese sheep herder employed by David Luce, on the John Day, was assassinated by a Portuguese named Antonio Moura, on March 24th, as the result of a quarrel about sheep range. Moura went to Canyon City and gave himself up to the sheriff.
—The dance next Friday evening to be conducted by the dancing master from Paisly, promises another attractive feature: the introduction of an organ accompanist, Mr. C. A. Gilbert, who has a fine organ on exhibition in town this week. Tickets only $2.50, includes supper.
—Peterson's for April has arrived—it is always the earliest magazine on our table. It numbers among its varied attractions this month an unusually interesting story by Mary A. Denison, entitled "The Mystery of Stirling House," and two new serials, "Put to the Test," and "The Mills of the Gods." This magazine is a universal favorite.
—Demorest's for April presents admirers with two excellent engravings, "The Shepherd of Jerusalem," and "The Empty Saddle;" an illustrated article on "Madagascar," the opening chapters of a new serial, "A Red Wig;" several short stories; "The Tricycle Question for Women;" besides the fashion, and articles on home decoration, house keeping, health, amusement, instruction, progress, etc.
—C. M. Brown, deputy-sheriff of Wasco county, came to Canyon City from The Dalles, March 24th, looking for Jno. Bunton, of the South Fork neighborhood, charged with assault of a Dalles citizen; the accused was arrested by Deputy-Sheriff Lockwood, and taken to The Dalles by Mr. Brown.
—Peter Clemens is, we learn, preparing to sow about 100 acres of grain this spring. He sowed about 30 acres of wheat and rye last fall, and the rye is up finely. Last year he raised some fine rye, sown the preceding fall, which grew to a height of 54 feet, and yielded 72 bushels from 1 sack of seed. Wheat sown at the same time made a good yield of fine wheat. Mr. Clemens does not irrigate his fields.
—Saturday morning news came to town that a lady in destitute circumstance, had died in the country; Mrs. Stenger, accompanied by Messrs. C. M. Caldwell and J. C. Parker, drove out to the place designated, and found Mrs. T. D. Harris and a couple of neighbors already in helpful attendance; the long, lingering illness consequent of consumption, left plenty work for kindly hearts and willing hands to do before the family was made physically comfortable. The sum of $24 was made up by citizens to defray burial expenses.

S. M. STOKSLAGER of Indiana, has been appointed Land Commissioner, and J. T. Anderson, of Iowa, Assistant Land Commissioner.
—At the recent democratic county convention of Lake county, W. A. Wilshire, of the firm of Wilshire & Hudson, received the nomination for county judge.
—"That Sewing-Machine Fiend, Gilbert," as the newspaper men of Prineville call C. A. Gilbert, (who supplied Crook county with those two indispensable accessories of a refined home, a sewing machine and piano or organ), has made a descent on Harney valley, as will be seen by a visit to Burns within a month or six weeks from date, with a supply of organs and sewing machines. You will say when you see his style of instruments, however, that there is more of the angelic than fiendish in his composition, since he offers none but first-class goods on reasonable terms, hauls from the railroad himself so as to deliver in best condition, and is able to give you your choice of the standard pianos.
COW CREEK CULLINGS.
Ed. HERALD: Ducks and geese are numerous.
—Every one is busy tending to the stock.
—Mr. Gibson has lost several head of cattle this month.
—Geo. Hayes left for Blitzen valley on the 22d inst.
—Mr. M. Bunyard has moved his cattle from the Island to the mountain range above the 55 ranch.
—Edward Bland made this place a pleasant visit. We are pleased to see him improving so rapidly.
—Messrs. Bunyard contemplate starting for Ontario, April 8th, for work to fence their ranches.
—Jas. Bunyard intends sowing 5 acres of grain on his timber culture, 2 miles east of Harney.
—We are pleased to state that Charley Johnson is again a resident of Cow Creek.
—It is rumored that Mr. Call, has sold his ranch near the saw mill, and intends leaving Harney valley soon.
—We hope that Geo. LeDuc will succeed in his dancing school at Burns, as he is a professional. He taught dancing school at Paisley last year, and his style of dancing was much admired.
—We understand that school will start again soon in Harney, under care of Prof. J. N. Thrash.
—Jas. Bright started last week for the railroad, where he intends purchasing a load of flour, bacon, lard, etc., to sell to the citizens of Harney valley. We remain,
Yours and I.
From the Country.
Ed. HERALD: Believing your paper would like to have a correspondent from the country, as well as from the towns, I send you a few lines from near our bright little town of Harney.
—Last week Sam King had a calf stricken to death by his mules.
—D. F. Alexander has been fencing his timber culture, this spring.
—Mr. Harkey drove a large band of sheep from Malheur to his ranch above Burns.
—Out in the sagebrush, the butter-cups are much more brilliant than in Burns.
—Mr. Riley of Harney has been building a house on his ranch west of the town, formerly owned by Mrs. Hackman.
—Miss Perkins has returned from Burns where she spent the winter, to make a visit of a couple of months at home.
4-4-88. DAISY DAYE.

The Kind of Democrat he is.
The following incident was told in our office this week, by a gentleman having personal knowledge of the facts therein mentioned:
Last June election day J. F. Morrison of Drowsey, and several other democrats were branding corks, when one of them cried out, "Say, boys, this is election day, let's go and vote for representatives."
"I won't vote for any whiskey ring man, and that's what's said of him," declared one, and his decision suited the others except Morrison.
"I don't care what is said of him," replied Morrison, as he began to put on his coat; "I am a democrat, and I will vote for the democratic nominee every time."
He went to Drowsey and voted, and, "And," added the narrator, "that's the kind of democrat he is!"

CANYON CITY COMMENTS.
Ed. HERALD: Thornton Williams and M. D. Clifford left on the stage Friday morning for Baker City, thence to the convention.
—M. S. Hellman left Saturday morning to attend the State Democratic Convention at Pendleton.
—Dr. S. Orr was suddenly called to Drowsey to attend the young wife of George Morgan, who is said to be very ill. George has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.
—Mrs. Kuhl, wife of Peter Kuhl, of this place, is quite ill.
—The venerable J. H. Phillips, who has been very ill with lung fever for some time, is rapidly recovering.
—Miss Jessie Parrish is only waiting for fair weather to get out again, having recovered from a severe spell of sickness.
—Miss Mamie is quite ill as yet.
—All the defeated candidates over this way, are sick, not dangerous, as they are still able to kick.
