By the Opposition to democratic supremacy in the Harner country, to disorganize the party therein, by drawing the line between "settlers" and "stockmen" instead of between Democra's and Republicans, for the benefit of the latter), we publish the following corrections of their weakly organ's attempts to misrepresent THE HERALD and the opject of its publication:

THE HERALD is not owned nor controlled by any stockman, settler, politician, or any other man, except the one whose name appears at the head of the paper as its editor, publishes, and proprietor.

THE HERALD belongs to no men, nor set of men, therefore, works for no monopoly, corporation, clique, or ring.

THE HERALD is neutral in nothing—independent in all things, and straight-out democratic when party lines are drawn. And on all the questions of the day will be found advocating at the right side, as its editors are able to view it. THE HERALD is an advocate of law and order: if a satisfactional in matters pertaining to East Oregon, Grant county, Harney Valley or Burns. The Red, White and Blue.

[Published by request, so the girls representing the States may learn the words.] The shrine of each patriot's devotion,

The world offers homage to thee. Thy mandates make heroe's assemble, When Liberty's form stands in view; Thy banners make tyranny tremble When borne by the red, white and blue,

Hurrah for the red, white and blue! Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white and blue. When war waged its wide desolation,

And threatened our land to deform,

Сио: Hurrah for the red, white and blue!

The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia, rode safe through the storm. With her garland's of victory o'er us,

As so proudly she bore her brave crew,

And her flag proudly floating before us, The boast of the red white and blue. Сно: Hurrah for the red, white and blue! Hurrah for the red, white and blue!

With her flag proudly floating before us, The boast of the red, white and blue. The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither, And fill ye it up to the brin May the mem'ry of Washington ne'er wither, Nor a star of his glory grow dim; May our country united ne'er sever, But stand by her colors so true; O, the Army and Navy forever! Three cheers for the red, white and blue, CHO: Hurrah for the red, white and blue!
