FROM WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., October 2, 1888.
ED. HERALD: Yesterday was a red letter day in the political history of the country. President Cleveland, despite the warnings and threats that such a course would injure him in New York, signed the Chinese exclusion bill. Republicans have, from the first, declared the President to be the author of the bill. It was introduced in the House by Scott, of Pennsylvania, and was passed unanimously. In the senate, it was believed that the President had acted with undue haste, on the mere rumor that the treaty had been rejected by the Chinese government. On this presumption, the senate, which has persistently opposed the policy of exclusion, passed the Scott bill, 37 yeas to 3 nays--Brown, Hoar and Wilson, of Iowa, alone voting against it. Of the old pro-Chinese senators, Hoar alone had the courage of his convictions to vote against the measure. Sherman and Ingalls refrained from voting at all. Later on, the senate was anxious to reconsider the bill, but the exigencies of the campaign forbade. The formal notification of the rejection of the treaty forever dissipated the hope that the President had been "put in a hole." Instead, it is apparent that the "man in the White House" has again completely out-generalized his adversaries, and the triumph of the President is the triumph of the people. For years the people have petitioned and plead in vain for relief from the Chinese plague, the House and occasional administration being in sympathy with their cause and the senate alone resisting every effort at reform. Now the Scott bill has become a law, and exclusion the avowed policy of the government, thanks to the wisdom and courage of "the people's President," Grover Cleveland.

Judge Mathews, of the supreme court, is improving.
The 6th of November is near at hand. Everything all along the line is in splendid condition. Democratic success is assured. "President Cleveland," says old Dick Townsend, of Illinois, "is sure to be elected. I consider Illinois as one of the doubtful states, and the changes are many and mostly in favor of the democratic party."

The disaffection with Ingersoll and Blaine will do the democrats good, as they each have a special following.
The sundry civil bill has at last passed. The appropriation for the livery alone amounts to four millions.

Harrison's Bond Policy.
Mr. Harrison says continue the war taxes in time of peace in order to pay a premium on war bonds before they are due.

Eight millions of dollars were paid last year as a premium on bonds not yet due.
That was the only way to relieve the money market and prevent a panic.
That was the only way to put back in the channel of trade money not needed by the government, which was taken from the people by our iniquitous system of war taxation.

The sum of money is nearly equal to our annual appropriations for rivers and harbors, about which so much fuss is made.
It would each year add handsomely to our navy. It is from one-third to one-fourth the cost of our army.
It would give to several millions of persons in small towns, or in rural districts, free mail delivery.
It would build 400 miles of railroad.

It is a gratuity paid to the capitalistic classes by the poor men of the country.
This policy Mr. Harrison says must be continued.
This policy Mr. Cleveland says is an outrage on the people and should be discontinued.

The Mills bill is the remedy. It will prevent the payment of this bounty of eight million dollars next year to the bondholders.
Down with the war taxes!—Courier-Journal.

THE EXCLUSION BILL.

The following is the full text of the Scott bill which President Cleveland signed Oct. 1st, and which is now the law of the land:
BE IT ENACTED, ETC. That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful for any Chinese laborer who shall at any time hereafter have been or may now or hereafter be a resident within the United States, or who shall have departed or shall depart therefrom and shall not have returned before the passage of this act, to return or remain in the United States.

Sec 2. That, in addition of identity provided for in the fourth or fifth sections of the act, to which this is a supplement shall hereafter be issued; and every certificate heretofore issued in pursuance thereof is hereby declared void and of no effect; and the Chinese laborer claiming admission by virtue thereof shall not be permitted to enter the United States.

Sec 3. That all the duties prescribed in the second, tenth, eleventh and twelfth sections of the act to which this is a supplement are hereby extended and made applicable to the provisions of this act.

Sec 4. That all such part or parts of the act to which this is a supplement as are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SENATOR INGALLS used to plume himself upon his bravery in making faces at the British lion, and talking big. Other republicans in gentle dalliance played with the Chinaman's queue, pretending to protect American labor. But when Cleveland took a pull at the tail and a twist at the queue, the result was plain, practical and praiseworthy.—Portland World.

Special Pension Bills.
The following table shows the total number of special pension acts which have become laws since 1861:
From 1861 to 1865 (Lincoln)..... 41
From 1865 to 1869 (Johnson)..... 431
From 1869 to 1873 (Grant)..... 490
From 1873 to 1877 (Hayes)..... 503
From 1877 to 1881 (Garfield and Arthur) 730
From 1881 to 1888 (Cleveland)..... 1,360
Grand total..... 3,370

Kearney's Prediction.
In his speech at Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco, Denis Kearney said:
"I predict that California will give 30,000 majority for the democratic candidates. The firm of Murton, Rose & Co., owns the largest number of shares of the Canadian Pacific, 60,000—a military line subsidized by the English government. And yet Levi Pigtail Morton can't give an American citizen a position on the road. Why? Because every employee has to take the oath of allegiance to the queen of England. He has to wear the lion and the unicorn in his cap and on his collar. How does that suit the "Irish republicans the papers talk so much about? What is an 'Irish republican,' anyhow?"

Democratic Gains in Illinois.
The democratic state committee of Illinois is greatly elated over three recent accessions to the democratic ranks in Illinois that will be of great importance in the coming election. A joint meeting of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and firemen, the switchmen and brakemen, adopted a resolution to support Gen. Palmer, the democratic candidate for governor, and requested the co-operation of all the subordinate lodges of each order in the state. There are about twenty-two thousand brotherhood men in the state who will vote almost unanimously for Palmer.

The employees of the union steel works, the largest institution of the kind in Chicago, met Sunday and also voted to support Palmer. Last night the united labor party met in its headquarters and unanimously passed a resolution pledging the party to vote for Palmer. The united labor men have about six thousand men in Cook county alone.—Albany Democrat.
