

THE HERALD.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1888.

D. L. GRACE, - - - Editor.

Democratic Ticket.

For President,

GROVER CLEVELAND, Of New York.

Vice-President:

ALLEN G. THURMAN, Of Ohio.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

W. H. EFFINGER, of Multnomah. W. R. BILYEY, of Linn. E. R. SKIPWORTH, of Umatilla.

VOTE FOR CLEVELAND & THURMAN!

The election of Cleveland and Thurman next Tuesday assures the prosperity of the whole country.

The Portland World says it is rumored that a Republican job is on foot to rob parents and guardians in Oregon of $10,000 or more by making another change in school books.

PHIL DWYER, owner of big racing stables in New York, has withdrawn all his funds from horse pools and placed them on Cleveland. He says he thinks it is safer and surer than any horse race he ever saw.

At Democratic headquarters in Washington it is said there is encouraging hope of Cleveland and Thurman gaining the vote of Oregon. It seems like a forlorn hope, but the young Democracy of the State has been making a gallant fight; local speakers have done good work; and if Democrats ALL do their duty next Tuesday, the hope may be realized.

BEN. C. TRUMAN, a California railroad man, a howling Republican protectionist, publishes a lengthy article in a New York paper in defense of Chinese pauper labor, and says that on the success of Republicanism depends the repeal of Cleveland's Chinese Exclusion Bill. Democrats, stand by your brave President, who dares to do right every time. Vote for Cleveland and Thurman.

DEMOCRATS, let not your own doubts nor the tricks of disguised foes induce you to believe it will make no difference in Oregon whether you cast your vote or not. Remember Penney's unexpected triumph! "Ye know not what the day may bring forth!"—nor of how much value your vote may be! Vote for Cleveland and Thurman!

"The Oregonian is still busy hunting up old pioneers who voted for Harrison's grandfather."—EX. There is an old pioneer printer in Burns who occasionally assists in the mechanical work of THE HERALD, who cast his first vote for President in 1836 and his second in 1840, both against Harrison's grandfather, and, if permitted, will vote for Cleveland against Harrison the grandson next Tuesday. How is that for old pioneers?

To our Republican friends, and we are pleased to say that THE HERALD scores quite a number of them—fair-minded men who exercise the elective franchise from principle—to all such we commend the following high-toned language of that true American citizen, Calvin Edgerton, of Los Angeles, one of the most prominent men of California, and a life-long Republican:

"I had hoped that the Republican party in 1888 would rise equal to the occasion and vindicate the high trust reposed in it by the people; yet when 1888 came and the Republican party was made the mere agent and tool of monopolies, trusts and combines to cheat and defraud the people, and when I found the Democratic party upon the heights occupying the place that the Republican party ought to have occupied, and advocating principles the Republican party had supported and ought still to support; and when the convention of the Democratic party put forth those grand representatives of the people's rights and their champions, Grover Cleveland and Allen G. Thurman: I could no longer resist the right, and will do what I can by vote and by word to promote the election of these men."

To our Republican friends we say, "Go thou and do likewise!"—"NO LONGER RESIST THE RIGHT!"—Vote for Cleveland and Thurman!

CLEVELAND AND THURMAN are representative men of all that is great and good and pure and clean in politics. Vote for them!

The Republican Tariff Bill.

The Republican Senate tariff bill makes kindling wood of their Chicago platform.

It enlarges the free list by the addition of nearly a hundred articles, several of them produced in this country, and it cuts down nearly one-half the duty heretofore considered essential to sugar and rice growing.

This is certainly "surrendering some part of the protective system," which the Republican platform declared that it would rather do than make whisky free.

If the Mills bill is a "free trade measure," so is the Republican Senate bill. If the Mills bill is "a blow at American industries," so is the Republican Senate bill. If the Mills bill would "reduce American wages to the European level," so would the Republican Senate bill.

The Republican bill cuts off about the same amount of revenue that the Mills bill abates. But, instead of making the reduction of taxes mean relief to the people and encouragement to manufactures, the Republican Senate bill actually proposes to make clothing dearer, leaves lumber and salt under war burdens, fastens the handicap of taxed material on the manufacturers, and confines the substantial reduction to the luxuries of tobacco and whisky, and to two Southern products, sugar and rice, as a punishment to that section for remaining Democratic.

The Republican Senate bill was made for buncombe. The Senators and their party organs confess that there is no intention of passing it. It vindicates the Democratic position without affecting the Democratic principle.—N. Y. World.

—The San Francisco Examiner, that chief of democratic dailies, is on file on our reading desk. Come and read it.

NUMBER of Presidential Electors each state is entitled to by congressional appointment between 1883 and 1893:

Table with 2 columns: State and Number of Electors. Includes Alabama (10), Arkansas (7), California (8), Colorado (3), Connecticut (6), Delaware (3), Florida (4), Georgia (12), Illinois (22), Indiana (15), Iowa (13), Kansas (9), Kentucky (13), Louisiana (8), Maine (6), Maryland (8), Massachusetts (14), Michigan (13), Minnesota (7), Mississippi (9), Missouri (16), Nebraska (5), Nevada (3), New Hampshire (4), New Jersey (9), New York (36), North Carolina (11), Ohio (23), Oregon (3), Pennsylvania (30), Rhode Island (4), South Carolina (9), Tennessee (12), Texas (13), Vermont (4), Virginia (12), West Virginia (6), Wisconsin (11), Total (401).

"CHEAPEST AND BEST" is a combination as difficult as it is desirable; but "Peterson's Magazine" has certainly accomplished it. The November number is a gem in every respect. In addition to a lovely steel engraving, there are three full-page wood illustrations. One of these is an admirable portrait of Bismarck, who forms the subject of the opening article, which is capitally illustrated and gives various interesting incidents of his life, new to American readers. The stories are by popular authors, and are up to the usual high standard of excellence. In the Fashion Department, besides the handsome double fashion-plate, there are scores of dainty dress patterns and designs for the work table, etc., many of them suggestive of very pretty Christmas presents. It is time to think of a magazine for next year, and we cannot too heartily recommend "Peterson." It stands high among the first-class literary monthlies; and, as a fashion-periodical, none can equal it. Every lady should take "Peterson." The terms are only Two Dollars per year, with greatly reduced rates when taken in clubs, and with unusually fine premiums to those getting up clubs, viz: Three copies for $4.50, with the beautifully illustrated book of poems, "Buds and Blossoms," or a large engraving, "The Morning Greeting," for premium; four copies for $6.40, or six copies for $9.00, with an extra copy free for one year; or five copies for $8.00, or seven copies for $10.50, with both an extra copy of the magazine and either "Buds and Blossoms" or the engraving as premiums. For larger clubs still greater inducements. Any lady can, with a little effort, secure one or more of these premiums. Specimen sent free to those who desire to get up clubs. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 308 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The New York Herald says this country belongs to business men and workmen. What the workingman wants is fair wages, steady work, and cheap blankets to keep out the winter's cold; these he deserves and ought to have. What the business man wants is the right to sell his goods wherever he can find a market. What all want is fair, untrammelled competition. Another four years of such honest administration as Cleveland has given the country will go far towards achieving these results.

Vote for Cleveland and Thurman.

EVERY principle or measure advocated or advanced by Republicans, really intended to benefit the country, Cleveland has promptly adopted without reference to its origin. Republican leaders, on the contrary, have virulently denounced everything Cleveland favored, even those they had originated; thus reducing Republicanism to the degrading position of a mere party of opposition.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

THE HERALD acknowledges a visit from Chas. Ziegler and son last Saturday. Mr. Ziegler, the son, is an intelligent young gentleman now on a visit to his parents.

—To Mrs. Thos. Haskell belongs the credit of raising and manufacturing the first sorghum in Harney valley. We now have a head of sugar cane seed, the white kind, among our exhibits, and a small glass of the syrup.

—W. E. Grace's new lot of drug-gist goods arrived Tuesday. Another fine large show case has been added to the already elegantly appointed drug store.

—John H. Embree, of Polk county, Oregon, to whom his brother, Bent Embree, has sent THE HERALD since its initial number, came on a visit to his brothers, the Doctor and Bent Embree, with intention of locating in case he was satisfied of the truth of THE HERALD's Harney Valley Fair representations. He examined the exhibits and records in this office with great interest, and seemed convinced that the Harney country has a bright future before it. Later: Mr. E. has located a claim near Boat Ford.

—Sam. King, of Harney valley, last Saturday brought in five carrots that weigh 14 1/2 lbs; the weight of one was 4 1/2 lbs., tops trimmed off close. These carrots are the product of seed sown on the ground in the Harney foothills about the 1st of May, and have had no cultivation except weeding and a little irrigation. As a table vegetable they are not surpassed in sweetness and flavor.

—For indoor flowering plants go to Mrs. Haskell, whose charges are reasonable.

—Boom the paper that works for all the citizens by subscribing for THE HERALD.

—Diamond drug for sale at W. E. Grace's Dry store.

—We just learn that two weeks ago Mr. McDonald of Crane creek, while on his return from the valley, had his team run away on the Santiam road west side of the Cascades, eight or ten miles below the Mountain House, off a steep down grade, seriously injuring the whole party; Mr. McD.'s head was badly bruised, Mrs. Carey was much hurt, and a young man considerably injured.

—Wm. Harvey, our efficient road supervisor, on Monday received two loads of timber for the bridges he is constructing across the Blitzen slough. Dodson and Moore were in charge of the Stenger teams that brought the timber through town.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Porter of the Diamond country went home Tuesday, after spending a few days among friends in Burns, accompanied by one of the most amiable young ladies of our town, Miss Cora Harris.

—Ochoco Review: The ranchmen of Beaver are becoming concerned about the future of the range in that section, and several of them talk of moving to other localities next year. This week George Noble and J. W. Stewart left for Washington Territory to look for range.

—Lige Sparks of Squaw creek reports range very short in that section.

Letter from Ed. Bland. SALEM, Ore., Oct. 23, 1888. ED. HERALD: As the Webfoot rain is in full blast to-day, I will drop you a line.

I have just returned from Portland; was at the Mechanics' Fair. While there I met a man on the street who exactly answers the description of A. W. Waters' last printer—Ben. Franklin. He did not appear to be coming from going to, or stopping at any particular place, but just drifting around.

I had the pleasure of meeting Chas. S. Jaeger of Burns. Charles is working steadily and doing very well.

As for myself, I am slowly improving. Yours truly, ED. BLAND.

—We have just learned of the arrival from Chalmers, Wood county, Ohio, of F. DeWitt, brother of C. H. DeWitt of Burns.

—A heavy snow storm seemed to be raging in the mountains around, yesterday as we went to press, tho' the fall was but slight so far in the valley.

—Mr. Sam. King brought in some fine pork yesterday, and presented THE HERALD folks with a sample of what Harney valley can produce in that line.
