NEVISPAPEB LAWS. .

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law), when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment 2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrestrages, or the Publisher man continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount whether it is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance the payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the to legal discontinuance the payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

4. If a Subscriber orders his paper stopped at a certain time, and the Publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the posteffice. This proceeds on the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the postomee, or leaving them uncalled for, without paying for the same, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.
