THE HERALD. Local News. HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1888. For unusual bargains, go to the store of N. Brown. The best bit Cigar at W. E. Grace's drug store. Now the question is: Who killed James M. Bright? L. Racine has received a full supply of liquors of all kinds. Paints and Oils of the best quality always on hand at W. E. Grace's drug store. A. W. Wilson and the Hagey family are located at Hillgarde, Union county, Oregon. Mrs. Wittzell of Burns, was seriously ill while at Canyon City, but is now improving. Dr. Embree was called one day this week to visit Nellie, daughter of Thos. Morrison, near Burns. James Sullivan, Al. Chappell and Ben Street were in Burns Sunday, on their way to the county seat. Tex. Sillman and several other citizens of Burns returned from attendance on present term of Circuit Court. J. C. Buckland is hauling apples from John Day to make into cider, and says he will continue to do so until his orchard is grown. Geo. McGowan has had to put up an addition to his warehouse, so rapidly is his hardware and agricultural implement business increased within the past year. E. A. King requests us to state that his saw-mill is now in readiness to accommodate the public with lumber of every description on demand; and will not be undersold by any lumber firm. Orders solicited. Pat McGinnis was tried by a jury last week in Canyon City, for the murder of Robert Lockwood in July last, found guilty, and on 19th inst. was sentenced to be hanged January 18th, 1889. District Attorney Rand was assisted in the prosecution by M. D. Clifford. Ladies in delicate health, and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken and more beneficial in effect than any other remedy. It acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by all druggists. Little Joe Shirk, ten-year old son of D. L. Shirk of Catlow, came very near losing half his right hand one day last week, by having it caught in some cogs in a threshing machine, the mules stopping just in time; as it was, Dr. Woodbridge of Cedarvale, to whom he was taken, had to cut the entire thumb from his hand, it was so badly crushed. For all kinds of Stationery go to W. E. Grace's drug store. The Burns and Harney Putes went to Canyon City to attend their kinsman's trial as the supposed murder of Jas. M. Bright. Buccaroo Jim has laid in jail since last May; the finding of the grand jury was murder in the first degree; J. Nat. Hudson of Burns was engaged for the defense, a plea of not guilty was entered by the Indian on 21st inst.; and we learn since he was cleared by the jury, and discharged from custody. Wm. Miller is the happy father of a little son, born Nov. 20th. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Miller on this precious pledge of mutual affection, and take the occasion to publicly (as we did privately) explain the appearance of an item in these columns announcing the birth of twins a couple of months since, to the young couple. A lady friend and neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, direct from Canyon City and visiting friends in Burns, in order to tease a little school-girl friend, here, of Mr. Miller, assured her that Billy Miller has two babies of his own to love now, twin babies. Pride in her friend's family wealth caused her to tell the good news to her friend THE HERALD localizer; the news would have occasioned no little annoyance to the young couple had not Mr. Miller's wit been equal to the emergency; he dressed two little dolls exactly alike for parlor ornaments, and good-humoredly pointed to them when friends were inclined to railery.

FROM THE OREGON PACIFIC. Full Text of Judge Ison's Sentence. Nov. 20, 1888, at 1:30 o'clock, p. m., the defendant was brought into court by the Sheriff, when the Court directed the defendant to stand up, and then said to him that the time heretofore appointed by the Court for passing judgment of law upon the verdict rendered against him for murder in the first degree had arrived, and that if he had anything to say, either by himself or by another, why judgment should not now be passed, the Court would hear him. Whereupon the defendant said, "I am not guilty." The Court asked the defendant if that was ALL he desired to say in his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver at Lakeview, Oregon, on January 16th, 1889, viz: Albert Vestal. D. S. No. 2707, for the W 1/2 of NE 1/4 & E 1/2 of SW 1/4, Sec 20, Tp 28 S, R 31 E. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: C. V. Durham, David Lambert, Sylvester Smith and J. H. Cornutt, all of Diamond, Grant county, Or. A. F. SNELLING, Register. SALEM, Or., Nov. 17, 1888. Ed. Herald: I send you an item or two from this place. Everybody afraid of smallpox. One new case here this week, while several persons have been exposed, and new cases are expected any day. Also, two cases at Glendale, Douglas county, add over 100 cases reported in Portland. So, you see the disease is well scattered all over this part of the country. I am now going to school, and walk one mile by aid of a cane; so, you can judge how fast I am improving. With best wishes for THE HERALD, I remain yours truly, Ed. Bland. Diamond Dyes for sale at W. E. Grace's drug store. Geo. W. Hayes of Silver Lake is expected to visit relatives in the valley shortly. P. F. Stenger and G. S. Sizemore returned from Canyon City on Tuesday, last. Wm. Shirk, wife, and son, of Catlow, passed through Burns, on Tuesday, on their way to Canyon City. E. Barnes and A. B. Webdel of Prineville, who have stock on the Malheur, were in Burns last Saturday. We would like to know how many other farmers are preparing to sow grain, than those already reported. There is an unusual amount of sickness in the valley this season—enough to keep the doctors busy night and day. Eight more new yearly subscribers to THE HERALD this week. Now is the time to renew your subscription to the new volume. THE HERALD opens the initial number of its new volume by publishing the promises made its readers one year ago to-day, that they may see that each assurance has been kept to the letter, and in the the spirit. E. D. Gray of Fort Bidwell, bought the blacksmith business of Burn's energetic blacksmith, P. S. Early, who will leave town in about two weeks. Brown, loaded with goods of every description suited to the demands of this market, and selected by the most discriminating buyer in this section of country. This is the largest lot of general merchandise supplies ever brought into the Harney country, and the prices are low enough to place them within reach of all, for cash. THE FORE PART OF WINTER. Within the air the snow is seen, The trees have dropped their verdure green, The birds have gone to some southern clime To mingle their joys in tuneful rhyme. The songsters have flown so far away, And left the mountains so cold and gray— The wild deer leaps in joyful glee, As he browses around from brush to tree. The lone coyote is howling in vain; To see the beautiful, brown earth again; In search of shelter sometimes he creeps, As he travels around on the snow-covered peaks. The shepherd pauses on the mountain high To watch his flock as they go feeding by, And hunting grass, that is under the snow And nibbling, and browsing, wherever they go. He sits down on a rock, so cold and damp, To see if the sheep will feed into camp, Till he hears the chime of the last sheep bell And hopes that the sheep will winter well. And he looks away to the desert so low, And sees that the ground is not covered with snow. He says "Wait now, I must go there, Where the grass is plenty, and the ground is bare." J. S. H. A Slein's Mountain Sheep Herd. The San Francisco Examiner, that chief of democratic dailies, is on file on our reading desk. Come and read it. Coal Oil at W. E. Grace's drug store.
