HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS.

The Past is a Guaranty for the Future.

Blanks for Final Proof Notices have been filled out at this office free of charge ever since it first opened its doors in Harney valley, and owing to care exercised at all times no mistake has been made. This then is the office to come to if you want your work done correctly.

This paper and the Detroit Free Press 1 year for $3.

—One copy of the EAST OREGON HERALD, done up in a wrapper ready for mailing to friends abroad 10 cents, 3 copies 25 cents. Advertise the Harney country with the truth, not with speculators' exaggerations.

—Pay 10c to have a copy of the Times-Mountaineer containing the description of the Harney country, sent East, and that 10c may return you many dollars.

The following is a list of the citizens who saw and took advantage of the opportunity to extend their advertisement of Harney Valley by securing an eligible position in the mammoth holiday edition of the oldest and largest paper published in East Oregon—The Dalles Times-Mountaineer:

Name	Copies	Am't.
N. Brown,	30	3 00

There are 20 copies yet unsold for parties, who wish to mail a copy to friends East. Price 10 cents.

—Our readers' attention is called to the dry goods and notions firm of Bruce & Co., 471 State street, Chicago, Ill., when they want a catalogue of cheap, good articles, sent by mail, postage paid. On account of their covering the whole United States as a territory their catalogues are gotten up in a cheap style, but their goods are good.

—Matt Brand is lying in Burns quite sick, so we are informed.

—See final proof notices in this issue of Charles Ward, E. L. Belshaw, George Siegle, Chas. Dollarhide, Richard D. Cooper and Wm. Klepper.

—See advertisement of Grand Mask Ball in Harney.

—A dance in Burns the other night.

—See estray notices in stock column.

—Great reduction in Woolen Goods at N. Brown's, for cash.

—Quite a number of filings on "Red S" lands are being sent from Burns to the Lakeview Land Office.

—Remember Harney's Grand Mask Ball takes place on February 14th, as advertised elsewhere.

—Marion Bunyard will give a social dance at his residence to-night, Thursday, Jan. 17th. Tickets with supper, $1.50, and everybody invited.

—Isaac Foster went East last week on a business trip, and will not return before March.

—P. S. Early shook the dust of Burns from his feet Wednesday morning, and started by way of Canyon for California.

—A. C. Worthington was engaged Tuesday repairing the Burns school building.

Pat. McGinnis.

Canyon City News: The gallows and scaffold for the execution of McGinnis have been completed, and unless the Governor should grant a respite, the murderer will pay the penalty of his crime one week from next Friday.

The conscience of McGinnis does not seem to smite him in the least. He was taken out one day last week and shown the gallows on which he is to be hanged, but the thought of death did not trouble him in the least.

At Cost.

J. E. McKINNON now offers his goods AT COST, consisting of CANNED GOODS and many articles too numerous to mention.

Now is the time to get the value of your money. Come and see.

—The dance comes off at Marion Bunyard's to-night: Thursday.

—Mask Ball at Harney Feb. 14.

—Go to the stable of Roussel Bros. for horse feed and livery accommodations.

—Yearly advertisers of stock brands in THE HERALD get insertions of stolen and strays free.

J. D. Moore's brother writes from Knoxville, Tenn., that he will come to Harney in the spring.

—A. C. Worthington sent 4 cents to pay for one of those handsome Calendars we advertised last week.

—W. E. Dalton will be in Burns about the 25th inst. He is bringing enough barbed wire to fence his place on the Island, and a lot of bacon, lard and dried fruits, which will be for sale.

—E. A. King requests us to state that his saw-mill is now in readiness to accommodate the public with lumber of every description on demand; and will not be undersold by any lumber firm. Orders solicited. 50-1f

—While A. A. Cowing, with his wife and child, were in town the past few weeks, temporarily employed in the drug store, two men hauled lumber on his ranch and threaten to contest his settler's right to it.

—Ladies in delicate health, and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken and more beneficial in effect than any other remedy. It acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, kidneys, liver, and stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by all druggists.

—R. J. and T. M. Baker two of our Riley friends, and the Silver creek valley's solid men, were in to renew subscription to the paper that works for the people and their best interests.

—Tomorrow Pat McGinnis is to hang as Dustin's little ruse to gain time seems to have fallen through, no respite having reached the unfortunate up to latest date, Monday.

—John Kuhn and Peter Mallory of Riley, were in Burns Tuesday.

—N. Brown returned from Canyon City on Tuesday's stage.

—Quite a number of names of petitioners for county division have been forwarded to Hon. G. W. Gilham this week.

—Filing on the "Red S" has taken another boom: Several families, we hear, are going to settle thereon with a view to permanency.

—The Burns' grocer, J. E. McKinnon, we learn, has placed the balance of his stock in the McGowan hardware store for sale, and has filed on "Red S" land.

—We are in receipt of one of the most handsomely gotten up calendars for 1889, that has ever been presented the office, which is saying a great deal, as we have in the past seventeen years, received a number of quite artistic efforts in that direction. This one is artistic in design, and equally excellent in execution. Our thanks are due our Eastern advertiser the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., of New Haven, Conn.

—The San Francisco Examiner, that chief of democratic dailies, is on file on our reading desk. Come and read it.

—Dr. Embree's several patients are reported convalescent: At Harney a child in each of the families of J. W. Norton, J. C. Buckland, and Robt. Drinkwater; at Saddle Butte, the two children of J. D. Catterson; near Burns, Emanuel Clark, and Thos. Baker.

LAND OFFICE BULLETIN

LAKEVIEW DISTRICT.
Our Washington correspondent sends us the following information:
LAND OFFICE DESIGN.—The names of the successful parties are printed in capital letters: George E. TIME vs. J. S. SWINGLE.
CASH PATENT ISSUED.—No. 367.

From Blitzen.

BLITZEN, Jan. 6, 1889.

ED. HERALD: School commenced on the 1st inst., under the management of Mr. J. H. Manly. This is the first public school ever begun or taught in this precinct.

The social festivities of this burg during the holidays consisted of a dance at the residence of S. Handley, but given by H. Raider, which was not very well attended owing to the fact that most of the "beauty and chivalry" had gone to Burns for the holidays.

Another hop is to be given on the 11th at the same place.

Miss Hattie Bunyard of Cow creek is staying with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. N. Comegys, going to school.

The sighs of some of the marriageable unmarried gentry of Blitzen is immense when they think that leap year is passed, and the ladies have let slip one golden opportunity, for it will be four years—yes, four years more, then hurrah for Belya Lockwood!

N. Comegys has undertaken and is carrying to completion one of the finest pieces of engineering that has been seen in this valley, by way of building a stone dam ninety feet long and five feet in diameter at the base, gradually at the diminished to two and one half feet at the top. The dam when completed will be provided with two head gates and will be seven and one-half feet in height. JUSTICE.

CASH SUBSCRIBERS.

20 Books Almost Given Away.

Can take advantage of the following good thing:

THE HERALD and 20 complete stories by the best authors for $2.70, or less than the regular delinquent price of THE HERALD alone, under certain conditions:

1st. If you are in debt to us for last year's subscription, you can pay $2.70, which settles your bill for 1888 and gives you the 20 books.

2d. If you have already paid your subscription in advance, then get us a new subscriber at $2.50, cash paid, and you shall have the 20 books.

3d. If you have already paid your subscription for the past year and for the present, then pay $2.50 in advance for 1890 and you can get the 20 books.

4th. If you owe $3.00 on last year's subscription and have not settled for this year's, then come in at once and by paying $5.00 you will get receipts for 1888 and 1889 and get the 20 books besides.

Good literature is good company in the household, and THE HERALD as soon as the late political campaign closed set to work to secure from all the leading publications in the country, East and West, advantages for its readers. Having done our part, it only remains for them to help themselves from what is offered now, as the subscription season will soon close.

It is not every country paper that is favored by leading publishing houses as THE HERALD has been, and it is so favored because it is recognized as a vigorous worker for its local interests, political, religious and moral.
