FOR DIVISION OF GRANT COUNTY SO AS TO BE HARNEY COUNTY.
FOR TEMPORARY COUNTY SEAT.
BURNS.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS TOMORROW.

The following is all our news-gatherer could get regarding the subject upon which every citizen in the Harney county is interested: Dr. Gilham writes a friend of division that an objection to the passage of House Bill 69 was made in the Senate in the form of an amendment to make Harney the county seat, in expectation of the Burns friends of the bill fighting the amendment so as to delay action until adjournment; the Burns men made no objection.

Judge Cogswell wrote a friend of division that he has worked neither for nor against the Bill, but proposed to vote in its favor when put to the vote.

Latest received by Tuesday's mail is members' assurances that they will stand by the bill.

The San Francisco Examiner is to democracy in the coast States, what the compass is to the mariner, what Bethlehem's star was to the inquiring wise men of old.

It is the only live, sound democratic daily that should be considered indispensable in every family where growing sons are to be politically educated. After it once gains an entrance, renewals, we find, are not only readily, but voluntarily made.

Our readers' attention is invited to Belford's Magazine, a copy of which is on the editor's desk at all times for inspection, and a file in the reading room. It is, as you will see, thoroughly and aggressively Democratic, and in its literary features equal to the best.

the State and being by the county of Grant; that he has been over the lines of said land, and the marks and designations on the corner posts and trees, and from such examination has ascertained and knows the greater part of each forty-acre tract thereof to be dry and fit for cultivation, without artificial drainage or embankments, and free from such periodical overflows, either at the planting, growing, or harvesting season, as would materially injure or destroy a crop. And further, that such was the character thereof on the 12th day of March, 1890, the day on which the Swamp Land Law was extended to the State of Oregon.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, do. The celebrated "Hanging Gardens of Babylon" were within the precincts of the palace called "The Admiration of Mankind." They consisted of gardens of trees and flowers on the topmost of a series of arches 75 feet high and built in the form of a square, each side of which measured 400 Greek feet. The city of Babylon with its famous gardens, was razed to its foundation, 600 years B. C.
