—AUCTION SALE—Of Cloaks, at Stenger's, Saturday, March 2d. —To find ourselves able to offer twenty novels by the best writers for so small a sum as offered to readers of THE HERALD nearly took our breath away...

—Auction Sale—Of Shawls, at Stenger's, Saturday, March 2d. —Applications for final proof made out free at THE HERALD office. —R. N. Baker and N. J. Lewis of Silver creek were in town Saturday.

—Closing out—Men's Long Gum Boots $5.00, at Stenger's. —Marion Bunyard's Ball comes off March 8th. —Mrs. W. H. Culp and Miss Thompson were in Burns soliciting pecuniary aid for the Sunday school in their neighborhood, last Monday, and were encouragingly received.

—Auction Sale—Of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Underwear, Chain Pumps, Lamps, Tinware, Glass and Crockery Ware, Hats, at Stenger's, at 2 o'clock, Saturday, March 2d. —Boat Ford School District. We acknowledge receiving a very pleasantly worded invitation to be present at the closing exercises of the first term of the Boat Ford school, on Wednesday, Feb. 20th...

—The Herald. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1889. Local News. HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS. —E. A. King requests us to state that his saw-mill is now in readiness to accommodate the public with lumber of every description on demand...

—Burns did not get the county seat she worked fairly and faithfully for, but rejoiced as long and as loudly Saturday night over the news of county division as any other precinct in the Harney country. —Congratulations were generally extended P. F. Stenger on the timely arrival of his choice for deputy sheriff.

—Readers, who wish to obtain the best Republican newspaper on the Coast, can, through us, secure a year's subscription to The Call by subscribing for it and THE HERALD at only $3 for both. See advertisement elsewhere. —Go to the stable of Roussel Bros. for horse feed and livery accommodations. —THE HERALD acknowledges a pleasing invitation to the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, on Thursday last, and reception of bridal favors. We wish the happy wedded pair a long and pleasant life in their neat and comfortable home on Poison creek.

—All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate. —Geo. Kirchberger of Diamond valley, was in town this week, and added his name to THE HERALD'S list of subscribers. —Much to the regret of friends of the restaurant business in Burns Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Giannini retired from its management this week. Their work this winter has given general satisfaction to patrons. —Portland World: W. E. Grace, of Burns, a prominent merchant of Harney Valley, is stopping at the Holton. Mr. Grace is a son of the editor of the EAST OREGON HERALD and is one of the most promising young Democrats of the State. —Robt. Terrell, who made final proof on his claim, NE 1/4 Sec. 11, Tp. 24, S. R. 31, E. December 24th, received notification from the land office, last week, that his final proof had to be suspended on account of swamp land claim. The State having asked for a hearing, a contest will have to be carried to remove the swamp claim.

—Portland World: John S. Devine, of Harney Valley, the cattle king of Eastern Oregon, was in the city Saturday and Sunday, having just come in from his extensive ranch. Mr. Devine reports but little loss among cattle this year. —"No foolishness this time." I have accommodated my friends whenever called upon. Now, I need money and must settle up my outstanding accounts, and that right away. TEX. SILLMAN. Shepherders Wanted. Two shepherders wanted immediately. Address P. F. STENGER, Burns. From Riley. ED. HERALD: This section has been enlivened the past fortnight by the circulation of petitions for temporary officers. —R. J. Williams is again among us. He is located on his lower ranch. —The St. Valentine ball given at the school house in the J. C. Garrett district was an entire success in every particular. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baker, the favorite violinist of this part of the "moral vineyard" was on hands early; and as usual stayed till the last roll was called in the "wee sma hours." Uncle Dong, besides being an excellent musician, is one of our best citizens—financially, physically, mentally, morally and socially. —Mrs. Dibble, who has been on the sick list, we are glad to say is convalescent. —Thos. G. Dodson of Burns was among his Silver creek friends this week. —The deputy sheriff was collecting taxes at Riley as per appointment the 16th and gathered in quite a quantity of the "root of evil." —Pete Mallory attended the minstrel show at Burns the 16th. —While a young gentleman was returning home from the dance the morning of the 15th, he became chilled by the cold morning breeze, and, getting down from his horse, lighted a fire in an old dead pile and sat down to warm. While toasting his extremities he fell asleep, and in this condition a few burning branches fell down on him and got in their fine work. When he awoke he was burnt off to the breeches pockets—i. e., his overalls—and blistered on the mustard plaster principle, both hip and thigh. —Evergreen district will vote the 4th proximo on the question of moving their school house. It will probably be moved to near Gus Williams' place. LENOX. —J. Nat. Hudson has changed his office, residence and post office from Burns to Harney, Oregon.
