Some months ago suit was brought ers. It extends teachers' certificates of the third grade to one year; second grade to three years; and first grade to three years; and it allows of no renewals—that is, a teacher having once secured a third grade certificate must at his next examination get a second grade; and a person who has a second grade; and a person who has a second grade certificate must be able to pass for a first grade when his two years are up, and the teacher having a first grade certificate and teaches three years; sentitled to a State certificate. If he teaches four years under the state certificate he is then entitled to a State diploma. This will test the metal of teachers, and if they cannot ride they must get out and waik. The bill will no doubt become a law—Bedrock Democrat.
