HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS.

Great Reduction in Dress Goods at N. Brown's.

E. A. Stauffer is in town on Monday.

Auction at Stenger's every Saturday.

Mrs. J. M. Vaughn sent in her application last week for appointment as postmistress at Burns.

Applications for final proof made out free at THE HERALD office.

J. S. Devine spent Sunday and Monday in Burns.

Geo. Zumalt is in Burns on Tuesday for supplies.

All who know themselves indebted to N. Brown will please come forward at once and settled up.

The Railroaders in whose actions we of this Valley take much are now at Beaver Spring, about six miles from Isaac Foster's.

Ten Dress Patterns at AUCTION at Stenger's Saturday.

A. C. Worthington has retired from the carpenter business and will start into a new line altogether.

If there is any one thing THE HERALD despises more than another, it is the upstart insolence of petty jacks in office.

Two cases choice Pie Fruit at AUCTION at Stenger's Saturday, 16th.

We acknowledge receipt of the beautiful portfolio of "Houses and Cottages," from D. S. Hopkins, see ad. elsewhere.

There are over 80 pages devoted to practical information, illustrations and prices of variously arranged houses and cottages that cost no more than those built in this town and county, yet are far handsomer in design than anything we have seen.

Children enjoy the pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle.

Died, at the residence of his partner, E. L. Belshaw, on the John Day, Matt. C. Brand. It will be remembered Mr. Brand was sick for some time with an attack of pneumonia while in Burns, and was a sufferer from chronic consumption, from effects of which he died last week.

Scarface Charley (Pinte) says a rumor is current at the Warm Springs Agency to the effect that Buccaroo Jim is dead. Charley says he like his people there to know that Jim is not dead; and that the Harney Valley Indians are all doing well.

Isaac Foster arrived home from his trip to the East looking fine and hearty. "Uncle Ike" always finds a pleasant greeting in Burns.

J. C. Garret and R. J. Williams of Silver Creek were in town Saturday, on their way to Saddle Butte ranch to change their stock to the hills.

E. D. Baker of Curry returned last week from Prineville with a load of grain and provisions.

Messrs. Newman and Foley took a large hand of cows, calves and yearlings through north end of town to the hills. They were looking stout and well for early spring.

Wm. Miller of Surprise Valley, California, returned last week to Silver Creek, where he used to work for R. J. Williams.

We understand that C. A. Sweek, Esq., who has a beautiful home in Canyon City, has decided to become a resident of our new county in the near future.

This will be a desirable accession to the legal ability of Harney, and he will find a warm welcome.

Silver Creek school closes next Friday.

A week ago a horse Ras. Garret of Silver Creek was riding slipped, falling, his rider under him; the young man's left knee joint was so seriously injured as to lay him up for a week. He is doing well now.

Mart. Baker and wife were visiting at Mr. Foster's last week.

J. Nat. Hudson has changed his office, residence and post office from Burns to Harney, Oregon.

Any length over 10 yards, in Flannels, at AUCTION at Stenger's on Saturdays.

Wm. King of Silver Creek was in Burns Tuesday.

Go to the stable of Rousell Bros. for horse feed and livery accommodations.

See notices of final proof by Messrs. H. Elliott, J. Stecher, F. Winters, A. Wheelton, and B. F. Carter, in this issue.

Charles Byrd entered upon his apprenticeship to the printer's business to-day, with the prospect of a lucrative position in THE HERALD office, so soon as a proficient.

There was a full attendance at the Harney school house on the 15th inst. to give expression to the general rejoicing over the creation of Harney county.

C. F. McKinney being called to the chair, introduced Hon. G. W. Gilham, who delivered a very interesting address, chiefly relating to the efforts made at Salem to defeat county division. The speaker was frequently applauded.

Dr. Embree was next introduced and spoke earnestly of the universal satisfaction at the result of Representative Gilham's work in the Legislature. That the thanks of all were due to those who by their labors contributed to county division. The Doctor's remarks abounded with happy hits and reminiscences, and evoked considerable enthusiasm.

J. Nat. Hudson was next presented and addressed the audience on the Future of Harney County.

Mr. Hudson read a letter from Thos. H. Roberts, Editor of the "Harney Press," expressing sympathy with the objects of the meeting and regretting his inability to be present.

Mr. H. then spoke in glowing and hopeful terms of the prospects of immigration, the fertility of the soil, and the superior advantages offered by Harney county to those desiring homes among us.

On motion, Dr. Embree, L. B. Baker and J. Nat. Hudson were appointed a committee on resolutions, who, after deliberation, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the banks of the people of Harney county are due Representative G. W. Gilham for his successful efforts in behalf of county division.

Resolved, That we appreciate the efforts of the Press of Harney county, and of A. W. Waters and everyone else who have given assistance to the same cause.

After a few well chosen remarks by V. J. Miller, on the importance of organizing a Harney Valley Board of Trade and the appointment of an advisory committee to consider the proposition, the meeting adjourned.

W. E. Grace, the Burns druggist, returned from the Willamette on Saturday's stage, having visited Portland, Salem, Oregon City and Jacksonville during his absence.

The supper at the Drinkwater Hotel was one of the most enjoyable repasts, on Friday evening last. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Nat. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gilham, Mr. Sparrow of Bodie, Cal. and Miss McKinney, Dr. Embree, Geo. W. Hayes, and jr editor of EAST OREGON HERALD.

The dance at the Buckland Hotel on Friday night was a delightful affair.

On Thursday, March 14, 1889, at the residence of J. E. McKinnon, in Burns, Charles Stone and Miss Hattie, daughter of B. F. Lloyd, were married by J. C. Parker, J. P.

At AUCTION at Stenger's on Saturday—many "lectas" that you want.

E. A. King requests us to state that his saw-mill is now in readiness to accommodate the public with lumber of every description on demand; and will not be undersold by any lumber firm. Orders solicited.

Charles Bauman—everybody knows "Carpenter Charley"—does all kinds of carpentry at fair prices. If you want a house built, furniture made, or any kind of carpenter or joiner work done in a neat and workmanlike manner, send in your orders to Chas. Bauman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nat. Hudson of Harney, were in Burns Tuesday.

A fine, steady rain of about six days duration, visited this vicinity. The ground is in excellent condition for the farmers to get their work in.

The HERALD has been most generously remembered this season by the best, because most advanced, seedsmen in the country: D. M. Ferry & Co., Jas. Vick, and the Lewiston "West-Test" Co.—grasses, flowers, bulbs, plants, vegetable of every variety. The nursery stock received last fall from the Bloomington Nursery appears to be in fine condition.

AUCTION—Tinware and Lamps, Cartridges, Axes, Saws, &c., at Stenger's AUCTION on Saturdays, 16th inst.

Sheepherders Wanted. Two sheepherders wanted immediately. Address P. F. STENGER, Burns.
