HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS.

—Next Sunday is Easter.
—Prayer-meeting-to-night (18th) at Burns church.
—Church festival Friday evening, 19th, at Robinson's Hall.

—Divine services in Burns church next Sunday.
—E. A. King requests us to state that his saw-mill is now in readiness to accommodate the public with lumber of every description on demand; and will not be undersold by any lumber firm. Orders solicited. 50-1f

—A collection, of $18.50 was taken up to pay Rev. Bartholomew's expenses while at work in Burns.
—Great Reduction in Dress Goods at N. Brown's.

—Pat McGinnis swings into space for the crime of murder Friday week.

—Charles Bauman—everybody knows "Carpenter Charley"—does all kinds of carpentry at fair prices. If you want a house built, furniture made, or any kind of carpenter or joiner work done in a neat and workmanlike manner, send in your orders to Chas. Bauman.

—A first-rate mill-wright, W. C. Wallace of Sacramento, but lately of Paisley, was in Burns this week, on his way to Montana.

—Bergon & Ball Sheep-Shears—Stenger's—at Railroad prices.

—Mrs. J. C. Parker returned Sunday from quite a lengthy stay on the Island with her son.

—To S. J. Mothershead THE HERALD is indebted for an addition to the Harney Valley Fair column in shape of three specimens of timothy hay in the sod; the first with blades measuring 5 to 6 inches was planted last fall; the second, this spring, is one to two inches high.

—Mrs. Lehman expects to be in Burns this week or next.

—Miss Rose Hembree came in on the stage last week after a stay of three years as pupil in school at Baker City. Miss H. is the daughter of A. Hembree and sister of Mrs. Burnison.

—Elizabeth Hudspeth has been very sick with convulsions the past week.

—A stove has been put up in the church house.

—Mrs. Moore, wife of J. D. Moore, leaving their four little girls in care of her father, came to Burns from Princiville on last Wednesday's stage, in reply to the French hotel's call for a waitress in the dining room; she says she and Jim have been married the past twelve years; that he came to the Harney country for work; was not angry with her, and there was no trouble between them. She did not know of his marriage, arrest, and escape until within a few miles of Burns. She shows much indignation to regard her and their children, but for the young woman concerned in the trouble.

—Irregular rain, sleet and snow storms, and sunshine, in true April style, during the past week.

—The following is a list of the members of the Methodist class formed in Burns:

Mr. and Mrs. Embree, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wailes, Mrs. W. C. Byrd and Miss Cora Harrie, Mesdames F. H. Morris and F. E. Meize, Mesdames E. H. Morrison and Ray Thompson.

—All who know themselves indebted to N. Brown will please come forward at once and settled up.

—Rev. Wm. Bartholomew will take charge of the Methodist church at this place till the meeting of the next Conference in September. Teams will start to Long Creek on Tuesday.

MILLINERY GOODS.

FROM BAKER CITY TO BURNS, DREWSEY, HARNEY, BY MOLL LEHMAN.

The ladies of the above named towns will find a choice selection of Millinery on display for one week at each place. All invited to inspect the elegant goods on exhibition in Burns the latter part of this week.

When the teachers of morality of the M. E. denomination met in conference in Clackamas, last year, it was the general verdict that "Burns was the hardest town in Eastern Oregon," and "it was as much as a preacher's life was worth to go to work there"—where were Messrs. Grannis, Irwin, and Wakefield, that they did not put in a good word for the town that showed them and their work all courteous attentions.

—J. Nat. Hudson of Harney was in Burns Tuesday.

—The ladies of Burns and vicinity make a festival for the benefit of the church on Friday evening, 19th inst., and ask the co-operation of every friend of morality. The entertainment offered is music, vocal and instrumental, conversation, and supper. The place is Robinson Hall and admission fee 25c.

—As the present effort of the ladies of Burns to entertain the public with a festival for the benefit of their church, we trust they will meet with the financial success they deserve for their prompt action in the matter.

—The first direct fruits of the present live church movement in Burns was seen last Sunday in the influx of country people to attend divine service, the closed front and back doors of all the saloons in the town, absence of idlers on the streets, sacred music by the band, and absence of hoodlum yelling such as has marked the downward course of Burns the past eight months.

—Burns has been a "hard place" but is now making a stride forward toward building on a firmer foundation, and "cursed is he who putteth the weight of a feather in the way of her righteousness."

—Last Friday was a very poor day for Arbor Day in this section of the country, as a cold rain preceded it the afternoon before, a sleet snow fell during the night, and snow covered the ground in the morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Drinkwater of the Harney hotel were in Burns Friday, and returned to Harney the same day.

—J. C. Buckland, J. Davis, and M. M. Brierly of Harney were in town Sunday.

—Miss Annie H. Ward went to Canyon City this week to make final proof on her land claim.

—Settlers throughout the state, so we learn from local papers are rejoicing over the fact that the pre-emption and timber-culture laws are in full force as heretofore, instead of having been tampered with by congress as reported.

—P. S. Early, who established one of the best blacksmith shops in Burns in 87-88, in this valley, after selling out here, and exploring all along the Sound, is going into the blacksmith business in Tacoma, Washington, of which place he speaks in glowing terms. Mr. Early's friends here wish him success in his new location.

—Jno. G. South has just returned from a visit to Blue Earth, Minn.

—To date $150 was subscribed for support of a pastor the next five months. This ought to grow to at least the value of a teacher's wages—60 per month—and we believe it will.

—Sabbath school at 10 a. m. at the church next Sunday.

MURDER IN CATLOW.

THE CRUEL KNIFE IN THE HAND OF A HALF-BREED.
Slays R. D. Cooper of Diamond Valley, While Working on the Horse-Rodeo for the P-Ranch.

THE MURDERER CAPTURED IN THE MIDST OF HIS BLOODY WORK.
Preliminary Trial to Take Place this Week in Harney.

Suicide of the Murderer on Friday Morning.
The news of a fiendish murder reached this office Sunday, the particulars of which, as given, are as follows:

At the Colony, a place about 14 miles from John Catlow's and 16 from the State line, two of the boys on the horse-rodeo now in progress in that section—R. D. Cooper, a white, one of the French ranch's men, and Ben Jones, a half-breed, one of the Sisson ranch's men—said to have had a fight in which Cooper came out best man, he having thrown Jones back over the bed and choked him till he cried enough.

Shortly afterward Cooper went to the creek to wash and Jones went into the house for the same purpose. As Cooper came towards the house Jones rushed out upon him with a knife; Cooper started to run around the house, and while the boys expected to see Cooper appear round the corner, they heard a struggle behind the house, and ran around in time to see Cooper down and Jones on him, but too late to render assistance. Jones was seized at once, but Cooper spoke only a few words and expired—a later report says he was borne 2 1/2 miles to the house of Mr. Denio, within 6 miles of the Nevada state line, where he disposed of his personal effects before dying.

Examination showed Cooper to have been stabbed six or seven times; several gashes in the head, one long 5 to 6 inch slash down through the muscles of the left arm, and the fatal blow under the same arm in towards the heart.

There were five or six eye-witnesses, and it is stated that while washing, Jones was heard to say he would kill Cooper.

Wm. Gass came on to Harney for Sheriff Cowing, Squire Loggan and Dr. Gilham, the Blitzen precinct having no qualified officers at present, and they started for the scene of the murder Saturday noon. He will be brought to Harney for preliminary trial.

LATEST.
To Sheriff Cowing our readers are indebted for further particulars of the above sad affair:

The officials rode day and night, changing horses at Diamond, Peter French's, and D. L. Shirk's, to within 45 miles of scene of the tragedy, where they were met by parties direct from there stating the murderer had suicided, and both men were buried, as stated below:

Cooper having been moved to Denio's and died Thursday night, Friday morning the prisoner was put on a horse and taken to where the body of Cooper was being prepared for burial by Mike Finn one of Catlow's foremen; a man named Ward the only other armed man of the crowd, was in the house with him. Finn's overcoat was lying on a bed, and while he was arranging the body, Jones slipped a pistol out of the pocket and walked out doors. Finn followed, when Jones drew the weapon on him and said "I am going away!" He told Finn to tell Ward to come out of the house. Ward appeared in the door covering him with a pistol, and ordering him to drop his pistol.

Jones answered "I'll shoot myself!" Ward replied "Get in, if you've got sand enough!" when Jones lowered his pistol, got down on his knees, placed the weapon to his right temple, ranging upward, and blew off the top of his head.

This suicide was committed in the presence of nine witnesses, two of whom were Messrs. Catlow and Denio, at 9 o'clock a. m.

Both bodies were buried on Saturday; the officials were notified of the suicide and interment on the road Sunday noon, and to save the county further expense they returned to Harney.

R. D. Cooper was about 40 years old, had no family, and has worked for the Peter French ranch three or four years, and was generally liked among the boys.

Jones is a half-breed and came in only a short time ago from California, and was working in the same crowd with Cooper for Wm. Sisson. He is said to have left a written disposition of his belongings.
