

THE HERALD.

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1898.

D. L. GRACE, Editor.

THE President has extended a general amnesty to 30,000 army deserters.

THE United States supreme court has sustained the constitutionality of the Scott Exclusion Act.

THE Eugene Guard publishes an entertaining column for the Euxasian Society of the State University, and two bright young ladies editing the column Misses Emma Doris and Anna Roberts retire to give place to Misses Nellie Straight and Fannie Condon.

A Harney Valley Fair.

ED HERALD: In relation to the Harney county Fair—Having met with encouragement both in THE HERALD and in person from good and responsible parties, I will say that we will keep the Fair before our readers for some time until we hear from a few more; then a meeting will be called to organize and go to work. C. G. Burns, 5-17-89.

Death of General Harney.

The great American citizen in whose honor Harney county was named, has ended his earthly career. We give the following from the San Francisco Daily Examiner, and invite any of our readers to contribute any other matter of interest they may possess regarding the late General's history:

William Selby Harney, the oldest officer in the United States army, was born in Louisiana, according to the army record, but according to his biographers near Haysboro, Davidson county, Tennessee, on August 27, 1800. His parents were well-to-do and greatly respected. He entered the army at the age of eighteen, being appointed Second Lieutenant in the first Infantry from Louisiana. Just one year later he was raised to the First Lieutenant, which rank he held until May, 1825, when he was made Captain.

In 1823 he engaged in the Blackhawk war, being then Major and Paymaster, and later on in the Indian wars in Florida, distinguishing himself in the action at Fort Mellon and in the defence of the trading-house at Caloosahatchie on July 23, 1829.

He was in command of several of the expeditions sent into the deadly everglades of Florida to dispossess the Indians who had taken refuge in them, and in December, 1840, was brevetted Colonel for gallant and meritorious conduct. When the war broke out with Mexico Colonel Harney was among the first to enter that country, and after the action at Medellin on March 25, 1847, he was mentioned for his bravery, and in the battle of Cerro Gordo he was brevetted Brigadier-General for his gallantry.

In the Sioux war in 1855 he completely defeated the Indians at Sand Hills on the North Fork of the Platte river, and three years later he was placed in command of the Department of Oregon.

It was during his incumbency of this post that General Harney brought himself into international prominence and came near embroiling the United States with Great Britain. The island of San Juan, lying just off Vancouver island, had long been a bone of contention between the Governments, but Harney, on July 9, 1859, precipitated matters by landing a force on the island and hoisting the Stars and Stripes. England immediately complained to the Department of the State, which resulted in Harney's recall.

He was subsequently assigned to the Department of the West, and in April, 1861, while on his way from St. Louis, his headquarters, to Washington he was arrested by the Confederates at Harper's ferry and taken to Richmond. There he met with many old acquaintances, who urged him to join the Southern cause.

On meeting General Lee Harney said to him: "I am sorry to meet you in this way" Lee replied: "I had no idea of taking any part in this matter. I wanted to stay at Arlington and raise potatoes for my family, but my friends forced me into it."

General Harney also met General Joseph E. Johnston who told him that he was opposed to the war but that he had been compelled to enter it by force of circumstances. Harney was speedily released and departed for Washington from whence he returned to his command at St. Louis. He issued several proclamations, warning the people of Missouri of the dangers of secession and the evil effects that would follow the dissolution of the Union. In May, 1861, he entered into an agreement with General Sterling Price, commanding the militia of Missouri, to make no military movement so long as peace was maintained by the State authorities. He was soon after relieved of his command and on August 1, 1863, having spent forty-five years in active service in the army, he was placed on the retired list. Two years later, on March 13th, he was brevetted Major-General for long and faithful service—a timely recognition of an honest and capable man.

Standard Hides.

Portland Rural Spirit: The item which appeared in the last issue of the Telephone-Register saying that Manning & Fleming's colt, Alta Hamlin, was the only standard colt in the county, brought to our office several horsemen of this county, who stated that there were several colts that are entitled to be placed in the standard list.

In order to define what constitutes a trotting-bred horse and to establish a breed of horses on a more intelligent basis, the following rules are adopted to control admission to the records of pedigrees. When an animal meets the requirements of admission and is duly registered, it shall be accepted as a standard trotting-bred animal:

1. Any stallion that has himself a record of two minutes and thirty seconds (2:30) or better, provided any of his get has a record of 2:35 or better, or provided his sire or his dam is already a standard animal.

2. Any mare or gelding that has a record of 2:30 or better.

3. Any horse that is the sire of two animals with a record of 2:30 or better.

4. Any horse that is the sire of one animal with a record of 2:30 or better, provided he has either of the additional qualifications: 1. A record himself of 2:30 or better. 2. Is the sire of two other animals with a record of 2:35 or better. 3. Has a sire or dam that is already a standard animal.

5. Any mare that has produced an animal with a record of 2:30 or better.

6. The progeny of a standard horse when out of a standard mare.

7. The female progeny of a standard horse when out of a mare by a standard horse.

8. The female progeny of a standard horse when out of a mare whose dam is a standard horse.

9. Any mare that has a record of 2:35 or better, and whose sire or dam is a standard.

And his Name is Apple.

A man by the name of Apple is justly the peace of Hilgard precinct, Union county. He may be sound, but how can he be square.—E. O.

Oh, let up on his shape; what we want to know is, does he ever get mellow? If he is green and sour, you can bet there are no flies on him.—Baker City Revue.

We will rise right here and suggest that if the unfortunate justice happens to be rotten, he'd be a bad one to sit down on some of the sleek-haired attorneys. But what a "soft" snap for a hard case.—Times-Mountaineer.

Now, this thing has gone far enough. If this Apple has stem sufficient to hang on to his branch of the legal profession, and isn't so seedy as to be a disgrace to the bench, what business have newspapers poking fun at him.—Milton Eagle.

This is getting too personal, and we understand Mrs. Apple is becoming self with grief. Apple says he will not be squeezed too much, and has peeled himself, ready for a mill with his tormentors. Drop it.

THE EAST OREGON HERALD, learns from latest advices the Apple aforesaid isn't green enough to silently stand all the papers are giving him; says he'll leave out no paper till it gets all the apple-ess it can stand, and they'll all find he's not the sort to dry up easy.
