HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS.

Saturday evening go and see Bob and Eva McGinley, and laugh.

Sunday morning go to Sunday School and be good.

Tuesday evening go and eat ice-cream, and keep cool.

Bob and Eva McGinley's Silver Cornet band will give a serenade after their arrival next Saturday afternoon and will appear at the Burns' Hall on the evening of the same day, June 8th, 1889.

Dr. Horton the dentist will have his office supplied with all the latest appliances for doing dental work speedily and with as little pain as possible.

Has returned to Harney, ready to execute all manner of dental work.

The Burns-Summer-Resort is where the best liquors are kept on hand all the time.

Tex. has put in a full, fine stock of Whiskies, Brandies, Wines, Beer, Cigars, etc. Fancy drinks a specialty.

The "Song of the Sample Saloon" (have you heard it?) begins: "I drink me good whiskey, I drink me good beer, but the best of all drinks, I'm drinking here."

How is it the young ladies of Burns are taking such curious interest in latest wedding styles?

Ice-cream festival for the benefit of the church by the ladies of Burns, will take place next Tuesday, June 11th, in the church.

A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all.

SPRING GOODS—at the N. Brown Store. Fine display of fresh Groceries; latest styles in spring and summer dry goods. Cordial invitation extended to all.

Dr. E. P. Howard of Baker City, is visiting our town this week, and making acquaintance with the business men generally.

We find the doctor an intelligently informed gentleman, who would be a desirable acquisition to any community, judging from appearance and letters of introduction.

Thos. W. Stephens returned to town Monday after quite a lengthy absence.

Geo. McGowan and wife came home from Portland, last Saturday looking well, and having greatly enjoyed the trip.

Walter Huston started for Lakeview, Monday, with a conveyance for his mother and sister, who are returning from Stockton, Cal.

Bashe & Company of Baker City, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere in these columns, have the machinery mentioned on hand, and are able to supply farmers anything in their line on short notice, and at as reasonable rates as a fair-minded man can ask.

The Gago Sisters are erecting a business house in Harney, where they will place a fine assortment of Millinery Goods, and full line of Silver Ware. They respectfully solicit the custom of the ladies of Harney valley.

We were asked the other day by a friend in an adjoining town, "What has Burns got that makes her feel superior over neighboring towns?" Let's see:

1st. Burns has the boss county newspaper, THE HERALD.

2d. The best hotels, restaurants, and eating houses.

3d. A church, pastor (a real, live preacher, too), a full Sabbath school, a daily school, a permanent teacher, and reading room.

4th. Daily and tri-weekly mails, and boss stage-lines.

5th. Agricultural machinery establishments till you can't rest—just step in and see, once.

6th. Two livery stables, harness shop, and blacksmith shop.

7th. Two dry-goods stores, one hardware store, and room for several milliners and dress-makers.

8th. One brewery, three saloons, plenty rich milk, and wells, and wells of pure water.

9th. A large flouring mill, a 1 drugstore, one town hall, one jewelry store, lots of chickens, birds, flowers, young trees, only one doctor, plenty sunshine, work for all, money for all that work, and good health all round—

Now, the half is not yet told, and why should not the spirit of Burns be proud?

Funeral Obituaries of a Member of the I. O. O. F.

Died at his residence 4 1/2 miles NW of Burns, Harney county, Oregon, May 20, 1889, JOSEPH BAIRD, son of B. Baird, deceased, and Mrs. M. B. Baird, aged 32 years.

The deceased was not a man of wealth nor of any political note, yet his private character was such that his funeral was pronounced the largest ever witnessed in Burns.

Being a member in good standing of Harney Lodge, No. 77, of I. O. O. F. the honors of that Order were paid him.

Friday 11 a. m. the funeral cortege entered town from the north and drew up to the church, as the I. O. O. F. approached from their hall in full regalia, the staves draped with crape, marching in procession, two abreast, the Guardian with drawn sabre in the wake of the marshals. At the command "Halt" the fine body of men paused and uncovered in presence of the coffin as they filed past it under the crossed staves of the marshals, and the pall-bearers, distinguishable by white sashes, took up the remains of their dead comrade and bore it into the church through the arch formed by the staves of the marshals, the church choir greeting them with "Gathering Home, One by One," and an offering of flowers was laid on the casket, and prayer from the ritual of the Order was read.

"Reapers of Life's Harvest" by the choir.

Prayer by the pastor of the church.

Sermon feelingly preached by Rev. Bartholomew.

As the coffin was taken up the choir sang "Carrying Us Away."

The Order preceded the corpse in the procession, the pall-bearers marching three on each side of the hearse.

When the cemetery was reached the marshals formed the arch and he that was known among us as Joseph Baird passed for the last time under the rod.

"Shall We Meet Beyond the River?" was sung by the choir, as the coffin was placed over the open grave, and decked with the deceased's regalia.

The members of the Order formed a circle around the grave and in response to the language of the ritual cast evergreens upon the coffin.

The Funeral Ode of the Order was sung, and the chaplain read the funeral service at the head of the grave.

The choir sang "Thou Shalt Sleep but not Forever," while the grave was being filled in, and closed with the hymn "Go Bury thy Sorrow the World Hath Enough," and relatives, acquaintances and strangers alike, turned their backs upon the little mound of earth, "his all" of this world, and took up the burdens of life they had laid down for a few brief moments in honor of him who was yesterday, but is not to-day.

Joseph Baird was born in Linn county, Oregon, in 1857; his parents were natives of the Sunny South—his father, B. H. Baird, deceased, of Kentucky, and his mother, M. R. Baird, (now Ross) of Tennessee. He came to the Harney country in 1881, which made him one of the "old settlers," and was married to Miss Lucy, daughter of R. J. McKinnon, May 11, 1887, and made his home near Burns, where he was doing well in stock raising, when he was taken down severely ill last fall. He leaves a mother and brother in Idaho, another brother in Montana, a wife and babe in this county, and a host of friends to grieve over his loss to them.

In Memory of J. L. Baird.

Rest my loved one, peacefully rest, Free from thy toil's and pain; Dwell in Heaven with the Blest. Death can't ever come again.

Oh! my sweet my loved one's coming; Soon to follow thee o'er the River of Death; The messenger will come to call us thither; Life is only—only a breath.

Sleep, thou, Brother, in peace and rest; By thy good life on earth, thou'rt remembered In our memories fresh thou shalt ever dwell And with the Blest thou shalt be numbered. In thee, a light, from our midst has flown; A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our hearts, Which never can be filled.

THE HERALD

Will be the representative, at all times, of the Interests of the People. At all times advocating measures that look to the "greatest good to the greatest number," in accordance with the principles of Democracy

AS A LOCAL NEWSPAPER,

THE HERALD acknowledges no superior in Eastern Oregon. It points with pride to its well-filled columns the past year, and to its evident progressive influence upon the prosperity of the great Harney valley. As in the past so in the future it will strive to make prominent every of every enterprise calculated to benefit the people; to record every advance made in showing up the resources of the Valley; to advocate Law and Order under all circumstances; to frown upon all attempts to foment discord among the people in the interest of any individual, clique or faction; to give the NEWS of the day impartially and as fully as industrious effort and the aid of friends may enable us to obtain it; to give all the Local and Personal gossip of our section, suitable for publication, with all else of interest in this department;

IT WILL BE AN EPITOMIZED HISTORY OF THE VALLEY.

All Rustlers

Who know that in the rapid growth and wide proclamation of the advantages of Harney Valley lies their own best road to prosperity

Should Subscribe for the Herald Themselves

AND SEND EXTRA COPIES TO EASTERN FRIENDS.

The East Oegon Herald

Has successfully maintained itself through an ordeal of local opposition, vindictive and unscrupulous to a degree seldom equalled in country journalism; has advocated unflinchingly the rights of ALL the people of East Oregon generally and Harney Valley especially against the machinations of all organized petty cliques that sought by fraudulent misrepresentation to advance the private interests of a few at the expense of the many. Believing that "The sober second thought of the people is always right and always effective," and that "Truth is mighty and will prevail," THE HERALD has steadfastly followed THE RIGHT, and the people have given it a moral and material support that renders its permanency beyond question. As it has worked indefatigably and unselfishly in the interest of the people, it now asks for patronage that will yield something more than a bare existence. It has become valuable to all as a general newspaper, and

Is Now a fixed Institution of the Valley.

THE EAST OREGON HERALD

Has, from the initial number to the present, persistently and impressively maintained that the Harney country was one of the finest agricultural regions in the Union, needing only the presence of industrious farmers to develop its wonderful resources. To prove the truth of the strong language in its columns, the proprietor gave up a part of his office room to the exhibition of the products of the Valley, and urgently asked for specimens of actual growth and for everybody to call and inspect them. Attached to each specimen was the name of the producer, often with the mode of cultivation. This was a tangible, practical presentation of the matter, which any one could verify. How successful this movement has been, hundreds can testify. All THE HERALD asks in return for its efforts to serve the people, is an increase of public patronage—a modest request when it is considered that it returns to each patron more than his money's worth. If each resident of the Harney country will subscribe or renew for himself and take one or more copies to send abroad, it will so extend THE HERALD'S sphere of usefulness as to enable all to claim that it

Is a true Advocate of the Harney Country.

MEDIUM OF ADVERTISING,

THE HERALD presents unusual advantages. It is centrally located in a new and rapidly growing country, where manufacturers of all kinds are needed. We will soon have direct railroad communication with Portland and the East. Live business men of both sections should use THE HERALD'S columns to secure this great and growing trade. Its rates, proportioned to its circulation, are reasonable.
