HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS.

Old papers for sale. Cage birds for sale. Races at Drewsey. Celebration at Burns. Celebration at Harney. The Burns hotel as we took occasion to assert when Mrs. C. M. Caldwell first spoke of throwing its doors open to the public, is the liveliest place in the town, because it is not only a "good hotel" such as is needed here, but is a first-class hotel for a town the size of Burns, a fact that none can gainsay. Sirloin steaks at W. C. Byrd's meat shop only 10c; first come, first served. J. H. Townsend, an intelligent, agreeable gentleman from Portland, and superintendent of agencies for one of the coast insurance companies, called in the office Saturday to examine the Harney Valley Fair Exhibit for 1888, and acknowledge receipt of our answer to his and his brother's letter of inquiry regarding this county, some time last spring.

A social dance was given at the Hall Friday evening, by the young men about town, and was an enjoyable affair, and well attended. The Texas saloon has added the same style force-pump to its premises that THE HERALD put in a year ago, and was so effectively used to subdue the fire in the Stenger residence last year. Mr. Sillman's prompt action in securing so reliable an aid for restraining the ravages of fire in that block is highly commendable, and we trust a half-dozen more will be set ere long. The pastor's sermon on Calls on God for Success, last Sabbath day, was an excellent and impressive discourse. Rev. Bartholomew is a minister who improves steadily in the work of his church, as time passes. W. W. Cardwell has purchased the McCoy residence and will take possession this week. This is another desirable addition to our burg.

W. C. Byrd is doing a live meat house business in Burns. H. H. Cook, miner and farmer, passed through town Saturday, with his family, enroute for Harney, having just arrived from San Bernardino county, Cal., with intention of seeking a location. Mr. C. bought a copy of last issue of THE HERALD, also containing the Harney Valley advertisement, and a bundle of exchanges. Lots of room here for reading men and their families. Porter house steaks at 10 cents a pound at Byrd's meat shop. Henry and Ewing Armstrong sons of E. L. Armstrong who has been in here prospecting for a location since last fall, left Shasta county Cal., 3d inst., and arrived here on the 16th. Uncle Dow Montgomery, late of Burns, has received the appointment of Special Agent on the Indian Depredation Claims at $8 a day. WOOLEY-HARRIS—Married on June 13th, 1889, in Burns, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Harris, by Rev. Wm. Bartholomew, William L. Wooley and Miss Cora E. Harris; all of Burns, Oregon.

Ike Baer of the firm of J. Durkheimer & Co., has increased Burns' interest in the Branch general merchandizing store started here about a month ago, by purchasing two lots in the town, with intention of erecting a handsome residence on the corner southeast of THE HERALD office. This shows confidence in the stability of Burns as the great trade centre of the Harney country. Born, June 16, 1889, at Burns, Or., to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gray, a fine son, their only living child. We congratulate the happy parents. J. Nat. Hudson, attorney-at-law, of Harney, made a professional visit to Burns last Saturday. Full attendance at the ice cream festival.

Bashe & Company of Baker City, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere in these columns, have the machinery mentioned on hand, and are able to supply farmers anything in their line on short notice, and at as reasonable rates as a fair-minded man can ask. The Burns-Summer-Resort is where the best liquors are kept on hand all the time. Tex. has put in a full, fine stock of Whiskies, Brandies, Wines, Beer, Cigars, etc. Fancy drinks a specialty. The "Song of the Sample Saloon" (have you heard it?) begins: "I drink a good whiskey, I drink me good beer, but the best of all drinks, I'm drinking right here!" Dr. Horton the dentist will have his office supplied with all the latest appliances for doing dental work speedily and with as little pain as possible. Has returned to Harney, ready to execute all manner of dental work. The San Francisco papers in their reports of the school examinations in that city, say Miss Dora H. Brown, daughter of our worthy fellow-townsmen, Hon. N. Brown, graduated from the Girls' High School with high honors, which is a source of much pride, undoubtedly, to the father and two brothers, Messrs. B. and L. M. Brown, of Burns. Jake Demaris sold his ranch to John Hipsman for $1,550; and started Monday morning with his family for Walla Walla, his former home. Charles Carrol is reported having sold his land to the new cattle company for $2,500. The ladies' ice cream festival that took place June 18th, was a delightful affair, and netted $19.55. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Levens intend residing in Burns for the present.

J. C. Welcome's family expect to reside on their ranch this summer. Fresh beef 10 cents a pound at W. C. Byrd's meat shop. Prof. Baker went to Canyon City the early part of last week, and brought over the children's
