HABNEY VALLEY FAIR COLUMN.

Believing that the best way to effectively advertise any section of country is to keep its value, agricultural, commercial, mineral, grazing, etc., continually before the public, we again proceed to build up this column for 1889, as we did for

We carried the Harney valley advertisement from May, 1888, to May, 1889, one year, and run off an extra quire each week for mailing in response to letters of inquiry, to sell to public-spirited citizens, and supply immigrants on the road. There is not now in the office ten of these copies. Readers can see from this statement the importance of getting up a column of new matter for another year's advertising.

As THE HERALD gives no hearsay evidence, but gives occular proof of all it asserts, when asked for it, Gardeners are requested to bring in samples of any kind of vegetables grown by them; Farmers to fetch in samples of grain, grass, or any kind of product that will exhibit the worth of the soil, climate, and general ability of the Harney country to support an agricultural population; Stockmen to show any young stock bred and raised in the valley. A record of each will be made, and all but perishable articles preserved for direct reference.

Herald Grounds-We can report that the catalpas, poplars, Balm of Gileads, set out the spring of 1888, the locusts raised from seeds planted spring of 1888, lived through the winter, and are in thrifty growing condition-these are irrigated throughout the summer only.

Lettuce seed sown in December, came up in April, but not being irrigated went to seeding early.

Peas planted April 2d, gave a 7-lb. mess June 18th, notwithstand ing the drouth of the past five weeks and not having any irrigation what-

Timothy .- S. J. Mothershead sent in three samples of the growth of this seed on his ranch and it is in a most flourishing condition at this writing.

Roses.-Mrs. Haskell has a moss rose bush with perfect flowering this summer.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances.

E. G. Love, Ph.D.

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. The Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.

H. A. MOTT, Fh. D. "The Royal Baking Powder is purest in quality and highest in strength of any baking powder of which I have knowledge. WM. McMuntrie, Fh.D.

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, New York, and at State Fairs throughout the country.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists and Boards of Note.—The above Diagram illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, besides affording the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts.

*While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a comparatively high degree of strength, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value.

All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous

HARPER'S BAZAR, ILLUSTRATED.

Hasper's Bazar will continue to maintain it a reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments are of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern sheet supplements and fashion-plate alone will save its readers ten times the cost of subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social citquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories, and timely essays are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serial stories by Miss, Francis Hongson Burners, William Black, and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nuisery management by Mrs. Christine Erriche Herrick.
