EDS. HERALD: Permit me to correct the statement made in THE HERALD of 15th inst. wherein am reported to have said that I would aid the Artesian Well project by a fifty dollar subscription. I believe I said that should the Artesian Well advocates incorporate and issue stocks and this stock have Notwithstanding its severity, a reasonable prospect of being prise. When the matter was mentioned to me, I supposed that experiments had been made and that the Artesian Well Company was prepared to go to work with a business that would pay a premium on the investment.

It would be absurd for an entire stranger to subscribe an amount equal to the largest subscription by residents and property owners in the country.
