THE HERALD.

HAS LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1889.

Official County Paper.

Local News.

HARNEY COUNTY ITEMS.

The Herald, and Free Press for four months, if you order in this or next month, for only 90 cents.

In order that THE HERALD force, four persons, may fully enjoy the pleasures of Christmas Day, the issue for Dec. 26 is made on Dec. 24, two days earlier, so as to keep our large weekly mail supplied on time.

To keep posted Read THE HERALD. -Dec. 24: Band Boys' Dance -Dec. 24: Christmas Tree in Burns.

-Dec. 24: Ball in the Harney Court house. -Dec. 24: Christmas Tree and Grand Ball on Silver Creek.

-Dec. 24-25-26: A Grand Ball; a Horse-pulling match; a Shooting match at Drewsey.

-Any section of country in Harney county that has prepared to celebrate the holidays, and does not find mention of the fact in THE HERALD, will please place the fault with the persons who failed to report to the paper.

-Be sure to send in a full account of the Christmas holiday entertainments, just as soon as over, and your neighborhood will be heard from, if you let it reach us, and if you fail to see it in print, notify us of the day your communication was mailed. Mails from every direction are being delayed by results of late snow storms.

-Old papers 50c for 100. -Dr. Horton, the dentist, arrived in Burns, Monday evening.

-E. E. Purington, of Harney, came over with C. A. Sweet, Saturday. -The Misses Garrett and Miss Young came in from Silver creek, Saturday.

-Charges reasonable for livery service at the Red Front Livery and Feed stable. -The Canyon-Burns stage, in charge of John Wash, only goes as far as Soda springs now.

-For best of Feed stable accommodation go to the Sayers & Stillman Livery & Feed Stable. -The first snow of the season in Diamond valley, fell to the depth of 3 inches, Tuesday, 10th inst.

-Judge Shields, Geo. W. Grace and W. R. Graden made a flying trip to Harney and back, Monday. -A number of wretched looking cattle came into Burns this week, to browse about the livery stables.

-We are informed Steen mountain men are feeding sheep this month, so short is the grass in that section. -T. J. Morrison's sheep, about 1800, were snowed in the mountains, but were brought out without loss, Friday and Saturday.

-Mrs. Ella Caldwell says her little son and daughter have the whooping cough, but both are doing well. -The first street-lamp was put up in Burns by C. M. & L. Caldwell this week; other business houses propose to, also, thus help light up the streets.

-Snow reported in Pine creek mountains 3 ft. deep. -A full, fine fresh lot of Christmas goods at...

-For good Livery teams go to Burns New Livery & Feed Stable. -Dr. Horton's letter from Diamond, Harney co., dated Dec 10, reached us Dec. 21.

-All who intend to appear in character at the Masquerade Ball, will find a supply of those handsome masks at W. E. Grace's. -C. M. Caldwell's friends have been much concerned the past week, by his failure to show signs of improvement.

-Three bands of the Stenger sheep were brought in, Friday, from off three ranges, viz: Willow creek, Cherry spring, and Rimrock spring. -Wm. Howard, whom rumor declared some time since as intending to open a hotel and store in Diamond, was in Burns, Saturday.

-John W. McEachern and I. N. Crow two very pleasant citizens of Pendleton, Or. were in Burns attending to land matters, last Saturday.

-A letter from St. Vincent hospital in Portland to Mrs. Gibblin, states, so we are informed, that her husband is a patient under treatment in that place. -Go to the Livery and Feed Stable of Reed & Cavin at the Old Pioneer stand in Burns, when you want to obtain good livery accommodations.

-J. Nat. Hudson is busily engaged before the Burns Land Office in the contest of Carl Riley vs. John J. Mahon's Timber-Culture No. 931, for alleged failure to break five acres during the first year. -The other side of Pine creek from Burns, snow-drift over the stage road was reported here to be 16 ft high after shoveling out enough to admit the passage of the Burns stage last Saturday.

-Elder Taylor of Harney, delivered a very pleasing sermon to the usual Burns congregation on Sunday evening. The weather was altogether too inclement to admit of the customary attendance from the country. -Look on fourth page for THE HERALD's new adv. of "Twenty Books Almost Given Away," to every delinquent subscriber of 1889, that pays three $3.00 between now February 1, 1890.

-Miss Gunther having made arrangement with the Gage Sisters, has opened a dress-making business in connection with the millinery establishment-cutting and fitting a specialty. -Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Crego, who intended going to housekeeping on their ranch so soon as they returned from their trip to Idaho, snowed in at Burns until Monday of this week.

-The young ladies on the Burns Christmas soliciting committee, we learn, secured about $30 in cash, $4 worth of candy from J. Durkheimer & Co., and $4 worth of nuts from the W. E. Grace drug store. -Look at the handsome prospectus of the people's favorite story-paper the New York Ledger. The beauty of the cut is considerably marred by its passage through the mails, eastern packers not understanding the necessity for special care of matter that requires other than railroad transport to reach its destination. -Thermometer on the Texas saloon porch registered 3° above 0, on Monday before 6 a. m., and I. McMurray, two-and-a-half miles east of Burns, reported mercury 1° below 0, Monday, and 3° above 0, Sunday morning. It was 24° above, in a southwest room in THE HERALD building where no fire is kept during day or night, and fire out every night in the adjoining room.

-If you want your horses neatly groomed, put up at the Red Front Livery stable, when you come to Burns. -W. H. Culp did a very neat piece of graining in the Parker House, last week, on a cupboard and door. -When coming into Burns with horses, be sure to call at the New Livery & Feed Stable, where you will find all necessary accommodations. -The new hall now in course of construction will not be put in condition sufficiently comfortable for Band Boys to give their dance, as at first believed. -N. Brown has a nice display of jewelry for sale at his store; the very latest designs in breast-pins, rings, bracelets, etc. -W. E. Grace's buggy was broken and one horse badly crippled, the other week, by the horses taking fright near the church as he was driving in from Harney. -Dr. Horton, the Harney county dentist, will be in Burns during the holidays to attend to the aching teeth of the community. Now is your time, fellow sufferers! -Larkview stage, in charge of L. Huston, due last Wednesday, was unable to reach Burns before Thursday, afternoon; the driver reported road heavy with snow all the way. -"Texas" Bar. Tune-"Oh, Happy be We." To Texas I will go, yes, I will go, Whene'er I want to know, I want to know, What there's in Burns to drink, In the glasses cheerful clink, At Texas Bar. And when I want to smoke, I want to smoke, And hear a good old joke, a good old joke, At Texas Bar there will be figures for you and me At Texas Bar. For Whisky, Wine, and Beer, Fun without fear, There's naught to beat it here, to beat it here, For liquor, Wives or straight, They're always made to share At Texas Bar.

-Mrs. Stenger took possession of her handsome new residence, last Thursday. We are sorry to lose so good a neighbor, and shall very much miss the frequent visits of our bright little friend, Frankie Stenger, who has lately put on the dignity of a school girl. -The town dogs that keep night unnecessarily hideous with their continuous barking, roar both ears off one of the town cows, and one ear off another, this week, while engaged in the usual innocent exercise of baying or running down their unfortunate bovine victims. -Vale-Burns stage, in charge of Porter Cornelison, due Friday evening, was unable to arrive before Saturday 8 a m, driver reporting the entire line from Ontario through, delayed by snow and snow storms, snow being 24 feet deep between Burns and Pine creek. -Tom Howard, who, with Andy Wilson, the latter on the swing drive before Vale and Beulah, winter before last, shoveled snow three days between Harney and Burns in the endeavor to make his drive through at the earliest day possible, has taken the Burns end of the Vale-Burns route. Mr. Howard has the reputation of being one of the best drivers in the county. -Sunday Welcome contains a column of matter, exposing one Wm. Radam as a dangerous fraud. A chemical analysis of his impudent quackery, Microbe Killer, revealing sulphuric acid, or oil of vitrol as principal constituents. Radam charges his victims $3 a gallon for a composition that costs him less than 5 cents a gallon, as will be seen by the following analysis by Prof. Wenzel: 4 6-10 oil of vitrol; muriatic acid, 1 dram and 45; sprains; claret wine sufficient to color; graining valley water, 1 gallon. Radam claims "there is no disease that will not yield to the Microbe Killer," and the Welcome declares he is undoubtedly right as death will be the fate of the person that freely uses the Microbe Killer, as "of all quack medicines yet invented, the Microbe Killer takes the palm as a life-destroyer.

Go to Tapker's.

Horse shoes, nails, and all kinds of wrought iron worked into shape to suit the public. Horseshoeing and other blacksmithing done on quick time at Tapker's.

The New York Ledger for 1890. From this time forth the New York Ledger will contain sixteen pages. The publishers have been urged for years by their subscribers to make this change, so they would have the Ledger in a form convenient for reading. In making the change from eight to sixteen pages, Messrs Robert Bonner's Sons have utilized the opportunity to introduce important improvements into the Ledger, and to add many new and costly features. The new number of the Ledger (November 16th) leads off with the opening chapters of an extraordinary story from the pen of Anna Katharine Green, (author of the "Leavenworth Case") entitled "The Forsaken Inn."

This remarkable story was written in a white heat-dashed off almost without rest from commencement to end. It has been the habit of Anna Katharine Green to deliberate for a long time before taking pen in hand to begin a new work, and then to devote at least a year to its completion, but "The Forsaken Inn" presented itself to her in a way so forcible and vivid that all her former methods were discarded, and she wrote the story under the spur of overpowering inspiration. The result was the production of an exceptionally brilliant and glowing literary gem.

In addition to Anna Katharine Green's great story the Ledger of November 16th contains the following brilliant articles: Nihilism in Russia by Leo Hartmann, Nihilist; Old-Fashioned Fashions, by James Parton; Dr. Hoknagle's Strange Story, (illustrated), by Julian Hawthorne; A Missionary's Life in the Wild North Land, number one, (illustrated), by Rev. E. R. Young; A Scientist's Bright Thoughts, Editorials, etc.; The New South, by Hon Henry W. Grady; American Cookery, by Miss Maria Parloa; The Lady of the Rock, a Poem, (illustrated), by Thomas Dunn English; An Original Temptation, (illustrated) by Marquise Clara Lanza; Paying the Penalty, the 7th installment, illustrated, by Maj Alfred Calhoun; Correspondence, Science, Wit and Humor, and a fine variety of miscellaneous reading matter. Notwithstanding the vast outlay to which the publishers of the Ledger have gone, the price of the Ledger is only two dollars a year. Considering its extraordinary excellence, the New York Ledger, at two dollars a year, is the cheapest-as it is, the best-famly paper in the world. THE HERALD and Ledger for 1890 only $3.75.

Items from Enterprise. -Snow is melting a little to-day. -Several teams are hauling hay from the Island on bob-sleds. -There will be no school next week on account of Xmas. -W. T. Buchanan has got back with the rest of the load. -Stonewall Cawfield arrived, yesterday, from Roseburg. He reports plenty of rain there. -The youngest child of W. G. Pierce has been very sick, but is beginning to improve under the treatment of Dr. Embree. RAY.

The jury in the Cronin case reached a verdict Dec. 16: We the jury, find the defendant, John F. Beggs, not guilty. We the jury, find defendant, John Kunze, guilty of manslaughter as charged in the indictment, and fix the punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of three years. We the jury, find the defendants Danial Coughlin, Patrick O'Sullivan and Martin Burke, guilty of murder in the manner and form a charged in the indictment, and fix the penalty at imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of their natural life.

Christmas! Christmas!! Comes but once a year, but it brings loads of holiday goods to the J. Durkheimer & Co's. store when it does come. Everything in the holiday line. Prices to suit the times. Attentive service by courteous clerks. The display goods is a holiday treat in itself-Call and enjoy the sight of the largest and finest invoice of holiday goods ever offered the Harney Valley.

Christmas Tree AND GRAND BALL Silver Creek School House DECEMBER 24, 1889. COMMITTEES: To Get the Tree. James Adams, Cery Thurnburg, To Dress the Tree. Mrs. Simon Lewis, Miss Ruth McConnell, Miss Addie Hogan, Miss Lizzie Garrett, To Call Off the Presents. T. J. Shields, Wm. Lucas, Chas. Gilchrist, To Deliver Presents. Miss Ella Baker, Miss Stella Garrett, Miss Lizzie Winter, COMMITTEE ON SUPPER. Mrs. J. C. Garrett, Mrs. Geo. Williams, Mrs. Chas. Adams, Mrs. Fred Okerman, FLOOR MANAGERS: J. C. Garrett, Thos. Allen, Ficus Cheney, COMMITTEE ON MUSIC: E. D. Baker, Edward Kurik, O. Rusk.

Everybody cordially invited to come, and bring well-filled baskets along with them, and those that have no baskets, come anyway. That Doubly Homely girls will take heart after reading this delightful and sensible story. A girl, plain in face, and indifferent in her attire, is suddenly aroused to her defects, and, so far as in her power, resolves to amend them. Candid and guileless herself, she unexpectedly discovers that the husband whom she devotedly loves contemplates her with aversion, that she is really what a woman of honor most dreads-a despised wife. As he holds her thus in contempt, the question arises, Why did he marry her? This is one of the mysteries of the romance, the heroine of which soon convinces her husband that, while beauty is attractive, the charms of the mind are far more enduring. The story has an excellent plot, the action is natural and spirited, and the character drawing is in the author's best style. It is certainly one of Mrs. George Sheldon's most entrancing stories. It is No. 24 of Street & Smith's Select Series.

The Red Front Livery and Feed stable is the place to put up your team; horses fed, watered and groomed.
