A JOURNEY ROUND THE WORLD

In Less than 80 Days by Two Pretty Newspaper Girls Sent out to Beat

The Record of Jules Verne's Hero in the Novel "Round the World in 80 Days."

THE HERALD will keep its readers informed of all particulars of this novel race to beat a novelists' imaginery record. Jules Verne says it cannot be made in less than 79 days, and Mr. Walker of the Cosmopolitan claims a possibility of it being accomplished in 70 days.

The following is the substance of despatches as we find them in the Daily Examiner the Weekly New York World, and Cosmopolitan Magazine:

THE START EASTWARD.

Nov. 10—The New York World gave Nellie Bly, aged 23 years, the means to make a trip around the world in 75 days, to beat the record of 80 days made in Jules Vernes' novel "Around the World in 80 Days," by Phineas Fogg, the hero. The following program was laid out for her, with liberty to charter steamers and railways:

Nov. 14—Nellie Bly, in traveling dress and small hand valise, boarded the steamer "Augusta Victoria" for Southhampton, 9:30 a m.

Nov. 21—Nellie Bly lunched in London, 8 days after leaving New York.

Nov. 22—Met Jules Verne and wife at Amiens, France.

Nov. 23.—On the India mail express train, bound for Brindisi.

Nov. 25.—Writes a note from Brindisi, Italy

Dec. 11—Nellie Bly, forced by unforeseen circumstances, delayed her departure from Colombo, Ceylon, for Penang five days.

STARTING WETSWARD.

Nov. 14—The New York Cosmopolitan Magazine gave Elizabeth Bisland, aged 24 years, means for making the trip around the world in 70 days, so as to beat Nellie Bly's record:

The program for the trip is not stated as to the time, but she says she is to go from New York to San Francisco direct to Yokohama, thence to Hong Kong, Penang, Colombo, Aden, Port Said, Brindisi.

Nov. 14, 4:(?) p m.—Miss Bisland, in traveling dress, with shawl-strap, hand valise, and small traveling trunk, left New York City on the fast overland mail for San Francisco.

Nov. 19.—Miss Bisland arrived in San Francisco, 5 days after leaving New York.

The Greatest Sensation of the Age.

"The Crime of the century."—This is the very appropriate title of a book that is being written by one of the ablest journalists of the present time. It is the only complete and authentic history that will or can be written of the assassination of Dr. Patrick Henry Cronin and the chain of events that led to that strange crime. The book is profusely illustrated with original and skillfully executed engravings of the principal actors and scenes of the Tragedy from the formation of the plot to the close of the celebrated trial; it also contains a reliable biographical sketch of the patriotic victim. This Pictorial History of the greatest of Modern Crimes, is not a book of romance but of hard, solid facts and is a marvelous exemplification of detective skill, of the far-reaching power of the law and of those charged with its execution. Those who secure an agency for it will be extremely fortunate. For terms and agencies, address The J. Dewing Company, 813 Market St., San Francisco.

A Moment

Of your time, reader, may perhaps be profitably devoted to the following:—

Those who take an agency for a reliable, enterprising house, learn their business and stick to it, "get on" in the world. People who have any idea of engaging in any cavassing business will do well to write George Stinson & Co., Portland Main—the great art and general publishers. They offer the most exceptional advantages to those who are sufficiently enterprising to be willing to make a push in order to better their condition. It costs nothing to try. Women make successful canvassers, as well as men. Full particulars will be sent to those who address the firm; their full address is given above.

"That Peerless Magazine."

A magazine devoted to the care of infants was established in New York a few years ago. Its plan was to procure the best writing that money could buy from physicians, trained nurses, and everyone else who was competent to advise in the perplexities that confront conscientious parents who aim at successful training of their children. An experienced physician was placed in charge as medical editor.

This magazine, BABYHOOD by name, has met with remarkable success the world over. Its foreign subscription list was sufficiently large for it to establish a London office last year and begin the issue of a foreign edition.

BABYHOOD contains important popular articles on infants' diseaess; departments of "Nursery Problems" in which numerous questions of subscribers are answered; "Nursery Helps and Novelties," comprising descriptions of recent inventions and convenient nursery furnishings; a "Mothers, Parliament," containing interesting letters from readers, etc. etc. The Congregationalist recently said: "Every issue of BABYHOOD confirms us in the opinion which we have often expressed, viz.: that it is peerless in its way. It is full of material of the most practical value to all mothers, and it must be read to be appreciated. It is doing missionary work of a high order."

By special arrangements with the publishers, we are enabled this year to make an unusual offer: The regular price of BABYHOOD is $1.50 a year. We will furnish the THE HERALD in combination with BABYHOOD for $2.50 per year. This is a "bargaiu" that needs no comment. Make a careful note of a cut this out, or, what is better send us in the amount at once. If you wish to first see a copy of the magazine, address a postal card to "BABYHOOD, New York," asking for one, and a back number will be sent, free.

Boys and Girls.

Don't fail to send twenty cents to Boys and Girls, Springfield, Ohio, for the Grand Christmas and New Year's numbers of that beautiful illustrated magazine. Each number contains tales of adventure, scientific and historical articles, puzzles, fun, games and other interesting matter. A year's subscription would make a splendid Christmas present for a young friend. Regular price, one dollar. New subscribers, until December 31st, only fifty cents. This will include Christmas and New Year's numbers. Do no delay; send immediately.

Denman Thompson's Old Homestead.

A story of clouds and sunshine alternating over a venerated home of a grand old man, honest and blunt, who loves his honor as he loves his life, yet suffers the agony of the condemned in learning of the deplorable conduct of a wayward son; a story of country life, love and jealousy without an impure thought, and with the healthy flavor of the fields in every chapter. It is founded on Denman Thompson's great drama of "The Old Homestead." Street & Smith, 31 Rose Street, New York, are the publishers of this life-like story. It is No. 23 of their Select Series.

The New York Weekly Post.

Thoroughly earnest work is being done in behalf of tariff reform by the New York Weekly Post, which holds that the time to discuss this economical question is now, rather than in the heat of a Presidential campaign. Every issue of the paper contains articles bearing upon some phase of the subject, together with questions by doubting readers, with answers by the editor, all tending to facilitate and simplify the discussion. The Post has been adopted by a number of clubs and other organizations and its discussions are conducted in a spirit of fairness, which entitle it to respect of opponents, as well as its advocates of the revision of a war tariff to adapt it to times of peace. The Post is compiling a directory of active tariff-reform organizations in the United States, and has already published one installment of the list. The Weekly Post is a 12-page paper, and contains all the features requisite for a first class general family journal. Price $1 per year. In combination with THE HERALD, $3 per year. Sample copies free on request.

The Detectiv Story Papr.

The publishers of that sterling home journal, the New York Weekly, are this season making an offer that exceeds any we have seen. The ordinary price of the paper is $3.00 per annum, and it is well worth it, but to introduce the Weekly to homes where it is at present a stranger, we are authorized to announce that subscriptions for four months will be received for one dollar, and you will be presented free of all expense with a copy of any one of the Street & Smith Select Series of popular American copyright novels, The Secret Service Series of Detective Stories, or the Sea and Shore Series. These books are neatly bound in elegant lithograph paper covers, contain from 300 to 500 pages, and retail for 25 cents each. A sample copy of the New York Weekly and a complete description of the books will be sent free to any address, upon application to the publishers, Messers. Street & Smith, 25 to 31 Rose St., New York City.

Mention THE HERALD in which you see this offer.

THE HERALD and Weekly Call $3 or our paper and the Daily Call $6—Our Republican subscribers cannot say we do not get cheap rates for them, also. In this combination there is economy and literary merit.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

Herbert Ward, Stanley's Companion.

Herbert Ward, the companion of Stanley in his explorations in Africa, is the only white man connected with Stanley's African explorations who has ever returned alive from the "Dark Continent." Mr. Ward's articles running through eight numbers of the "Ledger" are of the most intensely interesting description, and cover five years of his adventures in Africa, and they will be illustrated by sketches made by Mr. Ward, and by the reproduction of photographs taken by him in Africa. These pictures will throw much light upon the manners and customs of the hitherto unknown cannibal tribes of Africa.

The Story of a Forsaken Inn, (A SERIAL STORY) By Anna Katharine Green.

Life in British America, By Rev. E. R. Young.

Being the adventures and experiences of Rev. E. R. Young, the celebrated missionary, and his wife during their residence in the Polar region twelve hundred miles north of St. Paul, in which Dr. Young narrates how he tamed and taught the native wild Indians of the Northwest; how he equipped himself for and how he made his perilous sledging and hazardous canoe trips when visiting all the Indian settlements within five hundred miles of his home.

Honorable Henry W. Grady

Contributes a series of six articles on the "Wonderful Development of the Industrial Pursuits of the New South."

American Cookery, (A SERIES OF ARTICLES) By Miss Parloa.

Giving the reasons why it is imperfect, and some ways by which it may be improved.

Nihilism in Russia, By Leo Hartmann, Nihilist.

Leo Hartmann, a fugitive from Russian authorities, has been connected with the most daring feats of the Russian Nihilists. Mr. Hartmann shows how the intelligent people of Russia are becoming Nihilists in consequence of the despotism of the form of government. A participant in plots to kill the Czar, such as the blowing up of the Winter Palace, he is able to give true information as to how this and other great schemes were accomplished. The situation in Russia is sufficient to increase the love of every true American for our form of government.

EXTRA SOUVENIR SUPPLEMENTS.

Among these beautifully illustrated four-page souvenirs, which will be sent free to every subscriber, will be a poem by John Greenleaf Whittier, Illustrated by Howard Pyle.

Written for the "Ledger" by Mr. Whittier in his 82nd year. Another souvenir will be a beautifully illustrated poem written by Honorable James Russell Lowell.

The Ledger will contain the best Serial and Short Stories, Historical and Biographical Sketches, Travels, Wit and Humor, and everything interesting to the Household.

A Story of the Wild West and Fireside Chats, by Hon. W. F. Cody.

Buffalo Bill is the Napoleon of American Scouts and Indian Fighters. He is one of the greatest and most versatile characters deduced. He has won brilliant success and renown in all his undertakings He is not only the greatest American frontiersman, but he is also an educated man. He is familiar with the entire history of our country, and has made a special study of the lives and grand achievements of the great pioneers, whose deeds of daring have won the admiration and applause of the whole world. He is better qualified than any other man to write the great standard history of American Pioneer Life, for he helped to make that history, and his own adventures constitute the most brilliant and thrilling portion of it. His peculiar fitness for the work that he has so successfully accomplished was justly recognized by the Prince of Wales, Hon. Wm. E. Gladstone, Hon. John Bright, and other distinguished Englishmen, when they earnestly requested him to write the "Story of the Wild West." In this request they were joined by nearly every celebrated General in the American Army, who, knowing Buffalo Bill intimately, knew that he was the man to write this Grand History. It is a book every American can feel proud of. He not only tells of his own marvelous achievements but also those of his comrades and other great frontiersmen, including the thrilling story of the Custer Massacre, Crook's campaign, and a thousand other exciting incidents and lastly, a description of his wonderful career and success in exhibiting his "Wild West Show" among the Crown Heads of Europe. Buffalo Bill's pen is as vigorous as his rifle unerring, and his book will remain forever the great standard history of pioneer life in America and should receive a glad welcome in the home of every true and patriotic American. This great historical book contains over seven hundred pages and nearly three hundred spirited engravings. The well-known publishers, The History Co 723 Market St., San Francisco, are the authorized General Agents. Agents and parties who desire to sell this book can secure an agency and liberal terms by addressing the History Company.

All the news, better departments and more first-class entertaining and instructive reading, than any other dollar paper published.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

In December we shall commence publication of the most powerful temperance serial story of modern times. The well known author of the Boy Traveler series of books, Col. Thomas W. Knox, is now engaged in writing this story, for which we pay a royal sum. We want this story to have the wide circulation it deserves. In the interest of humanity parents should see that their children read it, and especially the young men of every community in this broad land should be urged by those who have an interest in them, to read this story. The other features of the Weekly Blade need not be stated here. They are well known. Send for a free sample copy and see for yourself.

SPEAKING OF SPECIMEN COPIES

We invite every reader of this paper and every reader of this county, to write us for two specimen copies. First, write us a postal card immediately for a specimen copy of the Weekly Blade that you may get a full discription of Knox's temperance serial story, "Teetotaller Dick." Second, write us again about December 1st for another free specimen of the Blade, and we will send you a paper containing the opening chapters of the story. Send the names and addresses of all your friends at the same time.
