claim that said land will be made before said Receiver, T. S. Land Office, regard, on August 21st, 1890, viz:
J. C. Woodruff,
for the NW 1/4, Section 10 Tp. 23
S. W. 1/4. He claims the following to be his land, to-wit: the following subdivision of said land, viz: N. E. 1/4,
E. 1/2, S. 1/2, Sec. 10, T. 23 S., R. 31 E.,
County of Harney, State of Oregon,
J. S. HUNTINGTON, Register.

Wm. Gass is in Burns this week.
Emanuel Clark of Silves Valley is in town today.
Plenty of apples and vegetables in town this week for sale.
W. E. Smith of Emigrant creek was in town Monday and Tuesday.
W. H. Shirk and wife were guests of the Burns hotel Monday and Tuesday.
Chas. Gawne of Cow Creek, was in our town several days of the past week.
The family of Dr. J. W. Ashford, arrived on the Canyon stage Monday evening 11th inst.
Received at the Hardware Store of Cal. Geer, a supply of doors and windows.
Mrs. S. D. Hill has returned from a few days sojourn with friends on the Malheur, and is now stopping at Mrs. A. A. Stengers.
We had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting sermon delivered by Rev. E. K. Taylor, on last Sunday evening.
Dr. C. E. Loomis, a government land agent, was in Burns two or three days last week. His business we learn is looking after fraudulent land entries.
Fred. Okerman, wife and little boy of Silver Creek, accompanied by W. Whitmore, passed through Burns Tuesday August 12th, on their way to Idaho to visit friends.
A. Hembree left at this office a day or two ago a bundle of oats which stands five and one half feet high, the heads are long and well filled. The oats grew on the ranch of J. C. Wooley on Poison Creek.
Stages and mail on the Ontario route—"Try-weakly"—we are informed by driver, Ingersoll, that Geo. Moore is in Walla Walla attending to the Vale stage route business.
We should have, in Burns, a central stage office and express office with capable agent, and it is not at all necessary that either should be connected with a government position.
Dr. H. M. Horton, our prominent dentist, is now permanently located in Burns, all wishing work done in his line of business, will do well by giving him a call. Office at his residence.
The old Robinson and Dodson Saloon, was opened on the 7th, by Henry Long. The proprietor asks for a share of the public patronage; his saloon is first class in every respect, his liquors are of the best brands, and by strict attention to business, and gentlemanly courtesy Henry hopes to receive his share of custom.
The Hardware Store of Cal. Geer, is giving general satisfaction. Mr. Geer endeavors to keep everything in the hardware line wanted in this country, and has made immense sales of all kinds of machinery. He makes it a point to accommodate his customers, consequently he is doing a thriving business.
Tex Silman's Saloon is still the favorite resort in Burns, and Tex keeps up his reputation of one of the most popular saloon keepers of the age. When in town if you desire a nice cool lemonade at Tex's Saloon is the place to get it, or any first class drink you wish.
Lee Caldwell, proprietor of the Red Front Saloon, gave his well of water, a general cleaning up this week "that is," dipped all the water from the well together with the mud and frogs, the latter having settled to the bottom, and he now has fresh, nice, clear, pure water, as well as the best of liquors, also, Mineral water which is very healthy and a deliciously cooling drink. Don't forget to call on Lee when in the county-seat.
Lunaburg & Fry received, last week, another supply of boots and shoes, of the very finest quality, and made of the best material, since the opening of their Boot and Shoe Store, the firm has been liberally patronized. Why? because their stock is of the best brands and their prices reasonable.
If you want THE HERALD and any of the following papers for one year, call at this office and you will be astonished how cheap you can get them. The S. F. Examiner, S. F. Call, S. F. Bulletin, National Democrat, Detroit Free Press, Toledo Blade, Portland World, and various other papers, also, different magazines and story papers; all of Harper & Bro's. works; in fact anything in the reading line you can call for.

At the Candy Store of Mrs. Vaughn you will find fresh figs, Stationary and fire works.
A brother of Pussy Stansell was in our town Tuesday last, with a load of vegetables.
Ralph Geer has completed his Tin-shop and is now ready to do all repairing in that line.
The coming races in Burns promise to be the most interesting we have ever had in our town.
H. Mason of the Pacific Live Stock Association, was in town Sunday and Monday of this week.
We are authorized to announce a ball will be given at the new hall, on Friday evening August 29th.
HERALD is only $2.50 a year; now is the time to subscribe to a live local newspaper.
N. V. Smith and Simon Lewis of Silver Creek, were in Burns last Friday and Saturday. We were told by Mr. Lewis that diphtheria is prevalent twelve or fifteen miles from Hardin post-office.
Henry Richardson and Hugh Smith are having erected a butcher shop, situated on 2d street opposite the post office.

Lost.
On the afternoon of July 12, on the road leading from Burns to the Fry field, a lady's red plush portemonnaie, containing a gold watch and some other small articles.
The party finding the above mentioned portemonnaie, and leaving it at THE HERALD office in Burns, will be liberally rewarded.
COMMUNICATION.
WASHINGTON, D. C.
One of the most interesting topics of conversation just at present is the republican party and the way it is all torn up. Blaine is the shining mark, as he has always been, only the young bald-headed men are not following the white plume nor going into ecstasies over the magnetism and brilliance of the secretary of state. Neither Reed nor Blaine would ever be called upon to be chief mourner at the other's funeral, and Harrison would not grieve if both of the first named were politically dead and buried. These three men constitute the "powers that be" within the republican party to-day. Between Blaine and Reed there is an intense personal hatred, while Harrison is so built as to be thoroughly indifferent to all surroundings except himself and Baby McKee. In fact, Harrison is a selfish man who cordially dislikes his secretary of state because of his popular characteristics, and as he honores for a second term he considers Blaine as an impediment to the fulfillment of his political dreams. At the same time he is compelled to keep up an appearance of friendship, which, however deceives no one here who has eyes with which to see and ears with which to hear. Intellectually speaking the president is much the inferior of Blaine, but he is possessed with one thing the secretary with all his blandishments has not been able to override and that is a stubborn dogmatic will that brooks no opposition whenever his purposes are fully formed. This strength of will power is more than likely to bring a clash of arms before long because things political are so arranging themselves as to make it desirable for Harrison to question Blaine's "intentions." In other words, whether or not he will wear a Harrison or Blaine badge. If the latter, the president will not feel it proper to let Blaine get another hold of the British lion's tail when every twist brings a responsive shout from the American populace.
When Reed comes in then the fun begins. The president has just about as much love for the speaker as he has for the secretary, but he is not so much afraid of him. Indeed, none here look upon the Maine man with any apprehensions, even though he be an unsafe leader to trust with political power, so far as his political future is concerned. He has risen about as high as he will ever go, and if anything startling should occur in his public career it will probably be in the nature of a drop which would land him in a private citizen of the state of Maine. Not only is Blaine bitterly hostile to him, but both the Maine senators and most of the republican leaders in Maine will not be grieved should he step down and out. Outside of the first district, in which he has almost been beaten by a democrat, he has no following. This absence of Northern sentiment in his behalf is what led him to champion the force bill as he thus expected to appear at the next republican convention with the solid black delegations from the south harrasing for his nomination. The politician did not appear in this however, or he would never have estranged the respectable element of his party to bind with chains of paper the

THE CRY OF MILL.
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.
I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was afflicted with a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when I did I was obliged to use a cane. I had a very bad attack of the kidneys, and to my relief I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I was happy to state that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.
