AS AND PROPRIETORS.

WEDDING LANE.
A notice is hereby given that the undersigned have been appointed by the court to sell the real estate of the late John H. Horton, deceased, for the purpose of paying the debts of said estate. The sale will be made at the public auction of the premises situated on the corner of the intersection of the main highway and the road leading to the farm of the late John H. Horton, deceased, on the 1st day of October, 1890, at 10 o'clock a.m. The terms of sale will be as follows: Cash for one-half of the premises, and the balance on credit for the other half, at the rate of 10% per annum, payable in six months. The undersigned will accept of any offer for the whole or part of the premises, and will execute a deed therefor at once.

CLIPPING FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

It is thought, that Honduras and Nicaragua will have a war.

We notice in the Eagle, that the ranchers and sheep men are about to have war.

The first National Bank in the Dalles, on Sunday night the 14th inst. was robbed of $9450.

The mind reader, P. A. Johnstone whose skill as a mind reader, is surprising every body.

The settlers in Long valley, near Salmon river Idaho are very much excited, fearing an outbreak by the Indians.

It is estimated that there are twenty-seven thousand married men in New York City who are supported by their wives.

The long contemplated railway connection between Jacksonville and Medford is at last about to materialize.

It is not believed, by the Princeton papers that young Byron Springer committed suicide as reported by the Oregonian.

A man in New York has been imprisoned eight days for kissing a girl against her will.

The River and Harbor bill has passed congress, and is ready for the President's signature.

Charles Faye, a fourteen year old boy, died in Brooklyn a few days ago, his height was six feet and two inches. Physicians say his death was due to too rapid a growth.

O. J. Menocal and several others on the engineering staff of the Nicaragua canal construction company, are in Washington on leave of absence. They report commendable progress on the great engineering project, and the success of the scheme, they say, is assured.

On the night of June 1st in Kimberly, south Africa, some vicious person or persons opened the cages, in Filless' menagerie, containing the wild animals and set them all free. The scene which followed is described as being awful. Ten or twelve persons and several horses were killed by the enraged animals.

It may just be well to mention that Uncle Sam's domain extend a little more than half way around the globe. Therefore when any of Her Majesty's subjects get off that chestnut about the sun never setting on the British dominions, we can brag of the same thing, too. The distance from the easternmost point in Maine to the westernmost island in Bering sea is a little more than 190 degrees of longitude, so that it is full sun up in Maine before it is sundown in Behring sea.

A letter from the postmaster at Fort Bidwell conveys the information that the weekly mail service between that place and Burns has been abandoned. This adds insult to injury to the people who wish to communicate with each other in these sections. Formerly it took two months to get an answer to a letter from Burns, and now as the mail will be obliged to go around by Ager, Portland, British Columbia and across Fidler's Green on the ice, one round trip a season is all that can be expected.—Lake Co. Examiner

Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 17.—John Clinton, aged 19, came to this city from Eureka Flats and told a terrible tale of fiendish cruelty practiced on himself by two Kennedy brothers last Saturday. According to the story, Clinton and the Kennedy brothers had been working together thrashing. On Saturday J.

Kennedy asked Clinton to play cards. On his refusal the brothers attacked and overpowered him, and bound him with a rope. They fastened a large rope around his body. The other end was tied to a wild horse, which was turned loose. Clinton was dragged by the animal quite a distance before the rope became unfastened. When found he was unconscious and fearfully bruised.—Silver State.

Somero shadows have fallen across the pathway of this printshop and the editor is also the devil. Tommy Bugler who has been our typewriter for nearly two years has taken his departure for Harney county, and under existing circumstances—because of long standing and delinquents still—we are obliged to dispense with an assistant. Bring us in some more turnips, please; we're about out, and are in need of some bacon, too.—Grant County News.

Prineville News: Agreeable to a statement made in the Burns Herald, Rev. Ira Wakefield has been relieved of his position as presiding elder of the La Grande district, for reasons not given. It appears that Bishop Vincent ordered his removal without making public his excuse for so doing, if he had any. Rev. Wakefield is well known here as a man of excellent Christian character, against whose reputation as an earnest and devout man naught could be said.

Here is a picture, presented by the Omaha World, which complaining farmer will do well to study: "In Sangamon county, Illinois, the home of Lincoln, one-half of the farmers are now renters. Did Mr. Lincoln imagine that such a state of things would ever exist at his home when he spoke of 'a government of the people, by the people, for the people?' The forces which have worked this result at the home of Lincoln are felt over the whole land. The mortgages are being gradually foreclosed. The land-owning farmer is passing into the condition of the peasant of Europe and the process will go on as long as the same system of tariff robbery and railroad extortion is in existence.

However, all this means if the republicans carry all the States they did in 1888 they will have the above majority.

But the chances are they will not do it.

Now transfer New York from the republican to the Democratic column and we have: republican, 214; Democratic, 206.

It is now claimed that Rhode Island is Democratic. Transferring its electoral vote to the Democratic column it would make a tie vote of 210 each.

However, without Rhode Island, but with New York and Indiana, the two doubtful States, added to the Democratic column of 1888, the vote would stand: Democratic, 220; republican, 200.

Connecticut is a doubtful State, although the democrats got it last time, but if the democrats can get New York and Indiana they can afford to lose Connecticut's six votes and still the electoral vote will stand: Democratic, 214; republican, 206.

But in the next election the democrats must carry both New York and Indiana to win.

When found he was unconscious and fearfully bruised.—Silver State.

Somero shadows have fallen across the pathway of this printshop and the editor is also the devil. Tommy Bugler who has been our typewriter for nearly two years has taken his departure for Harney county, and under existing circumstances—because of long standing and delinquents still—we are obliged to dispense with an assistant. Bring us in some more turnips, please; we're about out, and are in need of some bacon, too.—Grant County News.

Prineville News: Agreeable to a statement made in the Burns Herald, Rev. Ira Wakefield has been relieved of his position as presiding elder of the La Grande district, for reasons not given. It appears that Bishop Vincent ordered his removal without making public his excuse for so doing, if he had any. Rev. Wakefield is well known here as a man of excellent Christian character, against whose reputation as an earnest and devout man naught could be said.

Here is a picture, presented by the Omaha World, which complaining farmer will do well to study: "In Sangamon county, Illinois, the home of Lincoln, one-half of the farmers are now renters. Did Mr. Lincoln imagine that such a state of things would ever exist at his home when he spoke of 'a government of the people, by the people, for the people?' The forces which have worked this result at the home of Lincoln are felt over the whole land. The mortgages are being gradually foreclosed. The land-owning farmer is passing into the condition of the peasant of Europe and the process will go on as long as the same system of tariff robbery and railroad extortion is in existence.
