

—Tex's Saloon is the "boss."
—Everybody goes to Tex's Saloon.

—Bargains at the Auction next Saturday.

—Notice the premiums offered by THE HERALD.

—Chas. W. Parrish came in from Canyon last Sunday.

—Horace Dillard, of the Items, is on the sick list this week.

—Peter French and his foreman John South, are in town this week.

—Grand Auction next Saturday. See the advertisement on this page.

—Mr. N. Brown, wife and daughter are guests at "The Esmond" Portland.

—Jas. Wadman, of the Ranch, paid the HERALD office a pleasant call, to day.

—Smith & Richardson have erected in the rear of their butcher shop a smoke house.

—HERALD is only $2.50 a year now is the time to subscribe to a live local newspaper.

—John Martin informs us that his mother and brother, Ed, are both ill, though not dangerous.

—Subscriptions for all newspapers and periodicals taken at the postoffice at publishers rates.

—Send in your subscriptions reminder for every two cash subscribers, you get 25 No. 1 novel price.

—We did not learn of the illness of Miss Mary Tupkes until this week. We understand she is quite sick.

—Dr. Entree, some of your friends want to know how you are pleased with your chimney. Does it draw well?

—"United we stand divided we fall," is the brand of whiskey sold by Henry Long. Best in the market. Try it.

—Remember the Auction next Saturday. Nov 8th, and come with your pockets well filled with "chink," for goods will be sold for cash only.

—The Tailor parlor of Robinson & Mynatt is always in perfect order, neat and clean, and John always ready to give you a nice easy, smooth shave.

—J. Durkheimer & Co., have received a mammoth stock of dry goods and groceries, which they sell cheap. Notice the new ad. of the firm in this issue of the HERALD.

—If you desire to purchase a durable, guaranteed organ or piano, call on Prof. E. A. McCoy, he is agent for several reliable firms and will ascertain if suit you work in piano and style.

—Business men, when you want to uncomfortable parlors to write, or enjoy a good cigar, call at the French Hotel.

—The O. C. Co., at Huntington, are the leading General Merchants on the railroad. Their increasing business is evidence of their popularity and square dealing with their customers.

—We will send the Mammoth Cyclopedie complete in four volumes, postage paid, and the East Oregon Herald, for one year, upon the receipt of $3.00. By making this offer we, the licensees largely our subscription list.

—Just received at the Hardware store of F. E. Wager, a fine oil of the much coveted Swedish cooking stove. Remember it is the best stove made, and all places where this patent has been tried no other brand can be sold.

—Remember our great offer to subscribers to the HERALD. We will send the entire set of Dickens Works, consisting of 12 vol. postage paid, and the HERALD for one year, for $3.10 each. This is one of the grandest premiums ever offered to subscribers. Remit by registered mail or call at the HERALD office, Burns, Oregon.

—Clara and Bessie Stenger received a letter, a few days ago, from Nora McCoy, announcing the death of her mother, who died at the Walla Walla hospital, Oct. 7th. The letter did not state of what Mrs. McCoy died. The citizens of our town are very sorry, indeed, to hear of the death of that lady. The family once resided in Burns, and Mrs. McCoy had many friends here.

—There are three children; two boys and one girl, and they have the love and sympathy of their friends here, and we are glad to learn through Nora's letter, that they are all well provided for, having good homes and kind friends to love and care for them. Nora wishes to know the whereabouts of her father, Jack McCoy. Her postoffice address is Echo, Oregon.

—M. D. Wilson has been to the work on the Burns the Presiding Elder, at the M. E. church, the first and third Sundays at 10 o'clock p.m.

—Sportsmen of Burns and duck hunting one week. They bagged two one duck, there is nothing singular or remarkable in that, for it is a little unusual of order for wild birds to wing-clipped.

Grand Auction,

At the Harness Shop Saturday, November 8th, at 2 o'clock.

Now is the time to lay in your winter supply of Dry Goods.

Ladies Dress Patterns.

" Miss' and Children's Cloaks and Hats.

" Children's Worsted Shawls, Facinators and Socks.

" Children's and Men's shoes and Slippers.

" Underware.

" Jerseys.

" Children's Hose.

Collars, Cuffs, Mitts, and Gloves.

Corsets, Chimisteries, Dress Braids, Shirts and Yarns.

Bed Spreads and Ruching.

Men's and Boy's Collars, Coats,

Suits, Pants, Neckties, Underwear, and Over-shirts, Foots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Gloves and Mittens, and Overcoats.

Pocket Books, Clocks, Wall-paper, Albums, Ladies' belts and bags, etc., etc.

These goods will be sold to the highest bidder, regardless of cost, for CASH only.

J. C. WELCOMBE,
Auctioneer.

—B. R. Witzell's residence is now under way.

—W. E. Grace's stock of drugs

will continue to come.

—The new HERALD office is nearing completion.

—Dr. H. M. Horton has moved into his new residence.

—The Heppner Gazette comes to us an eight page paper, this week.

—Hellen & Zumwalt, contractors and builders are kept busy.

—W. H. Gass, who has been absent on a business trip to Canyon

City, has returned.

—H. C. Levens has gone to the Willamette valley on business, will be absent probably two weeks.

—The residence of Dr. Ashford is now completed and Mr. A. is making preparations to move in.

—Quite a number of persons who are residents of Diamond and the Umatilla country, are in town this week.

—Our young friend, Robert Huston, will be off, in a few days, to attend school, at Eugene, for the winter.

—Mrs. May, daughter of Mrs.

Canfield, of Harney, who is being treated by the Christian Scientist

Mrs. Hill, for paralysis, is improving.

—The O. C. Co., at Huntington have just received one car each of Canneds, Coal oil, Salt, Groceries

and five cars of Flour, and are prepared to sell at low prices.

—J. P. Wager, Esq., who has been staying in Burns and vicinity,

for a week or so, left, Tuesday, for Pendleton, on business requiring his attention. He expects to return to Harney valley in a few weeks, perhaps in a month, and locate here permanently for the practice of law.

—An exchange says that the man who went out to milk and sat down on a couldy in the middle of a pasture and waited for the cow to ack up to him, was the eldest brother of the man who kept store and did not advertise, because he reasoned that the purchasing public would back up to his place when it wanted something.

—If you want THE HERALD and any of the following papers for one year, call at this office and you will be astonished how cheap you can get them. The S. F. Examiner, S.

E. Call, S. F. Bulletin, National

Democrat, Detroit Free Press, Toledo Blade, Portland World, and various other papers, also, different magazines and story papers; all of Harper & Bros. works; in fact anything in the reading line you can call for.

—Remember our great offer to subscribers to the HERALD. We will send the entire set of Dickens

Works, consisting of 12 vol. postage paid, and the HERALD for one year, for $3.10 each. This is one of the grandest premiums ever offered to subscribers. Remit by registered mail or call at the HER-ALD office, Burns, Oregon.

—Clara and Bessie Stenger received a letter, a few days ago, from

Nora McCoy, announcing the death of her mother, who died at the Walla Walla hospital, Oct. 7th.

The letter did not state of what

Mrs. McCoy died. The citizens of our town are very sorry, indeed,

to hear of the death of that lady.

The family once resided in Burns, and Mrs. McCoy had many friends here.

—There are three children; two boys and one girl, and they have the love and sympathy of their friends

here, and we are glad to learn through

Nora's letter, that they are all well provided for, having good homes

and kind friends to love and care for them. Nora wishes to know the whereabouts of her father, Jack

McCoy. Her postoffice address is Echo, Oregon.

—M. D. Wilson has been to the work on the Burns

the Presiding Elder, at the M. E. church,

the first and third Sundays at 10 o'clock p.m.

—Sportsmen of Burns and duck hunting one week. They bagged two one duck, there is nothing singular or remarkable in that, for it is a little surprise of order for wild birds to wing-clipped.

—David Munro.

Bins Photograph Gallery,

W. H. CANADAY, PROPRIETOR.

Nothing but first class pictures leaves this Gallery. Duplicates furnished at reduced rates. Give me a call.

BOOK & THE NEW JOB OFFICE,

MRS. GRACE, PROPRIETOR, HARNEY CITY, OREGON.

While no. yet in full operation, is doing EXCELLENT VARIETY of Job Printing daily and promptly.

This office is strictly new in every respect, book type and presses, and skillful printers await employment.

Hand in your orders