NEWSPAPER LAWS.

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter returning the paper does not answer the law when a subscription does not take its paper out of the office, and the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears of the publisher who continues to send it until payment is made and collect the same from the subscriber.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he subscribed or not, is liable for the same.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send the same, he is liable for the same, and if he takes it out of the postoffice.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to send newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or leaving them uncollected, without paying for the same, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
