

MANY years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases and have secured allowance of many patents that have been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers and all who have to do with patents.

THE DALLIES in the midst of her rejoicings finds time to urge that the good work of overcoming the obstructions to navigation in the Columbia be yet extended that all Eastern Oregon may share in the benefits accruing from the building of the portage railroad at the cascades. Wasco county feels keenly the position of her eastern neighbors, and will willingly bear an increased burden of taxation to give them relief. Another transportation route, down the Columbia, is worth more to the state than a dozen world's fair exhibits, because it will make farming profitable in Eastern Oregon, and this done the immigration will take care of itself. We hope Senator Raley's bill will pass, for while the sum seems large it is a trifle compared to the good that will result.—The Dalles Chronicle.

THE Farmers' Alliance, in its platform, demands the abolition of national banks, and that the money issued by the government be loaned directly to the people at an interest not to exceed 2 per cent per annum, and the amount of circulating to be increased to $50 per capita. That congress shall pass laws to effectually prevent dealing in future on all agricultural and mechanical production.

Also demands a free and unlimited coinage of silver. Demands the passage of laws to prohibit the alien ownership of land; and also demand the most rigid, honest and just state and national control and supervision of the means of our public communication and transportation, and if this control does not remove abuses now existing, they demand the government ownership of such means of communication and transportation.

We are in receipt of a letter from the Hon. C. S. Dustin which gives interesting information to our readers of Eastern Oregon.

A Bill passed the house, February 13th, which empowers the Willamette Valley and Coast Road to issue bonds to run for forty years, and if successful in negotiating the bonds, will resume work in the spring, on the railroad heretofore known as the O. P. road, but which we understand has changed hands and name.

It is now under the control and owned by the Willamette Valley & Cascade Mountain-Wagon Road Company, and if they succeed in establishing their title to the wagon road lands, will show the work as fast as possible, and take the route, as near as practicable, of the wagon road, so as to pass directly through their own land, thereby enhancing its value. The road is graded to the summit and finished within 12 miles of the summit.

Since the change of owners, the name of the road is the Willamette Valley & Coast R. R., instead of the O. P.

The Hon. C. S. Dustin also writes that we are likely to have a road in the near future, running through the southern part of our county. He says there is a company ready to build, if the law passes exempting new railroad companies from taxation, for five years, on condition that the roads carry all State business and freight in payment thereof. This road will start in the neighborhood of Eugene, pass through the southern part of Harney county and connect with the Oregon short line at some point not yet definitely understood.

Mr. Dustin concludes his letter thus: "Taking everything into consideration, I think there will be a general waking up of railroad building in Eastern Oregon during the next two years, and Harney county will be one of the great beneficiaries of the State in population and wealth as she is now in extent of territory and natural resources."

IF from our regular correspondents, WASHINGTON, D. C. Feb. 14, 1891. Senator Plumb does not agree with the majority of his party upon financial matters, nor upon the tariff, but when it comes to a question of Government pay, which is the keystone of the latter day republican arch, he is republican to the backbone. He has just given ample evidence of this by fathering the boldest attempt yet openly made for overriding the sanctimonious fraud known as the civil service law. He has introduced a joint resolution providing that stenographers, clerks, chiefs of divisions, copyists and computers in the Census office shall be eligible for transfer to the classified service in any of the Government departments. That means that a couple of thousands of republicans are, as they are dropped from the rolls of the census bureau, which will be gradually reduced from this time on, to be into regular departmental service without going through a civil service examination; it also means that all of the democrats now in the classified service are to be discharged to make room for those whose republicanism Mr. Porter of the Census bureau has vouched for under oath. Every one knows that the civil service law is a colossal humbug, and there would be no grief if it was repealed to-morrow, but that is no excuse for such schemes to trample under foot a law of the land as this one is.

He is a pretty thick-skinned man who cannot in these days be reached by public opinion. Representative Dingley has found it necessary to defend his silver pool investigating committee from the charge of not attempting to get all of the information possible out of the witness Owenby, who was before the committee last week. Mr. Dingley's denial is almost a reiteration of the charge. He says the committee was anxious to have Owenby testify to what he had personal knowledge of, but that it objected to his giving hearsay evidence, and yet Mr. Dingley knows very well that the speculations in silver of these two eminent republicans, Senator Cameron and Representative Taylor, of Illinois, were first brought by hearsay evidence, but perhaps that was the very reason that he objected to any more of it. He doesn't want any more republicans found out, and they are not likely to be, unless some enterprising newspaper man does it.

Mr. Blaine has scored another knock down on McKinley, Reed, and company by concluding the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty with Venezuela. True the trade of Venezuela isn't very great, but it will serve to bring out the iniquities of the McKinley tariff law, and for that reason, if for no other it is desirable.

Mr. Cleveland's letter in opposition to free coinage, published here this week, shows that his backbone is as strong as it was when he wrote the famous tariff message upon which the campaign of '88 was fought. Manliness always commands admiration, whether one agrees with its possessor or not.

It is stated that the House Coinage committee will next week report the free coinage bill, with a recommendation from the majority of the committee against any silver legislation. This recommendation, if made, will be a bit of sharp parliamentary practice, as it will prevent the bill being passed on the calendar, and make it necessary to obtain the consent of a majority of that committee before it can be called up. In fact it will be equivalent to smothering the bill in committee, which was the first program of the republicans.

Secretary Tracy received a sharp dressing from members of his own party in the House this week for the manner in which he recommended Commander Reiter for his conduct in connection with the killing of Gen. Barrundia.

The Sioux Indians, having testified to the Pension office are constantly being tacitly acknowledged by the authorities by making changes in those methods. If it had not been for the exposures made by such papers as the New York Herald these changes would never have been made. It is the fearless press of the country that always looks out for the real interests of the people.

The following story—which is attracting wide attention from the press—is so remarkable that we cannot excuse ourselves if we do not lay it before our readers, entire.

To the Editor Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat:—

It was the first day of June, 1881, I lay at my residence in this city surrounded by my friends and waiting for death. Heaven only knows the agony I then endured, for words can never describe it, and yet a few years previous any one had told me that I was to be brought low, and by so terrible a disease, I should have soiled at the idea. I had always been uncommonly strong and healthy, and weighed over 230 pounds and hardly knew, in my own experience, what pain or sickness were. Very many people who will read this statement realize at times that they are unusually strong and cannot account for it. They feel dull pains in various parts of the body and do not understand why. Or they are exceedingly hungry one day and entirely without appetite the next. This was just the way I felt when the relentless malady which had fastened itself upon me first began. Still I thought nothing of it; this, probably I had taken a cold which would soon pass away, and when I noticed a heavy, and at times neuralgic, pain in one side of my head, but as it would come one day and be gone the next, I paid little attention to it. Then my stomach would get out of order and my food often failed to digest, causing at times great inconvenience. Yet, even as a physician, I did not realize the danger, and I feared to consult any one. I found myself suffering from malaria and doctored myself accordingly. But I got no better. I then noticed a peculiar color and odor about the fluids in my system, and there were large quantities of mucus, and very little the next, and that a persistent froth and scum appeared on the surface, and a sediment settled. And yet I did not realize the danger, for, indeed, seeing these symptoms continually, I finally became accustomed to them, and my suspicion was wholly disarmed by the fact that I had no pain in the affected organs in their vicinity. Why I should have been so blind I cannot understand.

I consulted the best medical skill in the land. I visited all the famed mineral springs in America and traveled from Maine to California. Still I grew worse. No two physicians agreed as to my malady. One said I was troubled with spinal irritation; another, dyspepsia; another, heart disease; another, general debility; another, congestion of the base of the brain; and so on through a long list of common diseases, the symptoms of many of which I really had. In this way several years passed, during which time I was steadily growing worse. My condition had really become pitiable. The slight symptoms I had at first experienced were developed into terrible and constant disorders. My weight had been reduced from 230 to 130 pounds. My life was a burden to myself and friends. I could retain no food on my stomach, and lived wholly by medicine. I was a living mass of pain. My pulse was uncontrollable. In my agony I frequently fell to the floor and clutched the carpet, and prayed for death. Morphine had little or no effect in lessening the pain. For six days and nights I had the death-prenunciations heaped constantly. My water was filled with tube-casts and albumen. I was struggling with Bright's Disease of the kidneys in its latest stages.

While suffering thus, I received a call from my pastor, the Rev. Dr. Foote, at that time rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of this city. I felt that it was our last interview, but in the course of conversation Dr. Foote detailed to me the many remarkable cures of cases like my own which had come under his observation. As a practicing physician, and a graduate of the schools, I derided the idea of any medicine outside the regular channels being in the least beneficial. So, so, however, was Dr. Foote, that I finally promised I would waive my prejudice. I began its use on the first day of June, 1881, and took it according to directions. At first it sickened me; but this I thought was a good sign for one in my debilitated condition. I continued to take it; the sickening sensation departed and I was finally able to retain food upon my stomach. In a few days I noticed a decided change for the better, and also did my wife and friends. My licentious career and I experienced less pain than formerly. I was so rejoiced at this improved condition that, upon what I had believed but a few days before was my dying bed, I vowed, in the presence of my family and friends, should I recover, I would both publicly and privately make known this remedy for the good of humanity, wherever and whenever I had an opportunity, and this letter is in fulfillment of that vow. My improvement was constant from that time, and in less than three months I had gained twenty pounds in weight, became entirely free from pain and I believe I owe my life and present condition wholly to Warner's Safe Cure, the remedy which I used.

Since my recovery I have thoroughly re-investigated the subject of kidney difficulties and Bright's disease, and the truths developed are astounding. I therefore state, deliberately, and as a physician, that believe me, dear Sir, half the deaths which occur in America are caused by Bright's disease of the kidneys. This may sound like a rash statement, but I am prepared to fully verify it. Bright's disease has no distinctive features of its own, (indeed, it often develops without any pain whatever in the kidneys or their vicinity, but has the symptoms of nearly every other disease complaint. Hundreds of people die daily, whose burials are authorized by a physician's certificate as occurring from "Heart Disease," "Apoplexy," "Paralysis," "Spinal Complaint," "Diphtheria," "Pneumonia," and other common complaints; when in reality it is from Bright's disease of the kidneys. Few physicians, and fewer people, realize the extent of this disease, and its dangerous and insidious nature. It steals into the system like a thief, manifests its presence if at all by the commonest symptoms and fastens itself in the constitution, before the victim is aware of it. It is nearly as hereditary as consumption, quite as common and fully as fatal. Entire families, inheriting it from their ancestors, have died, and yet none of the number knew of its existence. Its mysterious power which was removing them. Instead of common symptoms it often shows some whatever, but being death suddenly, from consumption, apoplexy, or heart disease. As one who has suffered, and knows by bitter experience what he says, I implore everyone who reads these words not to neglect the slightest symptoms of kidney difficulty. "No one can afford to hazard such chances."

I make the foregoing statements based upon facts which I can substantiate to the letter. The welfare of those who may possibly be sufferers such as I was, is an ample inducement for me to take the step I have, and if I can successfully warn others from the dangerous path in which I once walked, I am willing to ensure any professional and personal consequences.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering through the mucous surface. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and it acts directly upon the blood mucous surface of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.
