

It is to be hoped that our city "dads" will now take warning, since the fire Sunday has given them positive proof that Burns is not guarded and protected by direct interposition of an over-ruling providence, and make some provision for protection.

"CHEAPNESS is un-American," says one of our national statesmen. The observation is not a mere casual, accidental remark. On the contrary, it is the natural expression of the policy to which the school of politics that the speaker belongs to is devoted. It is the shibboleth of McKinleyism.

THE Supreme court has decided, in the contested case of J. M. Thayer and James E. Boyd, Thayer claiming Boyd was not a citizen of the United States, therefore not eligible to hold office, that Boyd is not a citizen. Immediately after the decision, Thayer repaired to the east room of the Supreme court, and re-qualified, as Governor of the State of Nebraska.

IF the professor, whose mathematical calculation brings another Christ on earth between now and the year 1900, is correct in his figures some of us at least who are now inhabitants of this globe will live to see him. His explanation doesn't extend far enough to inform the public if it will be the birth of a Savior, or his miracles that will first attract the attention of the people and establish his identity.

MANY years practice has given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that have been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers and all who have to do with patents.

A GREAT many people will sympathize with Governor Pennoyer for having received such dastardly treatment at the hands of alleged newspapers. They have magnified every minutest opportunity and apparently worked in concert to present the governor in as unfavorable a light as possible. All this has been done to belittle and destroy the political influence of Governor Pennoyer. But the people know these newspapers, and in making up their minds as to who is their truer and better friend, the final estimate will not be to increase the influence of such journalism. It is contemptible in method, to say the least. It is warfare conduct on the plan of destroying and dragging down the man with whom you differ, even though you traduce your own country in so doing.

It is the villainous and cut-throat phase of politics. It is the deliberate, underhanded misrepresentations that assassinate reputations and pull down public men, by seeking to humiliate and degrade them in the public prints. But it will not hurt Pennoyer. It will read in his favor.—Salem Journal.

HERALD'S WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 15 1891. There is a vast accumulation of matters requiring attention from the State Department just now and Secretary Blaine will probably be a very busy man during the summer. The recent events in the Chilian situation have added to the complexity of affairs and there is now a long docket of unsolved diplomatic problems, as follows: The Italian row, the Behring Sea complication, the Canadian reciprocity scheme, the Newfoundland fisheries business, the Chilian muddle, the Spanish agreement, the Venezuelan treaty, the Haytian grant of a coaling station, the refusal of China to take our minister, the trouble over the failure of a consul at Victoria to toast the queen, and quite a number of minor matters, including the claim of the Barrundia family.

The grand jury reached the same conclusion concerning the New Orleans affair that has already been expressed by fair-minded men throughout the civilized world. Society will protect itself when the ordinary machinery of its protection fails. Under such circumstances it is unexampled to indict an entire population, for the affair had the countenance and support of society. The report of the jury may be considered as the final answer to the demands of Italy. It is difficult to see what the United States Government has now to do with the matter but to accept the results of the inquisition of the grand jury under the laws of Louisiana, and with that result it is probable that the government of Italy will have to be content. Only one of the victims is known to have been a subject of Italy, and he was an escaped convict. If Italy demands an indemnity for the life of this convict it will be for Congress to decide whether it shall be paid.

The New York Tribune says: "If the republicans of New York choose, they can carry the fall elections this year." There has never been an election since the republicans ran Fremont and Donaldson on the national ticket, when they did not choose to carry the election, but somehow, and the Tribune may discover the same by refreshing its memory, the choosing has not always been the accomplishing. "Chose" is not quite the word the Tribune wants to use in this connection.

A statement prepared at the Pension Office shows that during the month of April last there were issued 31,545 pension certificates of all classes, the first payments on which aggregated $3,874,815. Of the total number of certificates issued, 11,167 were under the general law, and 20,378 under the Act of June 27th, 1890.

The Bureau of statistics of the Treasury Department has issued a statement of exports and imports for nine months ended March 31 last, which shows the exports of merchandise to be $667,750,229. The exports of gold and silver coin and bullion for the same period foot up $44,027,500, and the imports $32,532,627. Excess over import $11,494,872. Deducting this sum from the excess of exports of merchandise leaves the balance of trade in favor of the United States for the nine months at $68,255,516

Weak Women

Owe to themselves a duty to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. In view of the great relief it has given those who suffer from ailments peculiar to the sex. By purifying the blood, regulating important organs, strengthening the nerves, and toning the whole system, it restores the debilitated to health.

After 15 Years. "For 15 years my mother has been troubled with milk leg. She went to different parts of California, as persons said the climate in that help her, but it was of no avail, and I, being a druggist, thought I would get her to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. She had taken half a bottle, and said she was improving, so she continued until she took half a dozen bottles, and now she is perfectly well. For nearly fifteen years she was unable to walk around, but now she can walk as well as ever." T. F. BLAKE, San Francisco, with C. F. Richards & Co. Wholesale Druggists.

Like a New Creature. "I have been for years trying to get help for that terrible general debility and weakness so common to women. Within a year I have taken ten or twelve bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I am now feeling like a new creature." Mrs. F. B. Ross, Marilla, Texas.
