Will Burns celebrate? Wheat at N. Brown's $1. Sheep shearing is progressing. Work done to order at the office. Foster gave us a pleasant day this week. My favorite dog passed in "rips" Thursday night, but at his $20. Now is an excellent time to subscribe for the HERALD, we will give you a copy gratis. Our subscribers can have their and horse brands published HERALD gratis. Gowan, clerk in the land returned last Saturday, from a business nature to his old...

F. Stenger is back from his the Sound. We are not in of his success with his drove. Parties in town, owing back to the HERALD, please settle. We need the money. You and Dustin met with an accident, Wednesday night, a board in the walk gave way with him, and he sprained an ankle very badly.

The most popular shapes in the season are the spider, and bouquet. Mrs. E. S. is expecting a full stock of goods, next week. Several persons, living in Burns, are interested in finishing work on our cemetery here, and get their work completed and get their money for the sale of the lots.

John Roberts, former editor of the Harney Press, was brought before Judge Clifford, yesterday, and censured, for an article he had reflecting on the Judge's...

Mrs. Mackman is prepared to wash, ironing and house work at low rates, and being a mother with a family of small children to support, she should receive the patronage of the town.

L. Asbury of the Grant News, was indicted by the jury the last term of Grant circuit court, for libel. Our opinion is that Bro. Asbury is not much troubled over the matter.

The Oratorical Contest, given Wednesday, was a very enjoyable affair. Miss Gracie Canfield, M. Fitzgerald, receiving the largest number of votes, were each awarded with a handsome watch.

Stockmen can now get honest prices by shipping stock to Huntington. The O. C. Co. have just completed one of Fairbanks Scales, and arranged a large lot for the purpose. Certified to be given. 4-24.

The preliminary examination of K. Long, for the murder of the evidence was considered sufficient to hold him to answer at the Superior court for trial. Evidence given at the examination by no means conclusive as to the guilt of Long.

Court adjourned last night. No sickness that we know of in Burns at this time. The dance last night was enjoyed by every one present.

A. Robbins will soon begin work on his new store building. Crickets are doing great damage on the Warm Spring reservation.

Oh! What a fine shampoo you can get at Wm. Mynatt's barber shop.

The late rains in Harney county almost insure good crops of barley, wheat and oats.

The sugar beet raised in this county, when analyzed, was found to contain 17 per cent of sugar.

There will be a daily evening Guard, issued from the Guard office in Eugene, beginning June first.

There is big howl made in our town because of the taxes and license imposed by our town council.

Mrs. Gage, mother of Mrs. C. A. Sweek and Gage Sisters, came in Thursday on the Ontario stage.

Providence has not deserted this part of his moral Vineyard yet. We are having some nice showers of rain.

Bozy lost his dog, but he still has a fine assortment of wet goods. Call and console him for the loss of his dog.

Call and subscribe for the HERALD and give us your horse and cattle brand, which we publish for nothing.

Burns deserves credit for the quiet and orderly conduct of every one present during this term of circuit court.

The question of the permanent county seat of Harney county will be decided sixty days from yesterday at Baker City.

John Robinson, the barber, isn't certain which one of the boys he is, but call in and see him when you want a shave.

E. H. Kallenbauch, the man, who attempted suicide last Monday, will recover. He has repented his rash act, and feels sorry that he made such a fool of himself.

Frank Lewis has made several improvements in his saloon building for the convenience of bar tenders and comfort of patrons. His saloon is in the ascendancy.

Thos. H. Roberts, county treasurer, was given, by order of Judge Clifford, until first day of the next regular term of our county court to move his office from Harney to Burns.

Contemplated Arctic Explorations.

The unquenchable spirit of Arctic quest, is again awakened, and the dawn of another era of activity in polar explorations seems at hand.

Four expeditions are preparing to start to the Arctic regions in the next twelve months.

Barron Nordenskjold will lead an expedition to the South Pole. Dr. Nansen the Norwegian scientist, who accomplished the first crossing of Greenland three years ago, is having a vessel built, in which he proposes to follow the Jeannette's course and hurl himself into the pack north and west, of Wrangel Island, with the expectation that he will be drifted over the pole and into Spitzbergen or Greenland waters.

Lieutenant Ryder starts this month to east Greenland to explore the ice-packed section of coast fronting Iceland, and connect the discoveries of Graah and Holm in the south with those of Scoresby and Clavering in the north.

Lieutenant Robert E. Peary of the U. S. Navy, will start about the first of June, under the auspices of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia, to north Greenland, to attempt the location of the northern terminus of that country.

CALLED AND CHALLENGED.

Christian—"Well Judge, I'll bet you $400—"

Judge—"I'll take that bet!" and reaching into his pocket pulled out a lot of old papers which the Christian mistook for greenbacks.

"No, no, no!" excitedly exclaimed the Christian. "I never bet."

"And besides," said the Judge, "I'll fight you the rub if you will step out behind the office."

That proposition was respectfully declined by the Christian, and so ended the controversy which might have culminated in a first class "Melee."

To Dispel Colds,

Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish to permanently cure habitual constipation to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.
