Sixty three head of mares and geldens belonging to Stephens Bros were sold at sheriff sale last Tues- day. The average price was $24 a head. One Clydesdale Stallion ough by Judge Miller sold for $280. We hear through a reliable source that several young students being anxious to pass an examina- tion for a teachers certificate, and fearing the results before the County Examining Board, one of the board being their teacher, she also feared the result of an examination of her pupils, and she induced the County Super-intendent to give her a list of questions, and exam- ined the candidates herself, and gave some half dozen Permits to teach school in the county, and also has procured schools for them. Our advice to the young teachers would be, if they expect to get paid for their services, to go before the Ex- amining Board and procure a per- mit or certificate in the regular and proper manner.

Mrs. J. M. Parker met with an accident coming to town in a cart yesterday, the horse became fright- ened at a little boy jumping into the cart suddenly, and ran away. Mrs. Parker was thrown from the cart but fortunately only received a few bruises, from which we hope she will speedily recover.
