Local News.

—Good wheat at N. Brown's $1 per bushel.

—Notice the change in W. N. Jorgensen's ad.

—Isaac Foster made a hurried visit to our town this week.

—We are indebted to Charles Zeigler for some very fine lettuce.

—Neri Aekles, division agent of the N. M. and T. Co., is in Burns.

—Scroll and black Vignette pictures taken at Canaday's Photo. gallery.

—Hank Levens will start to California with a band of horses in a few days.

—No news, yet, from the court of Judge Shattuck, on the county seat question.

—An excellent quality of machine oil at Cal. Geer's Hardware store for $1 a gallon.

—A hay crop to be cut and put up on the shares: Call at the HERALD office for particulars.

—Willie Gass, as a bronco buster, is a decided success (?). Willie did you look for a soft place?

—Tex's resort, Frank Lewis sole dispenser of cocktails and fine cigars is in it and don't you forget it.

—James Newcomen called at the HERALD office this morning, and renewed his subscription.

—The Saloon of which Bozy is proprietor and "big Jim" behind the bar, is the place to get the boss drink or cigar.

—Mrs. L. A. Copshal took advantage of the HERALD's low club rates and subscribed for several papers and periodicals.

—The family of W. W. Johnson and P. F. Stenger, left town Monday morning, for the mountains to rusticate a few days.

—The State farmers' alliance, at Portland, July 9th, elected Nathan Pierce, an extensive farmer of Umatilla county, president.

—Persons indebted to Martin Byerly for meat, are requested to come and settle up immediately. No "josh" about this, he means it.

—Have you seen those lovely trimmed hats at the Millinery Store? Not yet; but intend to get one as soon as possible, before they are all sold.

—Every thing in the hardware line, received at Geer's last week. Granite ware, Machine oil, Mechanics tools, Mowing machines, all kinds of harvesting tools, cheaper than dirt, for cash.

—Stockmen can now get honest weights by shipping or selling stock at Huntington. The O. C. Co. having just completed one of Fairbanks Stock Scales, and arranged a large corral for the purpose. Certified weights given. 4-24.

—The sun is now setting. Alas! the son of glory has set forever. No—the name of Washington—the American President and General—will triumph over death! The unclouded brightness of his glory will illuminate future ages.—Ulster Co Gazette. Dec. 22 1799.

—Mrs. Harkness residing about 15 miles south of Burns, met with a painful accident, a few days since. She was riding a very gentle horse and carrying a baby. The horse shied and the lady not expecting anything of the kind, they were thrown off. Mrs. Harkness had an arm broken, the child was not hurt.

—We acknowledge our obligation to Samuel King for the loan of a newspaper, which we presume is a family heirloom. It is about one hundred years since it came from the press. The name of the paper is the Ulster County Gazette published in the aforesaid county and state of N. Y. It is a copy containing an account of the death and burial of George Washington.

—The Harney Jocky Club decided to hang up one purse for a trotting race

—Mrs. Mary Caldwell expects to spend the fall and winter visiting friends in Washington and western Oregon.

—New Stock of Glass, Putty, Paints, Oils, Brushes, etc., at Geer's. No charge for cutting glass if you buy of me. J-1

—Mrs. David Moomaw, of Baker City, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hembree on Poison creek and other relatives and friends in Burns and vicinity.

—Bob Reed has moved himself again, this time into the new residence lately erected by Wm. Gass. Bob's awfully lazy, but he gets a move on him sometimes.

—George Washington died at Mt. Vernon on Wednesday Dec. 14 1799. Age 68, and was laid to rest in the family vault on the banks of the Potomac.—Ulster County Gazette. Dec. 22d 1799.

—The Harney Jockey Club met a few days ago, and elected new officers and prepared a program for the fall races. The officers elected were: President Jno. E. Roberts; Vice-President J. C. Buckland and Ira Boyce; Secretary John E. Logan; Treasurer Louis Woldenberg.

—The fencing of the Burns cemetery will be finished in a few days, and the association hopes the good people of Burns and vicinity will lose no time in buying lots, for which each purchaser will get a deed. The association desires to pay off the indebtedness as speedily as possible.

—The committee on program of the Harney Jocky Club did, we think, a wise act in offering a purse for a trotting race. That is something all should be interested in, our races should not be as heretofore, confined entirely to fast horses, let us have something more like an annual fair, saddle horses, fine driving horses, buggy horses single and double, draft horses and also offer a premium for fine stallions.

—The first number of the Harney Times published at Harney by the Harney Publishing Co., came to our office this week. The Times takes the place of the Press, that was, but is now defunct. It assumes all the unexpired subscriptions and contracts for advertising not filled by the Press. We certainly, as a neighbor, heartily welcome the Times and wish it success.

—The following sheriff's notice of sale appears in the Ulster County Gazette of Dec. 22d 1799: "By virtue of several executions delivered to me, I have levied and taken the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Jonathan Pfeiffer, which I shall expose to sale as the law directs, on Monday the 17th day of February, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the house of said Pfeiffer in the town of New Paltz."

PETER TEN BROECK, Sheriff.

Strayed.

From Burns, on or about the 20th of May, on dark bay horse, branded on left shoulder, weight 1,400, shod with team shoes, right hind ankle crooks out, 16 hands high, 8 or 9 years old and very gentle. Any one giving information of whereabouts will be liberally rewarded. M. N. FEGTLEY, Burns, Ore.

The Dominion Illustrated.

The demand for the issue of The Dominion Illustrated for June 20th, devoted to a splendidly illustrated account of the funeral of the late Sir John Macdonald, far exceeded the supply, though a very large edition was issued. The work of this number was most artistically done, and reflects the highest credit on the enterprise of the publishers. The Dominion Illustrated is a journal that deserves a wide and generous support from the people of Canada. It is the only high class illustrated journal published in the Dominion.

—Henry Caldwell has rented Mart Brenton's interest in the White Front Livery Stable. Mart thinks of going to California.
