

THE Sherman-Foraker harmony in Ohio, is such that the innocent bystanders had better edge off out of range.

THE Prince of Wales, whose royal nephew, emperor William of Germany, is now visiting him, will probably initiate the Kaiser into the mysteries of baccarat before he returns to Germany, that is, if Mama Vic. has not prohibited it.

EVERY man who puts a tin roof on his house is given a practical demonstration of the beauties of republican legislation, by having to pay a $1 a box more for his roofing tin than was charged before the tin schedule of the McKinley bill went into effect. Ask your tinner if this isn't straight.

MANY years practice has given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that have been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers and all who have to do with patents.

THERE are a great many more reasons for blaming the republican party for the misery of the farmers of the country for several years past than there are for thanking it for the exceptionally good crops of the present year. The tariff legislation of the republican party was directly responsible for the bad condition of the farmers, which the good crops that a kind and discriminating Providence has now given them will only partially alleviate. Of course every intelligent farmer knows these things as well as we do but the republican claim of credit for the good crops causes us to print it.

THE latest Democratic Presidential boom, to be set afloat, is for McPherson, the New Jersey Senator. Senator McPherson is a power in New Jersey, and will probably be a able to control the State delegation to the democratic national convention if he wishes, for either Cleveland or himself. His friends believe that if nominated he will prove a strong candidate at the polls. He is one of the few democrats, in the last senate, who voted steadily against free coinage and the republican silver bill. He was also one of the most active in fighting the high schedules of the McKinley bill, even where they were framed for the benefit of the manufacturers in his own State. It has often been said that if Mr. Cleveland were elected again, Senator McPherson would be his Secretary of Treasury, if Ex-Secretary Fairchild was unwilling to return again to official life. It is thought by democrats, that the nomination of McPherson for President would be quite satisfactory to the business sentiment of New York and New Jersey, for his position in favor of sound finance and intelligent reform has been more clearly set forth than ever that of Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania, or Governor Campbell, of Ohio.

HERALD'S WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 17, 1891

"I was not for Campbell first," said a member of the democratic National Committee. "but recently, after looking over the field, I became convinced that Campbell's hold no the farmers of the state made him the most available man, that is to say the one could, under the peculiar circumstances surrounding the Ohio campaign this year, pole the most votes, and now that he has been nominated I trust that every democrat in Ohio will recognize the national importance of the election in that state and lay aside all personal objection to the candidate and work as hard as he knows how for the success of the democratic party. The adoption of the free coinage plank in the platform leaves the Farmers Alliance no excuse for putting a third ticket in the field, and if they vote as they have talked, Campbell should receive their support. Of course I cannot say that he will; but anyway I am confident that we can elect Campbell and the legislature, if all of the democrats of the state can be persuaded to actively assist."

Secretary Proctor is on one of his periodical visits to the War department, over which he is supposed to preside. It is not known how long he will remain, but it is safe to say that he will only be here for a few days, as it is probable that he has any intention of breaking his record by remaining any extended period.

Representative Crisp, of Georgia, whose chances of being the next Speaker of the House have taken such a decided upward spurt recently, is in town this week. He talks confidently but not boastfully of his Speakership prospects, and has nothing but good words for his competitors in what he calls "the friendly competition." He says that whether he or one of the other candidates gets the prize, there will be no soreness or hard feelings, as every one of them will cheerfully accept the decree of the caucus as final.

Secretary Rusk is to attend the annual encampment of the G. A. R. at Detroit next month, and he is expected to help fix up things for Mr. Harrison with the old soldiers.

The count of cash in the Treasury was completed this week, and some foolish republicans are disposed to shout because the total reaches more than 600,000,000 forgetting that there are liabilities outstanding against this amount in the shape of gold certificates, silver certificates, silver Treasury notes and United States notes (greenbacks) amounting to $813,746,984, which puts a very different face on the matter.

A Childless Home.

Smith and his wife have every luxury that money can buy, but there is one thing lacking to their happiness. Both are fond of children, but no little voices prattle, no little feet patter in their beautiful home. "I would give ten years of my life if I could have one healthy, living child of my own," Smith often says to himself. No woman can be the mother of healthy offspring unless she is herself in good health. If she suffers from femal weakness, general debility, bearing-down pains, and functional derangements her physical condition is such that she cannot hope to have healthy children. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sovereign and guaranteed remedy for all these ailments. See guarantee printed on bottle-wrapper.

Malaria

is believed to be caused by poisonous miasms arising from low, marshy land or from decaying vegetable matter, and which, breathed into the lungs, enter and poison the blood. If a healthy condition of the blood is maintained by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, one is much less liable to malaria, and Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many severe cases of this distressing affection.

A Wonderful Medicine.

"For malaria I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. It has kept my children well right through the summer, and we live in one of the worst places for malaria in Maryland. I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for that all gone feeling, with great benefit." Mrs. R. F. DAVIS, Marysville, Cal.

Break-Bone Fever.

"My daughter Pearl was taken with dengue (or break-bone) fever 2 years ago, and my friends thought I would lose her. I had almost given up hope until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took four bottles in four months, and gained 15 pounds. I thank Hood's Sarsaparilla for giving her back to me restored to health and strength." JULIA A. KING, Sherman, Texas.
