YOU WANT

a San Francisco paper and of course you want a good one. The WEEKLY EXAMINER fills the want completely, for it is the best. It gives you every week not only all the news, but the best literary and miscellaneous matter published on the American continent—that is its specialty; being the best. It wants your subscription-yours particularly-and offers not only to you, but to every other subscriber, one or more attractive premiums.

In the first place, it gives every subscriber, one of the four magnificent etchings or paintings described below, and delivers it safely at his address, postage paid.

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Meissonier, "The Roman Chariot Race," by A. Wagner.

Each of these pictures is 21x28 inches, and they are elegantly reproduced in fac simile, showing every tint and color of the great originals, either one of which could not be purchased for $100,000.

"Women and Children First," by C. Napier Hemy, "Christ Leaving the Prætorium," by Gustave Doré. Each of these rictures is reproduced in photogravure, size 21x28, and eminently fitted for framing, and will adorn the walls of the most refined house. Each subscriper has the choice of any one of these four pictures, which will be mailed him in a tube direct from the Examiner office, as soon as the subscription is received.

In the second place, it will give 5,000 premiums, valued in the aggregate at about $125,000 to its subscribers this year. If there are 50,000 subscribers, one in ten will get one of these premiums; if there are 100,000, only one in twenty But no matter how many there are each and every one of these premiums-which range in value from 50 cents to $6,000-will be given absolutely without cost to some of those who have paid $1.50 for the WEEKLY EXAMINER for one year The EXAMINER is thoroughly responsible, as you know, or as Wells Fargo & Co. or any bank or commercial agency in San Francisco will assure you, and the leading men of the city will see that its premiums are distributed exactly as agreed and that every subscriber no matter where he is located, will receive just what is assigned to him.

Of course you want your home paper also, and you can just as well as not save a little money by taking the EXAMINER with it The price of the WEEKLY EXAMINER is $1.50 per year, includ ing the premium picture and your share of the $125,000 list of premiums, which are fully described in the twelve page Premium Supplement, which will be sent free on application to

W. R. HEARST Publisher, San Randon Cal The EXAMINER and the HERALD, the combined price of which is $4, will be sent you for one year, postage paid. for $3.20. You can get a Permium Supplement by applying at this office.
