J. W. ASHFORD, M. D. We are informed the L. F. Company are preparing the necessary machinery for artesian well boring and will in a short time try for artesian water in Harney valley.

Every thing in the hardware line, received at Geer's last week. Granite ware, Machine oil, Mechanical tools, Mowing machines, all kinds of harvesting tools, cheaper than dirt, for cash.

We understand that D. L. Grace has the appointment of deputy county treasurer, persons living in Burns and vicinity wishing to register county warrants can do so at his residence in Burns.

Stockmen can now get honest weights by shipping or selling stock at Huntington. The O. C. Co. having just completed one of Fairbanks Stock Scales, and arranged a large order for the purpose. Certified weights given. 4-24.

The last stage from diamond valley, left at this office, specimens of grain to be given Dr. Embree to take to the state fair. Upon the bundles we find the following labels: C. D. Richardson, wheat and barley; William Helmick, canary seed and wheat; A. T. Clark, wheat, oats, barley and rye-grass.

It is our privilege and duty to advise every one to deal with home merchants. But there are persons who every fall buy some of their groceries as well as other family necessities, at the railroad. To them we say buy of the O. C. Company at Huntington. For the past year we have solicited ranchers, who buy their goods, partly, at the railroad to deal with that company, and we take pleasure in announcing to the public that we have not heard a single complaint from any individual, therefore we can safely recommend the firm to the public.

In spite of the many frosts and cold backward spring, Harney county will have an abundance of grain and vegetables.

A man of positive convictions is not necessarily intolerant and bigoted. Over zeal is as much to be depreciated as under zeal, but the man who would not fight for his opinions, if need be, as a rule has not got any and ought not to have any.

Notice on first page the offer made by the Weekly S. F. Examiner. The Examiner every one knows to be first class. We offer that paper with the HERALD at $3.20 a year. Now is your time to subscribe for the HERALD and Examiner. Every family should take their county paper, you wouldn't like to be without county papers, then encourage us by taking it, it is not much and if we were to shut up shop, and quit, there would be a general kick and howl for county papers. Now we ask of the citizens of our county to be reasonable, to be just, lend us a helping hand by subscribing for your county papers.

A Bloody Riot.

At Lockmore La., a free-for-all fight between the "Red bones" and "Whites" in which fourteen men were killed and two missing. Latest reports place the number of wounded at sixteen. Another account of the riot comes from Westlake, La., to the effect that the trouble was caused by the breaking out of an old feud between a band of robbers known as the "Asworth" gang and the cattlemen of that section.

Campbell and McKinley.

Kate Fields says Governor Campbell has a wonderful influence over men. In speaking of his address to the convicts in the penitentiary she says:

"What he said was not remarkable, but it was better—it was kindly it was humane. There was a sympathetic timbre in his voice which fell gratefully on ears little used to music of any form; and produced its effect on a class of men quick to discern counterfeit coin." "Governor Campbell will always be a political success," she continues, "for the man who thus impresses these implacable critics, convicts, will gain his ends with voters."

Hear what Chairman Norton has to say of his friend McKinley.

"He is my friend; I would to God that his law were as good and harmless and gentle and kind as he. McKinley may be as the dove or even as the bird of paradise, but his law is as the hawk, the vulture and the coyote. They say McKinley is an honest man. I grant that he is, and all honor to him for being so; but his measure is a burgler without heart and without mercy, who robs alike the helpless child, the strong man and the defenseless woman.

Board of Trade.

All persons feeling an interest in the growth and welfare of the county, are invited to attend at the church, in Burns, August 29, 1891, and if possible, organize a Board of Trade, and devise ways and means of properly advertising the resources and opportunities of the county. Every other county in the state is attracting the attention of home seekers from abroad, and none more advantageously situated than Harney county. We have more arable lands awaiting settlement than any other county in Eastern Oregon; but who knows it outside of the comparative few now located here? It looks like selfishness on the part of those here, to remain silent and inactive longer. Let the world know of the wonderful range and farm lands of this county, 10600 square miles of territory monopolized by 2500 men women and children all told. Let us organize and advertise.

A Reporter at a Meeting of the Town Council.

Reporter—"Good evening gentlemen." Town C.—"Good evening sir. Can we do anything for you this evening?"

"I don't know that you can. I hope my coming in will not disturb the proceedings of the meeting, or be considered intrusive; my object is to notice the workings of the council, and to have a quiet chat provided its agreeable."

"Agreeable did you say? Oh yes! fire right in! we would much rather talk than bother with business."

"Well, to begin, why is it that before the town was a body corporate saloon men were compelled by law, to get up petitions for license, and those petitions to be signed by a majority of the voters in the precinct, it was also necessary to publish the petition so many issues in a county paper. Saloon men never objected to the publication of their petitions for license. Such being the case, why was it deemed expedient by this board to make a change? Duties, made obligatory by law, with which saloon men seemed willing to comply, ignored by this board for what reason? Was it considered by you that saloon men were imposed upon, and that your town papers were doing nothing for your town, and in consideration of the great benefits being derived from the saloons, you would directly favor them and thereby teach your papers a lesson by not making it obligatory on the saloons to publish their license and cheating the papers out of the "little old twelve or fifteen dollars" paid for publication?

That is about the size of it, as newspaper men think, because you haven't thrown a dollar in their way, not even by publishing your town laws or ordinances, so that people might read what you are doing for your town and—"

"Well, well! will you stop one moment?"

"Oh yes, I can stop two, if it is what you desire."

"Well you see, you see—"

"Yes I don't see."

"Well you see, we, well we, don't you know we hadn't come to that."

"Oh, you mean you hadn't tho't of that; or hadn't been looking at it in that light."

"Yes, yes; that's it."

"Now, while we are talking, allow me to inquire what have you done in the direction of protecting the town from the ravages of fire? What street improvements have you brought about? Or simply allow me to put the question plainly how much money have you expended on the town?"

A Councilman—"Mr. Mayor I believe it is always in order to move to adjourn. I make a motion we adjourn."

The motion carried.
