

If legislation is to be effecting enacted the debtor class it strikes us that it would be better to curtail the number if such a thing is possible, than to offer special inducements for everybody to join that class.

THE day of little men is coming. In case a Legislature is chosen hostile to himself, Sherman will hand over his Senatorial mantle to Foster if he can.

MANY years practice has given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions.

Washington is to have another big convention and one which is something beyond the pale of the ordinary. The nation's Capital has become a favorite place for scientific gatherings and assemblies.

WHEN a Vermont Republican like Col. Veazey advises that it would be better for all concerned if colored soldiers at the South had separate organizations as members of the Grand Army, the Chandler, the Hoars and the Lodges may well abandon their attempt to put "the bottom rail on top" in the civil government of that section.

THE International Florists Association has decided to hold its next annual session at Washington and has honored W. R. Smith, superintendent of the Botanical Garden, with the association presidency during the ensuing year.

FRED Douglass now knows how deep the love which this administration professes for the negro is. He was sent as Minister to Hayti to get rid of him, and he has been kicked out of office for precisely the same reason.

THE story that Mr Harrison will voluntarily withdraw from the contest for the Presidential nomination of his party is too silly even for the annual silly season which is now upon us, and did not need Mr. Harrison's denial.

A FIGHT FOR LIFE.

SHALL WE DRIVE SLOW POISON FROM OUR BREAKFAST TABLE?

Alum and Ammonia in our Bread. A nuisance that troubled England fifty years ago is now rapidly spreading in this country, that is putting Alum in the bread we eat. This question is causing a great deal of discussion at the present moment, as it is revealed that alum is being used as a substitute for cream of tartar in baking powders.

Following is a list compiled by the Scientific American, of the alum and ammonia baking powders that have already been tested. Atlantic and Pacific: Royal, Cook's Favorite, Scioto, Crown, Silver Spoon, Crystal, Silver Star, Daisy, Snow-drift, Davis' O. K., Sovereign, Dry Yeast, Star, Gem, State, Globe, Standard, Kenton, Sunflower, Pearson's, Washington, Perfection, Windsor, Peerless, Zipp's Grape, Purity and Crystal.

There are, in addition to the foregoing list from the Scientific American, a number of such powders sold in the western that were not found in the eastern stores.
