

Mr. Harrison has once more humbly bowed down to the will of a State boss, and what made it all the more humiliating was that he had virtually snubbed the same boss in the early days of his administration, by ignoring all of his suggestions in the making of important appointments, but that was before Mr. Harrison was attacked with the second term night mare, which has made him truckle to men, such as Senator Quay, for whom he must naturally feel the utmost contempt. The boss who has won the latest victory is Mr. M. H. DeYoung, of California who demanded a place in the Cabinet for his friend, Mr. M. M. Estee, as the price of the California delegation to the republican National convention next year. His demand was granted and Mr. Estee was promised a place in the Cabinet when the grand shake up, which is to put Secretary Proctor in the Senate and Attorney General Miller on the bench, takes place. It is believed that Mr. DeYoung also insisted upon naming the successor to the late Mr. Swift, who was appointed minister to Japan against the wishes of Mr. Estee and of boss DeYoung, but it is not certain that he succeeded.

Mr. Wainmaker has summoned the District Superintendents of the Railway Mail Service to meet in Washington some time about the first of this month in order that they may have a chance to answer the numerous complaints which have been made against the service and to devise some way of bettering the same, and he will not forget to give each of them confidential instructions before they leave for their stations concerning the part that the clerks in the Railway Mail Service are expected to take in electing or helping to elect Harrison delegates to the nominating convention.

THE Blaine republicans are, many of them, beginning to suspect that they are being duped in the interest of Mr. Harrison, and that there is some truth in the rumor that as soon as Mr. Harrison is certain that he has secured a sufficient number of votes to make his defeat by any one outside of Mr. Blaine impossible, Mr. Blaine will make a formal statement prohibiting the use of his own name and declaring in Mr. Harrison's favor. If he does there will be a big row in the party.

MANY years practice has given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that have been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers and all who have to do with patents.

THE plums are said to be dropping mighty slowly from the White House tree, and the impatience among those standing with uplifted faces and open mouths is getting worse and worse, and those of them who have no vote to offer in exchange are beginning to see that they are not "in it."

Ex-Governor A. P. Morehouse of Maryville Mo., committed suicide Sept. 23 by cutting his jugular vein with a pocket-knife. He was thought to be partially insane from sunstroke.

Woman Form an Alliance.

TOPEKA, Kas., Sept. 24.—A charter for the National Woman's Alliance was filed with the Secretary of State this morning. Among the incorporators are: Mrs. Peffer, Mrs. Otis, Mrs. Gatham French, wife of Secretary French of the State Farmers Alliance, and Mrs. Emma D. Pack, editress of the Topeka Farmers' Wife. The object of the association is to establish a bureau for the better education of women in economical, social and political questions, and to make and to develop a better state mentally, morally and financially, with full and unconditional use of the ballot—Republic.

The excitement caused by the rush for homes, at Guthrie Ok., had greatly subsided Sept. 23. Fully 500 people were gathered in front of the Land Office when opened on the above date.

A number of Iowa Indians made a great deal of money the 22d, by showing boomers desirable locations. One Indian boy 13 years old made $95 in this way.

The negro colonists were not very successful in the rush. A few of them got good claims, but in the majority of cases a white man will contest the claim. Three or four negroes would settle on a claim and will prove up on forty acres each, but the white men want 160 acres.

A courier from Tecumseh, the town site of the lower county seat, stated that the site was proclaimed open to settlement at noon the 23d by Governor Steele. Two thousand people rushed in and claimed lots. There had been no disturbance when the courier left. Governor Steele immediately proceeded to Chandler, the county seat of the upper county, and arrived there the same day. That town site was to be opened the next day. Troops were guarding the site to prevent intrusion.

A Modern amman.

John Whitman, the man who lifts 600 pounds in his teeth, pushed a freight-car weighing 30,000 lbs along a switch on North street, near Madison, on the morning of Sept. 23d, in the presence of about 300 people. He got between the car he intended to push and another, the brakes of which were down. Seating himself upon the second car, he placed his feet against the forward car, and, after taking a deep breath, gave it one mighty push with them. The car quivered and the went forward several feet. He did this several times, but owing to the car being on a grade he could not move it very far. A car weighing 23,600 pounds he moved with ease. Mr. Dunn, the yardmaster, said the cars moved would take the efforts of at least eight ordinary men.

In the afternoon Whitman gave an exhibition of his strength at the gymnasium at the Central Police Station. He handled a hundred pound dumb-bell as if it weighed five pounds. Captain Farnan and one of his officers then got on Whitman's back, who stooped over, and with his teeth picked up two dumb-bells tied together, weighing 100 pounds, and at the same time lifted a hundred pound bell in each hand. The bell and men on his back in all weighed 600 pounds. Whitman also lifted 200 pounds by his teeth. Laying out flat on the floor, he strapped a fifty-pound bell to his foot, and then raised it up slowly, stopping at intervals. One of the most remarkable feats he did was to tie a twenty-pound bell on the end of a strap, the other end of which he held in his teeth. He then swung the bell around, and when he got it high in air he jerked it back with his teeth. Whitman the wonder, was at one time on the New York police force.—Baltimore American.

Malaria

Is believed to be caused by poisonous miasms arising from low, marshy land or from decaying vegetable matter, and which, breathed into the lungs, enter and poison the blood. If a healthy condition of the blood is maintained by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, one is much less liable to malaria, and Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many severe cases of this distressing affection.

A Wonderful Medicine.

"For malaria I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. It has kept my children well right through the summer, and we live in one of the worst places for malaria in Marysville. I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for that all gone feeling, with great benefit." Mrs. B. F. DAVIS, Marysville, Cal.

Break-Bone Fever.

"My daughter Pearl was taken with dengue (or break-bone) fever 2 years ago, and my friends thought I would lose her. I had almost given up hope until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took four bottles in four months and gained 15 pounds. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla for giving her back to me restored to health and strength." JULIA A. KING, Sherman, Texas.
