Local News.

Henderson Elliot, living near the Narrows, brought a load of very fine vegetables to town last Monday.

Go to the meat shop of Martin Beyerley for your vegetables, potatoes, cabbage, squashes, onions etc.

Harry Thompson and family returned yesterday from their visit to friends in the Drewsey neighborhood.

Chas. Anderson desires all parties owing him hotel bills to settle the same immediately and save cost.

A. Wintermier of Silvies valley, was in town last Monday night, on his return from Springer, where his daughter Bertha is teaching school.

FOR SALE—Forty-five or fifty head of good stock horses, cheap for cash. Inquire of M. R. Biggs for particulars.

I have this day, Oct. 5, 1891, sold and relinquished all my right and title in the EAST OREGON HERALD to my brother, Julian C. Byrd.

DIED—Of typhoid fever, at the residence of C. A. Sweek in Burns, Tuesday the 6th inst., at 2 p. m. Miss Julia Bee Gage, a sister of Mrs. C. A. Sweek.

N. Brown and H. C. Levens have succeeded in selling their horses. The latter, who has been very sick, is now convalescent, and expected home in a short time.

This issue of the HERALD our readers will see is enlarged an extra sheet, which is permanent provided we meet with the appreciation and approval of the public which we think we deserve.

Tom Anderson will start a butcher shop next Monday morning, the 12th, inst., in the building formerly occupied by Sam China man. The business manager and steak cutter is Henry Caldwell.

There are about 105 women to every 100 men; one-quarter of the population of the world die before the age of seventeen years; only 1 in 1000 lives to be 100 years old, and only six in 1000 reach seventy five.

Quit a number of persons in town this week from the Drewsey country; among them are Shubel T. Giles, L. C. Bradford, James Anderson, A. J. Alphin, Daniel Davis and Joe Holebas.

The Red Front livery stable under the management of Bill Woods is getting a big run of custom. Bill knows a horse consequently understands how to care for them. See his new ad in this issue.

The Pennoyer boom is apparently catching on in the east. The Washington Post says editorially: In making up the books for next year's event the democrats will make a grave mistake if they overlook Governor Pennoyer.

Notice change in the ad of the White Front Livery Stable this issue. The stable is now under the management of Brenton & Fine, owners and proprietors; both are wide awake business men, and spare no pains to please customer.

The Burns mill will be making flour in about ten days. John Sayer begs leave to inform the public that he will have a first class miller, and the flour made will be equal to any, minus the roller process. Another fact we should mention in connection with our mill, that is, wheat must be good to make good flour. Notice ad, in this issue.

the HERALD will take wood, wheat and vegetables on subscription.

A supply of children's donet flannel waists at 50 cent, black wool hose at 40 cents, and infants booties at 25 cents to be found at the Milliner Store.

B. H. Fine proprietor of "Texas' Resort" still has a heavy run of custom, because he keeps the best wines, liquors and cigars that can be obtained. Look for display ad in this issue.

The Saloon of Lewis & Richardson is a very popular resort. They are courteous, polite business men, and keep constantly behind the bar for their customers, the best of liquors and cigars.

Quite a number of our citizens changed their place of residence this week, the following is the list: Thos. Gianini, E. B. Reed, W. Y. King, B. H. Fine, O. D. Rusk and A. W. Gowan.

Stockmen can now get honest weights by shipping or selling stock at Huntington. The O. C. Co. having just completed one of Fairbanks Stock Scales, and arranged a large corral for the purpose. Certified weights given.

Abner Robbins will soon have his winter supply of goods and groceries, which he will sell at low figures for cash. It wont pay farmers to go to the railroad for supplies when goods are so cheap at the store of Abner Robbins.

Notice the new ad of Cal Geer, our Hardware merchant, in this issue. It is needless for us to reiterate the benefit and value to ranchers accruing from the enterprise and accommodating spirit of Cal Geer, for every one is aware of the fact.

Notice the ad of Mrs. Lewis Racine proprietress of the French Hotel. This is the leading hotel of this county and the proprietress has lately added to her house new attractions and comforts for her patrons, showing her disposition to please and accommodate.

John Jordan was arrested at his fathers ranch, 15 or 20 miles south of Burns, by Homer Maec, acting deputy sheriff, on the 2d inst. Jordan is wanted in Wasco county where he is charged with grand larceny. Deputy Sheriff Graddon took the prisoner to The Dalles.

A new way of stopping a runaway team has been invented. It is done by electricity, and consists of a dry battery under the driver's seat, connected by wires with metal balls, placed in the horses nostrils. There are two buttons one near the driver and the other on the side, which closes the circuit when pressed. The result is a mild shock which brings the team to a stand still.

The county school Superintendent advertised the meeting of the county institute in the Harney Times, ignoring the HERALD and Items. The HERALD would have gladly published the notice gratis as a matter of news and for the benefit of the teachers in the county, had the supt. condescended to so honor its columns. We understand there is a mistake as to the time of holding the institute.
