The Ohio Campaign.

Columbus, O, Oct. 5.—Governor Campbell held a consultation with the members of the Democrat State Committee to-night, the subject of the campaign being fully and freely discussed and the various phases considered. The Governor expressed the greatest confidence in the success of the State ticket and referred to the deep interest shown by farmers in the strong Republican counties to hear the tariff discussed by others besides Major McKinley. He stated that he felt the greatest confidence in his own election, after two weeks of campaigning, and did not hesitate to say that he believed that McKinley was already beaten. Members of the committee claim that every report received is of the most encouraging character, and that the prospects of success are fully 25 per cent greater than at the same time two years ago. Governor Campbell will take a couple of days' rest, and at the same time make his preparations to meet McKinley in joint debate at Ada on Thursday next. The Democratic campaign committee enlarged their head quarters to-day and increased their working force. The word has gone out that Democratic prospects are brighter than at any time since the Cleveland convention and that a full vote next month will insure success.—The Republic.

Woman Moonshiner Caught.

Huntington W. Va., Oct. 4.—Lucy McCullen, the notorious woman moonshiner, was captured near Lincoln Court House Saturday. For over two years Miss McCullen who is now 24 years of age and an amazon in strength and conrage, has peddled illicit whisky to the thousands of workmen engaged in the construction of the Norfolk and Western Railroad. The liquor was made in a secret still in the Logan Mountains by her father, brothers and lover. Accompanied by the latter alone the young woman made regular visits to the workmen's camps, disposing of the liquor. She was always armed and shot no fewer than three men who insulted her. Deputy Marshals have made frequent attempts to arrest her, but failed. Last week they came on her unexpectedly in Logan County she escaped, but the pursuit was too vigorous and Saturday night she was taken while in the house of a friend taking her first sleep in four days.—The Republic.

Rival of Mammoth cave.

Explorations made in the Shiloh cave, near the village of Fayetteville Indiana, show that in beauty it rivals the Mammoth Cave. About a mile of it has been examined, and there are several side passages unexplored. Its mouth is in a deep sink, near a cemetery, under which the cavern passes. Several relics of prehistoric men have also been found.
