—T. V. B. EMBREE, Chairman.
W. C. BYRD, Secretary.

—KICKERS—Parties who have been conspicuous as kickers against Harney county, and who have been in the lead condemning our county, and who have interest'd themselves so much in that way, as to render themselves obnoxious to the citizens of this county, please examine our prospect for gold, and after looking at the gold mines, take a peep at our coal mines also, and then when strangers refer to our county in your presence, instead of being ready to exclaim Harney N. G. have a hole in which to take refuge.

—T. A. McKinnon's thresher passed through town Wednesday afternoon. Ellis McKinnon and J. Albert were in charge of it. They were on their way down to the lake neighborhood; from there they expect to go to Anderson valley. That machine has threshed over 14,000 bushels of grain this year.

—The HERALD will take wood, wheat and vegetables on subscription.

—HOW ABOUT THOSE TEETH?

Drs. Moore & Cate, Dentists, Dr. Moore of Reno and Cate of Quincy are in Burns professionally. Those wanting work in dentistry will find them at the French Hotel. Gas administered if wanted.

—WILL SUE—The State is going to sue Baker county for back taxes. The account beginning as far back as 1873. Every year since a small amount of unpaid taxes has been charged up to Baker county until the aggregate reaches at this time $12,245.49

—LOOK—The fourth year of the HERALD expires the first of next month and we hope to start on the fifth volume with light hearts and willing hands and in this our subscribers can assist us greatly by paying up and renewing their subscriptions. We have lately increased our subscription, but we desire to keep all the old ones. We have added a sheet to the paper and issue at the same price—25¢—which certainly gives our readers a very respectable local paper for less money than local papers usually charge.

It takes money to run any business and you must recollect that it is only the small amount of $2.50 from each subscriber that enables the editor to keep on his feet. Please remit.
