

Hot Blooded Young Kentuckians.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 15.—A tremendous sensation was created in society this morning by a pitched battle between Robert Breckenridge, son of the silver-tongued congressman, Col. W. H. Breckenridge and Dault Arnold, a well-known society young man of Frankfort...

The Polk county alliance recently passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of the state railway commission the fish commission the sheep commission and the office of attorney general. They demand that all nominees for legislative honors shall pledge themselves to oppose all appropriations for public roads or bridges, they demand the lowering of the salaries of all public officials to a liberal business rate...

The New York World says: Anthropologists all over the world are said to be aroused by the proposition of Professor Putnam, of Harvard, to gather at the World's Fair in Chicago, living representatives of every living race of aborigines to be found on the American Continent...

Josie Mansfield, who acquired considerable notoriety some years since and the woman about whose charms Ed. Stokes shot James Fisk in New York City, was married in Paris recently to a prominent New York attorney. Ed Stokes, who escaped the gallows and served a few years in Auburn prison for the crime, is now running the most successful house in New York, the Hoffman.

The present to Mr. Cleveland of the "little baby" was a kind of "good-morning" to what followed in the great victory for Democracy in New York. Let us have another next year, and it will be "good-evening" to the Republican party at the Presidential election.

A boy of 17 and a girl of 13 were married at Columbia, Mo., a few days ago. Among the wedding gifts were a doll and a Fiobert rifle.

A POPULAR FAMILY.

JENNIE: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to catch on to the new thing? On what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me." KATE: "I don't know; I certainly do not make an expert in that direction."

without any teacher; you came to the rescue when Miss Lafarge deserted her Belair class so suddenly, and certainly we are all deeply in your debt for your instruction. I heard you talking about it. I don't think you are able to make mistakes in playing it and you are not in any of the 'books' and know just what to do in every case. In the last few months you have improved so in health, owing, you told me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little 'circle of the way' place—for you never go to the city."

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Fillmore, Dubuque Co., Ia., Sept. 1891. Miss K. Finnigan writes: "My mother and sister used Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic for neuropalgia. They are both perfectly well now and never tired praising the Tonic."

DAYTON, Nov. 8th, 1891. I was suffering from nervous debility, caused by dyspepsia. I don't get more than three hours' sleep during any night. The effect of Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic was magical. I slept sound and at last as well as ever after taking only one bottle. As a Nerve Tonic, considering how marvelous it is, think it is the best medicine ever invented.
