

The Herald.

WEDNESDAY MARCH 16, 1892.

From Van.

VAN, Mkt. 11.

Our farmers are plowing this week.

Lytle Howard made us a pleasant call, this week.

Mr. R. F. Motley informs us that there is still a good deal of snow around his ranch.

A petition has been sent to the Department praying for a semi-weekly mail on the Van and Drewsey line and if an office be established in Silver Valley we are expecting a route through from Van to that office, then we would be wholly dependent on the Burns-Vale route.

At the annual school election, in our district, Wolf Creek school house, there was no change made in our officers. The directors are J. P. Genhart, J. W. Miller and Fred Bliss; clerk J. H. Anderson.

Leonard Smith, John Howard, Isaac Clover and James Howard have taken their departure for the mines. Smith going to Trout Creek the others to Long Creek.

We are glad to hear that S. W. Miller, now living at Harney will soon return to his ranch.

"I'd like to be a scribe,
Or an ordinary poet.

I'd like to write things up in style,
But care not for folks to know it;

I'd like to write th' news in brief
And tell of the last daring deed!

But alas! I'm compelled just now
To sow my cabbage seed.

IN MEMORIAM

Died of heart disease at Burns Oregon, March 9, 1892, Mrs. Minnie Morrison in the 27th year of her life.

Mrs. Morrison whose maiden name was Carter, was born in Sonoma county, California, was married in Red Bluff California in May, 1882, and moved to Burns the 7th day of October, 1884, where she resided up to the time of her death.

The burial took place Thursday afternoon from the family residence, J. B. Huntington, in the absence of a clergyman conducted a short memorial service.

No better evidence of the esteem in which deceased was held could have been given than that which the long procession of sorrowing and sympathizing friends disclosed.

The husband has the sympathy and the two little daughters, Violet and Alice, have the tender pity of the whole community.

Wife and mother gone to her rest,
Lay the sad heart lightly over her breast—
She be her slumbers
In her home with the blest.

ED. HERALD: Our annual school election passed off without any undue excitement. Mr. O. W. Porter was elected school director, and J. A. McCune, clerk.

On the day of our school meeting a subscription paper was circulated by J. P. Dickenson, the money to be applied in painting our school house. $36 were collected in a short time from the parties present.

The beautiful spring is upon us, and the sheep men are hiving their flocks to the bunch-grass. Sheep have wintered well, also cattle and horses, and we have plenty of hay left over for next winter if it should be a hard one.

Our Sunday School is in a flourishing condition.

Now is heard the familiar notes of the crane, goose, swan and duck.

D. N. Caterson, R. R. Sitz and Wm. Morrison will, in a short time advertise to prove up on their claims.

Joseph Parker, who was taken sick, at Drewsey, some time ago, is still very ill.

Guy E. Dickenson, Frank Williams, Adam George and Vestal Hanks have gone on a prospecting tour.

Messrs. Fisher, Ritterbuschs, and Shoffner are preparing to start to Brazil. They expect to leave here about the 1st of June.

We are informed, that a rich strike has been made at the Brick Pomeroy mine near Harney, and Montana capitalists are negotiating for its purchase.

Guy Dickenson and John Allen have purchased of the Ritterbuschs their cattle.

In the new school district No. 17, at the annual election, John Allen, Hines and Robert Ivers were elected directors, and Glen Hendricks school clerk.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Clippings from our Neighboring Exchanges.

Two children died of diphtheria in Prineville this week. The usual precautions have been taken to prevent a spread of this dreadful disease, with what success time alone will tell.—Prineville News.

It was stated that a man threw a rock at a dog in Burns last week and wounded three candidates. About convention time it would not be a difficult matter to do this in Grant county.—Long Creek Eagle.

Col. Hegg assures us that the railroad from Albany will be completed 120 miles farther this summer, which is now built almost to the summit of the mountain. This road will pass within 80 miles of Lakeview. A force of men will be kept working all next winter.—Lakeview Examiner.

On Thursday the Pacific Live Stock Co. shipped from Huntington to C. H. Fry, the wholesale butcher of Seattle, ten cars, 240 head of beef cattle. The same company have several hundred yet to be put into market which they will probably hold until next month. The price of beef is steadily rising and by May 1st good beef will bring 4cts per lb. probably more.—Huntington Herald.

Deputy Sheriff Johnson, of Umatilla county, was in this city yesterday, on his return from Huntington where, through the efficiency of Deputy Sheriff Hannon, of this county, he found in waiting two individuals wanted for safe cracking, the offense having been committed a few days ago at the town of Adams. Mr. Johnson stopped over in Baker City in search of the third party an, accomplice in the crime, but was unsuccessful. He escorted his prisoners to Pendleton last evening.—Bedrock Democrat.

ADDITIONAL ITEMS.

Judge Shields and J. C. Creasman of Silver Creek were in town two days of last week.

Candidates are getting so thick that they have become somewhat "razzle-dazzled" and don't hardly know which one of the boys they are.

We see, in the County News of the last issue that J. S. Divine was seriously hurt a few days ago, by a fractious horse.

Wm. Altnow informs us there will be only one commissioner elected at the coming June election. He has consulted authority and is satisfied he holds over.

Since the order of our county court laying off our county in justices and constables districts, it will be the duty of the delegates in the county convention, representing each district, to nominate their local officers.

The school building at Heppner was burned to the ground on the night of 11th inst. The loss including books is estimated $7,600, insurance $4000.
