

NEWS IN GENERAL

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

In the Senate May 26th Mr. Stewart moved to take up the bill [introduced by him and reported adversely from the finance committee] to provide for the free coinage of gold and silver bullion, and for other purposes.

The vote was yeas 28 nays 20. We give the vote in details.

YEAS.—Allen, Bate, Butler, Cockrell, Coke, Colquitt, Harris, Jones [Ark.] Jones [Nev.] Kenna, Kyle, Mills, Mitchell, Morgan, Paddock, Pepper, Power, Pugh, Ransom, Sanders, Shoup, Stanford, Stewart, Teller, Turpie, Vest, Voorhees and Walthall—28.

NAYS.—Cameron, Cullom, Davis, Dawes, Dixon, Dolph, Gallinger, Gray, Hale, Hawley, Higgins, Morrill, Palmer, Perkins, Proctor, Sawyer, Stockbridge, Vilas, White and Wilson—20.

The full text of Mr. Stewart's bill is as follows:

That from and after the date and passage of this act the unit of value in the United States shall be the dollar, and the same may be coined of 412 2/3 grains of standard silver, or 25 8/9 grains of standard gold; and the said coins shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private. That hereafter any owner of silver or gold bullion may deposit the same at any mint of the United States to be coined standard dollars for his benefit and without charge; but it shall be lawful to refuse any deposit of less value of $100 or any bullion so base as to be unsuitable for the operations of the mint.

Sec. 2. That the provisions of section 3 of "an act to authorize the coinage of the standard silver dollar and to restore its legal tender character," which became a law February 28, 1878, is hereby made applicable to the coinage in this act provided for.

Sec. 3. That the certificates provided for in the second section of this act shall be of denominations of not less than $1 or more than $10,000, and each certificate shall be redeemable in coin of the standard value. A sufficient sum to carry out the provisions of this act is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 4. That the certificates provided for in this act, and all silver and gold certificates already issued, shall be receivable for all taxes and dues to the United States of every description and shall be a legal tender for the payment of all debts, public and private.

Sec. 5. That the owners of bullion deposited for coinage shall have the option to receive coin or its equivalent in the certificates provided for in this act and such bullion shall be subsequently coined.

The debate on the bill was opened by Mr. Stewart who was followed by Mr. Teller.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Specials to the afternoon papers from Washington quote J. S. Clarkson, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, thus: "In my opinion Blaine is physically capable of discharging the duties of the Presidency, and I am confident if nominated he will accept."—Examiner.

A POPULAR FAMILY.

JENNIE: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to 'catch on' to the latest new thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."

KATE: "I don't know; I certainly do not make any exertion in that direction."

JENNIE: "Well, during the last few months, for example, you have taken up painting."

without any teacher; you came to the rescue when Miss Lathrop deserted her Desarte class so suddenly, and certainly you are all improving in grace under your instruction. I heard you telling to my James last evening how his class made mistakes in painting that only you seem to be up on all the latest fashions, and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the last month you have improved so in health, owing, you tell me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little out-of-the-way place—for you never go to the city?"

KATE: "Why, Jennie, you will make me vain. I have one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? No! Magazine! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household; father has given up his magazine that he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really FAMILY magazine published, as we have sent for samples of all of them, and find that one is all for men, another all for women, and another for children only; while this one suits every one of us; so we only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.00 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see for yourself. Send 10 cents to the publishers, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting among the best informed families in town. If that be so, it is Demorest's Family Magazine that does it."
