Riley News.

JUNE 21, 1892.

ED. HEALD: Grain and vegetables are doing well here, and the health of our citizens excellent.

The election is past and two prevailing exclamations are "I knew he would scratch" and "I knew that man would stay with his ticket."

The excitement in our neighborhood at this time is the marriage of Nick Baker. His wife's maiden name is L. Pinkleton, they were married at the residence of W. H.
Hogan on the 12th inst. Joe Williams officiated.

Tell us not in idle jingle
Marriage is but an empty dream,
For the girl is dead that's single,
And things are not what they seem

Life is real, life is earnest,
Single blessedness a fib.
Man thou art to man returnest
Has been spoken of the rib.

Not all enjoyment, neither sorrow
Is our destined end or way,
But to act that each to-morrow
Finds us nearer marriage day.

Life's not long and youth is fleeting,
And our hearts are light and gay,
Still like pleasant dreams are beating
Welding marches all the way.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life
Be not like dumb driven cattle,
Be a heroine and a wife.

Trust not future how'er pleasant
Let the dead past bury its dead,
Act in the living present,
Heart within and hope ahead.

Lives of married folks all remind us
We can live our lives as well,
And departing leave behind us
Examples that shall surely tell.

GOLD DUST BOUGHT.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs.
Windslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success.
It soothes the child, softens the gums, alls all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste.
Sold by Druggists in every part of the world.
Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Windslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

A cold physician, named Dr. J. P. ... had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Brouchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motives and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper,
