NEWS IN GENERAL

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Left His Wife Behind.

Colonel Frank V. Drake, the wellknown attorney, and Mrs Drake have just returned from Denver, where the colonel attended the grand Knights Templar conclave. The colonel says he had a magnificient time, but this physical prototype of the late General John A Logan refrains to refer to his futile attempt to run away from his wife while en route for Colorado.

His brother in-law, Hon. Thomas A. Stephens, ex district attorney, however, makes up the deficiency in a veracious manner. He says:

"Mr. and Mrs. Drake while on their way to Denver stopped at La Grande for a meal. After the colonel had finished, he arose from the table and entered his car. In a few seconds the train pulled out and the lawyer was stricken with amazement at not seeing Mrs Drake in his section.

"Annoyed as he was his wife was more so. There she was in a strange place, with but little change in her purse, and it is perfectly natural to imagine in what an unpleasant predicament she found herself.

"Well, her first impulse was to wire to Baker City and ask for the return of her husband and her baggage. Fortunately the wire struck the train upon its arrival, and both the colonel and the baggage returned to La Grande. Among genteel people of this class there could not have been unpleasant scene, but the colonel should be more careful in the future. for he may, sometime, leave his plethoric purse in a sleeping birth.

"The fact of the whole matter is that the colonel, who at times is absent-minded, imagined that his wife had preceded him to the train; and he has scarcely recovered from the fright he caused Mrs. Drake. It is a source of much fun for the friends of the couple, to whom they are known as being greatly devoted to each other."—Telegram.

Treasure Trove.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 4.—A few weeks ago a rumor became current here that a sister in the Concepcion Convent had discovered an old document which stated that $3,000,000 in gold was buried at the time of the war with the French by the lady Superior of the convent. The work of excavating for the money was begun a few days ago by workmen under the direction of the priests of the convent.

News of the affair reached President Diaz and he immediately ordered the priests to suspend operations, and the work was placed in the charge of the Government. The treasure was unearthed yesterday, and it will be turned into the general treasury.—Examiner.

Secretary Gatens has sent out the formal call, but if any are overlooked they are still expected to be present.

Row at a Political Meeting.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 3.—A man named Ingraham was shot by Benjamin Durham at Conway last night, at a joint political debate between United States Senator James K. Jones and J. B. Shuttler, of the peoples party. Ingraham interrupted Senator Jones and Durham tried to quiet him. He struck at Durham, who then pulled his pistol and shot him through the left breast. The wound is a mortal one.

A Child's Life Saved.

POPLAR CREEK, Mont., March 2 1891.
My little girl, 8 years old, had St. Vitus dance so severe that she was perfectly helpless, lying in the bed and crying when awake and had to make no attempts to even speak or swallow. Our physician was in daily attendance, but she continued to grow worse until I began to use Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic; then she improved ... and now she is perfectly well. I am convinced my child's life was saved by this medicine and I recommend it to all who have nervous trouble of any kind and no one can say too much in praise of it. JOS. L. BAKER.
