THANKSGIVING.

"Home and Table Decorations for Thanksgiving" is a subject of interest to housewives just now. Edgar Sanders, the pioneer florist of Chicago, gives some practical hints thereon in Goodform for November. Sara Sedgwick discusses the "Thanksgiving Dinner" in an equally practical manner and, in fact, the November issue of that bright Chicago magazine is a Thanksgiving number throughout, even to the stories, illustrations, etc., which are all unusually attractive. The frontispiece is a now historical picture, representing the preparations being made for the first Thanksgiving, appointed by old Governor Bradford, of Massachusetts, in 1623.

While George Debord, of High Valley, Union county, a 10 year old boy, was out hunting in the timber with a 22 caliber rifle, his dog treed a animal which proved to be a large-sized lynx. The boy, not knowing the danger, took aim at the animal's head and fired. Luckily it was a good shot and the lynx came tumbling from the tree, having been shot through the brain. Had the animal only been wounded it would no doubt have attacked the boy, and serious results might have followed. The lynx was three feet five inches long.—Heppner Record.

A tramp harness maker now working for A. L. Hunter, of Albany, came to this coast in a remarkable way. He was in Chicago a few weeks ago, and saw in the car shops the motor now in use on the Albany street railway line. It was then about to be shipped to this city. He procured a pair of blankets and a quantity of provision, and concealing himself in the water tank of the motor took a free ride to this coast, arriving here safe and sound. It was a novel ride, and he says he experienced but little inconvenience in making the long journey.

—Ira Loyce of Harney is still very ill.

—The presidential election for the coming four years term, is now a thing of the past, and somebody is left.

—Mrs. Goodman who has been absent for some time, visiting friends in Baker county, returned a few days ago. She is now residing in our town.

—Miss Azuba Young has taken a class in music in Prineville. She left here for that town last Monday.

When Wilson, the murderer of Mamie Walsh, jumped the fence a ter his escape from Sheriff Kelly, the sheriff marked the top rail where he went over with a view to having a starting point to put hounds upon his track. The rail has since been brought to Salem and made into walking canes, and the canes, with Sheriff Kelly's knife-marks on them, are in the possession of several young men.

—The Elite Saloon under the management of Harris is doing a good business. Everything is kept in his line and of the best quality not "bug juice" but straight goods. Call and sample.

—The O. C. Company of Huntington are now receiving the reward of fair honest dealing with the ranchers of our county. Every day we hear of some one starting for that place and with the intention of buying of that firm.

—At the Shoe and Boot Store of Lunenburg and Fry is where you get the best wear. Their stock is complete comprising all styles, and bought from the most responsible firms, making a specialty of that line of goods, they exercise judgment in the selection of stock.

—Notice our offer of the HERALD and Goodform, an excellent magazine, the subscription of which is $2. We offer both at the price of the Herald. We do this not because we feel ourselves financially able to do so, but we desire to increase the circulation of our paper, and as an inducement to delinquent subscribers to pay up. We hope our friends will avail themselves of this liberal proposition, and we earnestly solicit those in arrears to pay up.

The Druggists

In Lowell, Mass., agree in saying that they sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other blood purifiers. For instance: F. C. GOODALE: I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers. A. W. DOWS & Co.: Hood's takes the lead of all other sarsaparillas. C. F. BLANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of any similar. MARSON & SHAW: With us the sale of Hood's is 9 to 1 of any other kind. F. & E. BAILEY & Co.: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines. LARLTON & HOVEY: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year. P. P. MOODY: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar. C. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular sarsaparilla of the day. THIRTY OTHER DRUGGISTS speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its proprietors have been known for many years, could not continue if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by druggists, $1; six for $5. Prepared only by J. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

A B C OFFER.

Wishing to secure as many renewals and new subscription as possible before Jan. 1st, we have decided to make a proposition that should be accepted by every one. The Goodform, a wonderful magazine published in Chicago—the World's Fair City—if you have not seen it you cannot appreciate how nice it is.

Notwithstanding it is only a year old it already outranks many of the oldest and most popular magazines of the world.

YOU ASK WHY? Simply because it is published to please the people and not the editors. In fact any information of high character that will tend to make the people wiser better and happier, always finds a place in Goodform.

It has no hobbies and does not take sides on any questions except those of honesty, justice and purity. Its eighty pages are filled each month with serial and short stories of the highest order, select and choice literature, poetry song and art.

Matters of dress, Woman's Sphere, Home Decorations, Bodily Grace and Beauty, Conduct and Character, Health—The Nursery, Our House Affairs, Plants and Flowers, Practical Amusements, etc., etc., are ably discussed each month by editors who are thoroughly posted on these departments of life.

Of course you want Goodform, everybody does, and our arrangement with the publishers makes it possible for you to get this most beautiful and valuable magazine for nothing during a limited time only.

The HERALD is $2.50 a year and the Goodform $2.00. Now we make our subscribers the following offer, which will hold good as long as we run this notice: to all delinquents who will pay up and one year in advance and to all new subscribers, we will send to their P. O. address, the Goodform "gratis." This is certainly an offer that no one should overlook, and we sincerely hope our readers will accept.
