

The Herald.

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 30, 1892

In a short time the last session of the Fifty second Congress will convene, and already the capital is beginning to fill up with those who will spend the winter there. It is probable that not a great deal of legislation, outside the passage of appropriation bills, will be attempted, as this is the short session, terminating on the 4th of March next. There continues considerable discussion of the probability of the calling by Mr. Cleveland shortly after his inauguration of a special session of the newly elected Congress. The necessity which may bring this about will not be the urgent need of early tariff legislation, as it is felt that that obligation can be better met through the appointment by the coming Congress of a tariff commission to formulate and report to the new Congress a tariff bill or bills at the regular session in December next. A condition demanding prompt attention, however, is the prospect that the outgoing Republican administration will turn over to Mr. Cleveland and his party not only an empty treasury, but an actual deficit between the estimated receipts and expenditures of the government for the current fiscal year of about $87,000,000. These are the figures given out by Republican treasury officials themselves, and they tell their own story and point their own moral. Mr. Cleveland when he retired from the Presidency turned over to Mr. Harrison a surplus of $100,000,000; Mr. Harrison will turn back to Mr. Cleveland an empty treasury and a deficit of over $80,000,000 on top of it. It is this alarming prospective condition which may necessitate an extra session of Congress.

Harper & Brothers have just issued a sumptuously illustrated work on Chicago and the Fair, by Julian Ralph, which they offer exclusively to new or renewing subscribers to Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, or Harper's Bazar at the cost of fifty cents in addition to the yearly subscription price of the periodical. The chapters embraced in the volume are the result of Mr. Ralph's special studies in Chicago, and are illustrated with seventy-three full page pictures. The work has been approved by the Department of Publicity and Promotion of the World's Columbian Exposition.

—We have been asked to publish our definition of the "Solid South." The Solid South are the states that seceded from the Union before and during the civil war.

—We give below the names of the delegates sent from our government to the monetary conference now being held at Brussels: Senator William B. Allison, Congressman James B. McCreary; E. Benjamin Andrew, president of Brown university; Professor Ronald P. F. Falkner, University of Pennsylvania; Thomas W. Cudler, Thomas T. Teller, James T. Morgan, Senator John P. Jones; Henry W. Cannon, president of the Chase National bank, and E. O. Leech, director of the mint.

To MY FRIENDS—Thanking my friends of Harney and Grant Counties for their support in the late election for Joint Representative which resulted in a tie between myself and A. W. Gowan and assuring them that their effort in my behalf is duly appreciated and will always be one bright spot in my political horizon, to which I may turn with pride and especially my own precinct, which vote proves conclusively that I have the confidence, esteem, and good wishes of my neighbors. In my race for the office there is nothing discreditable in a district having a majority of 150 or probably 200 republican the honors are all on my side. My financial ability and business relations are such that I cannot make another active campaign, which my friends naturally expect if I remain in the race, therefore I respectfully withdraw believing it to be to the best interest of my party and my own financial condition to do so.

—Notice our offer of the HERALD and Goodform, an excellent magazine, the subscription of which is $2. We offer both at the price of the Herald. We do this not because we feel ourselves financially able to do so, but we desire to increase the circulation of our paper, and as an inducement to delinquent subscribers to pay up. We hope our friends will avail themselves of this liberal proposition, and we earnestly solicit those in arrears to pay up.

The Druggists

In Lowell, Mass., agree in saying that they sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other blood purifiers. For instance:

F. C. GOODALE: I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers.

A. W. DOWS & CO.: Hood's takes the lead of all other sarsaparillas.

C. F. BLANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of any similar.

MARSTON & SHAW: With us the sale of Hood's is 9 to 1 of any other kind.

F. & E. BAILEY & CO.: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines.

CARLTON & HOVEY: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year.

F. P. MOODY: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar.

C. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular sarsaparilla of the day.

THIRTY OTHER druggists speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its proprietors have been known for many years, could not continue if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

A BIG OFFER.

Wishing to secure as many renews and new subscription as possible before Jan. 1st, we have decided to make a proposition that should be accepted by every one. The Goodform, a wonderful magazine published in Chicago—the World's Fair City—if you have not seen it you cannot appreciate how nice it is.

Notwithstanding it is only a year old it already outranks many of the oldest and most popular magazines of the world.

YOU ASK WHY? Simply because it is published to please the people and not the editors. In fact any information of high character that will tend to make the people wiser, better and happier, always finds a place in Goodform.

It has no hobbies and does not take sides on any questions except those of honesty, justice and purity. Its eighty pages are filled each month with serial and short stories of the highest order, select and choice literature, poetry, song and art.

Matters of dress, Woman's Sphere, Home Decorations, Bodily Grace and Beauty, Conduct and Character, Health—The Nursery, Our House Affairs, Plants and Flowers, Practical Amusements, etc., etc., are ably discussed each month by editors who are thoroughly posted on these departments of life.

Of course you want Goodform, everybody does, and our arrangement with the publishers makes it possible for you to get this most beautiful and valuable magazine for nothing during a limited time only.

The HERALD is $2.50 a year and the Goodform $2.00. Now we make our subscribers the following offer, which will hold good as long as we run this notice: to all delinquents who will pay up and one year in advance and to all new subscribers, we will send to their P. O. address, the Goodform "gratis." This is certainly an offer that no one should overlook, and we sincerely hope our readers will accept.
