VAN ITEMS.

Feb. 10th. 1893.

Plenty of snow and fine sleighing.

We see many persons on the way to Drewsey to day, presumably to attend the mask ball to-night. Hope all in attendance will have a good time.

Horse buyers have been visiting our neighborhood, Messrs. A. B. Marks and Jno. Farrens sold several head.

Rumor says there is to be a wedding in our vicinity in a few days.

BORN.—Feb. 5th to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bliss a girl.

VANITY.

—A remarkable funeral took place at Rock Island Tenn. a short time ago. The dead were a mother and her son, the son had been dead 30 years, he was a mother's only son, who enlisted in the confederate army, a mere lad, and was killed at the battle of Murfreesboro. The death of her son, completely prostrated the mother and she declared she would not part with him during her natural life and when she died both should be buried in one grave. The body of the son was put in an air tight casket with glass top and placed in a room assigned for that purpose, and there it remained for 30 years, until the mother's death, when both were placed side by side, in the same grave.

Further Particulars of the Pine Ridge Massacre.

OMAHA, Feb. 9.—A special from Hermosa, S. D. to the Bee says: Edward Stenger of Stenger & Humphrey, beef contractors, is just in from camp on Pass creek. He says the bodies of Bennett, Belley, and Boyce will arrive tonight and will be buried here. James Bacon and William Kelley, boys 16 years old and guests at the ranch over night, were taken in charge by their father and uncle and removed to their homes, 10 miles south of Pine Ridge. Two Strikes and three of his band were fed the night of the 2d by Rodney Boyce, the camp cook. It is supposed the Indians had side arms concealed on their persons and after partaking of the hospitality of the camp murdered the whites in cold blood. The report that the men were having a drunken frolic is most emphatically denied by Mr. Stenger. The Indians stole four saddles and sixteen horses. Two Strikes and two of his band are dead, killed by Indian police and friendly Sioux. Two of Strikes' band is comprised of two families of outlaws which have been run from several camps and seemed to belong to no regular tribe and live by themselves.

—Joe Wooley informs us that an old squaw was deserted by her tribe a few days since, and left in a wick-up near his place, to die. Mrs. Wooley, also, we believe, another lady or it may be two or three, took compassion on the old squaw and carried her blankets to keep her warm, and provision. After getting up one morning Mrs. Wooley noticed there was no smoke in the Indian habitation and supposed the poor old red skin had died during the night, but was so much afraid she would not approach the tent and examine, but importuned her husband to do so, and he flatly refused. Haying business in town Joe got his horse and started for Burns; on the road he noticed an Indian pretty well loaded, and when he reached her found her to be the supposed dead squaw, who thought it better to appropriate Mrs. Wooley's blankets than to die.

Steady Progress

Has characterized Hood's Sarsaparilla ever since it was placed before the public. Wherever introduced, its sales have grown from year to year, until now it is the most popular and most successful medicine offered. Any druggist will confirm this statement. The secret of this success lies in the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a medicine of merit. It does actually accomplish all that is claimed for it, and when given a fair trial, is reasonably certain to be of benefit.

Positive Statements.

"Since Hood's Sarsaparilla has been in my hands for sale I have had frequent and unreserved testimonials in its favor. Although carrying this preparation for less than one year, my sales have been greater than of any similar preparation, and the testimonials in its favor are at once positive and personally noticeable." A. WATSON, Healdsburg, Cal.

Sells On Its Merits.

"My boys say, 'Papa, why don't you buy more of Hood's Sarsaparilla at a time; we are always short.' It sells on its own merits." F. BEAL, Portland, Oregon; the oldest druggist in Oregon.

S. B. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

A BIG OFFER.

Wishing to secure as many renewals and new subscriptions as possible before Jan. 1st, we have decided to make a proposition that should be accepted by every one. The Goodform, a wonderful magazine published in Chicago—the World's Fair City—if you have not seen it you cannot appreciate how nice it is.

Notwithstanding it is only a year old it already outranks many of the oldest and most popular magazines of the world.

YOU ASK WHY? Simply because it is published to please the people and not the editors. In fact any information of high character that will tend to make the people wiser better and happier, always finds a place in Goodform.

It has no hobbies and does not take sides on any questions except those of honesty, justice and purity. Its eighty pages are filled each month with serial and short stories of the highest order, select and choice literature, poetry song and art.

Matters of dress, Woman's Sphere, Home Decorations, Bodily Grace and Beauty, Conduct and Character, Health—The Nursery, Our House Affairs, Plants and Flowers, Practical Amusements, etc., etc., are ably discussed each month by editors who are thoroughly posted on these departments of life.

Of course you want Goodform, everybody does, and our arrangement with the publishers makes it possible for you to get this most beautiful and valuable magazine for nothing during a limited time only.

The HERALD is $2.50 a year and the Goodform $2.00. Now we make our subscribers the following offer, which will hold good as long as we run this notice: to all delinquents who will pay up and one year in advance and to all new subscribers, we will send to their P. O. address, the Goodform "gratis." This is certainly an offer that no one should overlook, and we sincerely hope our readers will accept.
