

Gowns For The Summer Girl.

The "summer girl" will be more fully armed for conquest than ever before, robed in the charming new gowns of thin fabrics which seem made specially for the enhancement of youth and beauty. The fullness which is clumsy and awkward in thick materials is exactly suited to the diaphanous organdies, mulls, dotted Swiss muslins, etc.; and the innumerable ruffles and yards of lace and ribbon heaped upon them help to produce the light and airy effect which is indispensable to success.

All these thin fabrics are made up over linings of silk, lawn, or satin, the color of the ground or the figure. Usually the lining is a foundation skirt, joined to the outside only at the belt, and it is finished with a ruffle around the bottom. Four breadths of organdy are used for a skirt, whether it is hemmed and tucked, trimmed with many rows of insertion, or made with a double or triple skirt gathered like flounces to a foundation skirt. The waists are fitted usually over a fitted lining, though this is sometimes omitted. Surprise effects prevail, varied by the guimpe or a deep rounding yoke of puffs, tucks, and insertion, which gives the sloping, 1830 shoulder effect. Shoulder frills, or even deep flounces which droop in the back almost to the waist line and very nearly cover the upper arm, are seen on all these gowns, and are quite appropriate for them. These frills and flounces are either entirely of lace, or of the gown fabric trimmed with lace and insertion or openwork embroidery. —From "Midsummer Gowns," in Demorest's Family Magazine for July.

No Longer Bosses.

President Cleveland has notified the heads of all departments that Dan Murphy and John Markley are no longer to be recognized in the matter of appointments. This was what caused a cessation of the work which Murphy and Markley were doing. The appointment of Russell as appraiser brought a storm of abuse upon the administration from many democrats in Oregon, and Mr. Cleveland now feels that he has made a mistake in naming Russell. It was also brought to the attention of the president that Murphy and Markley were appointing Weaverites as fourth class postmasters. One instance of this was at Condon, Gilliam county. G. W. Rhinehart, chairman of the county committee, was an applicant for the office and was indorsed by nearly all the democrats. Murphy and Markley turned him down because Rhinehart refused to support Weaver upon their instructions, and recommended the appointment of Darling, who was a Weaverite from principle. It is claimed that in the appointments Murphy and Markley have succeeded in having madmen who deserted the democratic ticket and supported Weaver, have had the preference over old-line democrats. These matters were taken directly to the president, and the president told another Oregon democrat that he had given instructions that Murphy and Markley were no longer to be recognized. —Oregonian.

LONDON, June 10.—In a scratch mile cycling race at Horne Hill today, the American, Sanger, was beaten by the Englishman, Harris. It was a grand race. The last quarter-mile was done in 29 1/2 sec., beating the record by one fifth of a second.
